INTRODUCTION.

SOON after the publication by the writer in 1881 of his "Notes on the Ancestry of Major William Roe Van Voorhis of Fishkill, N. Y.," and its lodgment in the various Historical Societies and Public Libraries throughout the United States, he began to receive, from members of different branches of the Van Voorhees family who had seen the work in the aforesaid Societies and Libraries, letters giving the names of their parents and grandparents and where they had resided, and asking if it was not possible to connect them with some one of the grandchildren of the emigrant ancestor, Stephen Coerte Van Voorhees, mentioned in the "Notes." These letters, being answered by the writer, gave rise to correspondences bringing to him considerable genealogical information respecting the various branches of the family, so that at the close of the year 1883 he found that he had collected over two thousand additional names of the descendants of the emigrant ancestor, and he then conceived the idea of devoting a number of years to the collection of material for a genealogy of the entire Van Voorhees family in this country, the result of which has been the present work. The writer does not claim the work to be complete,—few genealogies are,—but having exhausted all the known sources of information, and having written for family records to all the members of the family whose addresses he has been able to obtain, he has thought it advisable to publish what he has collected, in the hope that some other member of the family may some time in the future take it up where he has left it and bring it to a fuller completion for the benefit of the Van Voorhees posterity. Had more of the writer's letters to members of the family been answered, he would have been able to present a more complete work, but he would here return his thanks to those members of the family, and others, who have so kindly assisted him by furnishing names, dates, church records, etc., etc., and assure them that it is by their coöperation alone that he is enabled to give to the descendants of Steven Coerte Van Voorhees this genealogy of the family.

PART FIRST.

EXPLANATORY.

In part first the father of Steven Coerte Van Voorhees, who emigrated from Holland in 1660, namely, Coert Alberts of Voorhees, is designated by the numeral 1, his children are designated by the small letters "a," "b," "c," etc., Steven Coerte Van Voorhees being "a." Steven Coerte Van Voorhees' children are designated by the capital letters "A," "B," "C," etc., respectively, and Steven Coerte Van Voorhees' grandchildren are designated by the Roman numerals "I.," "II.," "III.," etc., consecutively up to "LXXXVI." In part second each one of Steven Coerte Van Voorhees' grandchildren is taken up in turn and their descendants traced down as far as it was possible, many to the present generation, the same letters and numerals being used in the same order as in part first, to designate the successive generations, and where the generations traced down from said grandchildren exceed four, the same letters and numerals are used again in the same order, but in italics. For a further guide for tracing members of the family correctly, each generation from above said grandchildren down is placed a quarter of an inch to the right from the generation above it. To illustrate the method in part second, the arrangement below shows the descent of one child in each generation from Cornelis Coerte Van Voorhees (the fourteenth grandchild of Steven Coerte Van Voorhees, who emigrated from Holland) down as far as carried.

XIV. Cornelis Coerte Van Voorhees, child of Coert Stevense Van Voorhees and Marretje Gerritse Van Couwenhoven, and grandchild of Steven Coerte Van Voorhees, who emigrated from Holland in 1660 and settled at Flatlands, L. I.
Had child:

1. Coert, b. circa 1698; d. (Will proved Feb. 11, 1775); m. Peternelletje or Nelly . . . . , b. ; d. .
Had child:

e. Coert, b. Aug. 21, 1735; d. Sept. 11, 1817; m. 1st, Caty Van Pelt, b. ; d. ; m. 2d, Helena Hoagland (widow of George Bergen), b. ; d. .
Had child:

A. Coert, b. Feb. 28, 1756; d. Mar. 9, 1821; m., May 27, 1779, Ann Updike, b. Mar. 23, 1760; d. July 13, 1845.
Had child:

II. William, b. Oct. 26, 1782; d. ; m., Mar. 17, 1804, Ellen Stonaker, b. ; d. .
Had child:

1. Ann Eliza, b. May 21, 1805; m. Richard Hutchinson, b. .
Had child:

Abby Hutchinson.

GENEALOGY

VAN VOORHEES FAMILY

IN AMERICA.

THE meaning in English of the Holland name Van Voorhees is "from before Hees," "Van" meaning "from," "Voor" meaning "before," or "in front of," and Hees being a small village about a quarter of a mile south of the town of Ruinen, in the Province of Drenthe, Holland, which contained, in 1660, nine houses and about fifty inhabitants. Ruinen was a flourishing town in 1660, and contained at that time, with its suburbs, 1,976 inhabitants. The original name Van Voorhees has been subjected to many curious changes in this country, the writer having found it written in early times on family and public records, among other ways, as Van Voorheesen, Van Voorheeze, Van Voorhuysen, Van Voorheese, Van Voorhase, Van Voorhaise, Van Voorhouse, Van Voirhies, either with or without the "Van," and it is at the present day written by different branches of the family in such forms as Voorhis, Voorheis, Voris, Vorus, Voorhees, Voorhies, Vorhes, and Vores, either with or without the "Van." The prevailing mode of writing it now, however, is Voorhees, without the prefix "Van," such being the spelling used by the branches in most of the counties of New Jersey, except Bergen, where it is almost universally written Voorhis without the "Van."

Some few branches have retained the "Van," such as the Oyster Bay, L. I., branch, the Duchess County, N. Y., branch, and one of the Bergen County, N. J., branches. Many of the Long Island families and some others write the name Voorhies, and this was probably one of the first changes made from the original name Van Voorhees.

In regard to the arms of the family, published herewith, the writer, while in England in 1872, caused a search to be made by the St. James Heraldry Office, of London, for arms belonging to the Holland family of Van Voorhees, if any, and on the return of the search obtained the accompanying arms, with a certificate under the seal of the office. The certificate states that "the armorial bearings assigned to the family from their simplicity indicate considerable antiquity. The description of the arms according to the terms of blazonry on the Continent is as follows:

E^c aux 1. & 4. de gu, à la tour d'or ouv' du champ.
aux 2. & 3. d'argent, à l'arbre arr' de sinople.

the heraldic description of which in England would be as follows:

Quarterly, 1st & 4th gules—a tower d'or opened of the field.
2d & 3d argent—a tree eradicated vert.
Crest—a tower d'or. Motto—Virtus castellum meum.

Of the origin and meaning of these arms nothing is recorded; they may possibly indicate that the first possessor held some castle or fortress in feudal times. The tree is quartered in right of a marriage with the heiress and representative of another family who bore this device."

The late Hon Teunis G. Bergen, in his genealogy of the Bergen family, in speaking of the difficulty in tracing Dutch genealogies, says:

"Of the private letters which passed between the early Dutch settlers and their European relatives which might have thrown light upon their previous history very few remain. The writer has in his possession several letters written by the relatives of the Van Voorhees family in the Fatherland to the family in this country, and they are the only ones he has discovered in his examinations of old papers and documents among the descendants of the Netherlanders in Kings County."

The letters referred to above by Mr. Bergen, three in number, were translated literally by him, preserving the Dutch idiom, and are consequently quaint in their phraseology. Of the first he made a synopsis of its contents; of the other two, literal translations; they are as follows:

Synopsis of a translation from the Dutch, of a letter from Hilbert Coerte of Voorhees, Drenthe, Holland, to his nephew, Coert Stevense Van Voorhees, of Flatlands, L. I., dated April 13, 1684.

He says he received the letter of October 16, 1683, which stated that the health of his (Coert Stevense's) father and mother and sisters was good. He speaks of his brother, Jan Coerte, who resides at Voorhees on the old place. He speaks of his brother, Wesvel Coerte, who is married and resides at Veeninge. He speaks of his brother, Albert Coerte. He speaks of "your sister, Mergin Stevense," who resides at Dwingelo with her son-in-law, Jan Van Echten. He speaks of his uncle, Hendrick Alberts, who resides at the Tweel; his wife is dead, and he has five children living. He speaks of his aunt, Mergin Alberts, who resides at the Hught; her husband, Jan Mewus is dead, and she lives with her daughter and son-in-law. He speaks of his aunt, Gertien Alberts, as in good health, and who with her husband and children is living at Oshaer by Veghten. He speaks of his uncle, Luytgen Alberts, who resides at Haecxwolt and has one child living. He speaks of his uncle, Jan Alberts, deceased, who has a daughter married living at Heffeling, "on the place my uncle bought." He speaks of his uncle, Hilbert Alberts, who left two sons and one daughter. He speaks of his uncle, Wesvel Alberts, who left a wife and one daughter, who resides at Amsterdam, on Borkens Island. Her eldest son is married in her house, but cannot agree with his wife. He speaks of Coert Stevense's sister, Hendrickjen, as being married and living in the Wyck. He speaks of his youngest brother, Jan Coerte, as having a daughter. He speaks of Jan Henricks, who lives at Runen, and whose eldest sister, Ludgert, is dead, and her daughter lives at the Hught and her other sister lives at "The Woods." He speaks of Jan Wesvels and his daughter Hyellygen. She is living, but her husband is dead, and she and her children are well, and her youngest daughter is married and lives at Haecxwolt and is among the wealthiest there. He says that the old Heer Luytgen is dead, also his wife, and his son Geerst is married on the old place, and his eldest son, Jan Vreus, is married to Catryne Baren, and his youngest son, Hendrick, is married to . . . . Reinmelt, and his daughter Femme married Jan Goessens, who is dead, and the other daughter lives with her brother Geerst. He says that Jan Luytgen, who is with Hendrickjen, is in good health, and they have their eldest son, Coert Jans, with them; they have also another son at home, and their son Vreus and their daughter Altyen came from Voorhees.

Honoured Nephew:—I write again this letter because that you will know the desire we yet have for your welfare. Moreover, very beloved nephew, to let you know that I from you a letter have received which you by Pelgeg Prefect have sent, and thereout I understand of the health and the welfare of you and your whole family, and thereout I understand that your son is married and is hardly twenty years old; and out of the same understand that you have for my nephew and niece —to wit—Jan Kiers and niece Hendrickjen Stevense—a dwelling bought, and that they for it shall give six hundred guilders and yet free house for it keep, and yet for three cows free pasturage and roaming have, and I there through wonder how Jan Kiers there so much has gained in the time . . . . that we there through understand that it not otherwise can be, but that it must be a very good land that he

in the time came out could yet also bring about two thousand guilders. Beloved nephew, I ask from you if time and opportunity have do so well, and write us all situation of the land sowing and also of the land like. I now, very beloved nephew, shall let you know that we altogether in good health are, and my brother Jan Coerte, and my brother Wesvel Coerte, and my brother Albert Coerte also, and it goes with Alten Maelen yet middling well. Concerning our uncles, my uncle Hendrick Alberts, who resides yet at the Tweel, it goes him very well; and my uncle Luytgen Alberts, who resides at Haecxwolt, it goes him also yet well; and aunt Mergin, at the Hught, who goes yet also well; and aunt Gertien, at Oshaer, it goes yet also well with her whole household. Further, my beloved nephew, your sister Mergin Stevense, who has gone from me, besought that I her situation in my letter should relate, as I after my understanding shall do, and she resides yet at Dwingelo, and is younger for all her years, and it goes with her yet middling well, and she goes soon to Bvywck on the Scheldt to live, and she becomes there Sheriff. Further, my beloved nephew, you have written in your letter of Jan Kiers' house at Steenwyck, for us that you let know how it thereabout is, the house is sold to Hendrick Bonjans, myself have conducted and have against provided that you from Jan Coersen would written be how it thereabout was, and how there so much cost accrued, that so now about reckoning Jan Kiers yet should come to receive about three hundred Carolus guilders, and he to me has said that he the account thereby should write wherefor the costs are gone, and that Jan Kiers him order shall where the money should let go. Very beloved nephew, Hendrick Rorken of Runen, who desires of you that you the favor on him will bestow and let him know how it prospers with . . . . and that he thus over complains that he yet not a letter obtains from brother's wife, nor from children, and that he therefore longs to know whether yet alive and how it them prospers. Further, very beloved nephew, I must you so an account relate how it in this land goes, that now in this land has occurred a very mournful event. A great judgment has gone over the land of Groningen and Eunder land, and Ostveerf land. There is a northwest enemy risen up that has so flooded and swept out in water, through which great danger has happened, that all the towns that way with people and cattle therewith their lives have hardly saved, and the water to Groningen on the streets stood, and the land stands at present in a very mournful state. So men say there four thousand people were drowned and such numbers of cattle that to commiserate is but what it is. God, the Lord, has it chastised, but it is not to fight against the Lord, it is the people's fault, they would not themselves concern about the state of the Fatherland, at this time that is the worst we have to complain of, otherwise it is yet well in its old way as it was in the time when you here yet resided. My very beloved nephew, you must so well all us again write, write us at Amsterdam and not to Swal, to Hildebrant Van Dyckes house at that placedirect, so he lets us know by the post that the letters are at his house. My beloved nephew, about the widow of Wesvel Alberts of Voorhees she does well and so wishes us to write. Let us know once more concerning your sisters and brothers, you who are in a land so great, and I will let you know how our welfare is. I have, beloved nephew, four children by my last wife, and our Jan has married a daughter of . . . . Nagle, and there has he four children, and our nephew . . . . who is married he has five children, and our Albert at the Hught has two children.

With God's blessing,
Your affectionate uncle,
HILBERT COERTE OF VOORHEES.

A literal translation from the Dutch of a letter from the Rev. Casparus Van Zuren, of Holland, to Coert Stevense Van Voorhees, of Flatlands, L. I.

Directed to Coert Stevense Van Voorhees and wife, residing at New Amesfoort on the Island of Nassau.

MY ESTEEMED FRIENDS :—Four months was yours received, of the twenty-sixth of August of last year. We thank you heartily for the affection which on us again is affirmed, and regard ourselves therefore indebted, and the same with a similar affection to answer. It is well and truly said of those that you in the beginning of your letter mention, that we must patient be in the oppression, knowing from whom, wherefor, and where, the woe that is to happen falls. But like the falling of the stiff cones the wild trees bear, so it no less courage requires for to wear the yoke of the Lord that he on us lays for our sins, principally as it us hard and long keeps busy, that it us strikes from thence, we feel that the housekeeping through this in arrears goes, so our misery is no reason for gladness but for sorrow. Verily the will of the Lord takes place, he does what is good in his eyes, he will us also serve, for also to do that good is, and all these adversities to our souls strengthen to our sanctification. But what appears to you prosperous in your housekeeping and with your children? I cannot otherwise apprehend of all your children. They are healthy, doing well, and well married. We know not how we with our children, of which the eldest, Johanna, now twenty years fulfilled has, with respect shall fast become the multitude of men that here are, bring much entanglement, as the one is in the other's way. But God, and that his Son and Heavenly Spirit, will also bread give, more pray we not, more require we not. Concerning us, my wife is weak and thereby sickly, the years bring no amendment. I am again to the preaching attained, and at the same now about a half a year or little more been engaged, but it goes yet somewhat unsatisfactorily, my indisposition and my passing years let me not otherwise to. I hope that the Lord my strength increase and my years so order will, that I my service which is necessary to perform without sorrow. We now enjoy sweet peace, the scarcity of the year 1698 is now all again recompensed through the fruitfulness of the year 1699, but the Country remains harassed under its sure taxes, and the trade remains impeded. You would impressed be with wonder at the difference which now several years exists in your vicinity, so troubled, and the one friend against the other. Appearances there are that the Earl of Bellomont already will at Court stand, but meanwhile makes this work again much animosity they who were under become above, eventually comes there another Governor who this matter over which the difference arisen, differently apprehends, and then become those that are now above be again under, for the things of the world are very changeable and the will of the people fickle, so that men on all their levity flying sail can make. Wherefore I judge that the best is yourselves in neutrality to keep, so that persons not at any time in any difficulty involved become. This advice gave I in my letter to all the friends, as well to you as to the other party, from whom I also several letters received have. I keep myself outside of all factions, and it regrets me that such a favored land and such blossoming Churches through all these times so shaken and restless are. I hear that a bad sickness in New York is, I wish you and the good residents such misfortunes to escape, but nothwithstanding as the God Almighty pleases to you to send, so hope I that he will your hearts move to compose and the loving peace to restore, it is however also yet desirable that this should happen through the Gospel of peace and the messenger that this peace proclaims. And to all your loving children to the end of time, peace ; greet all the friends at New Amesfoort for us.

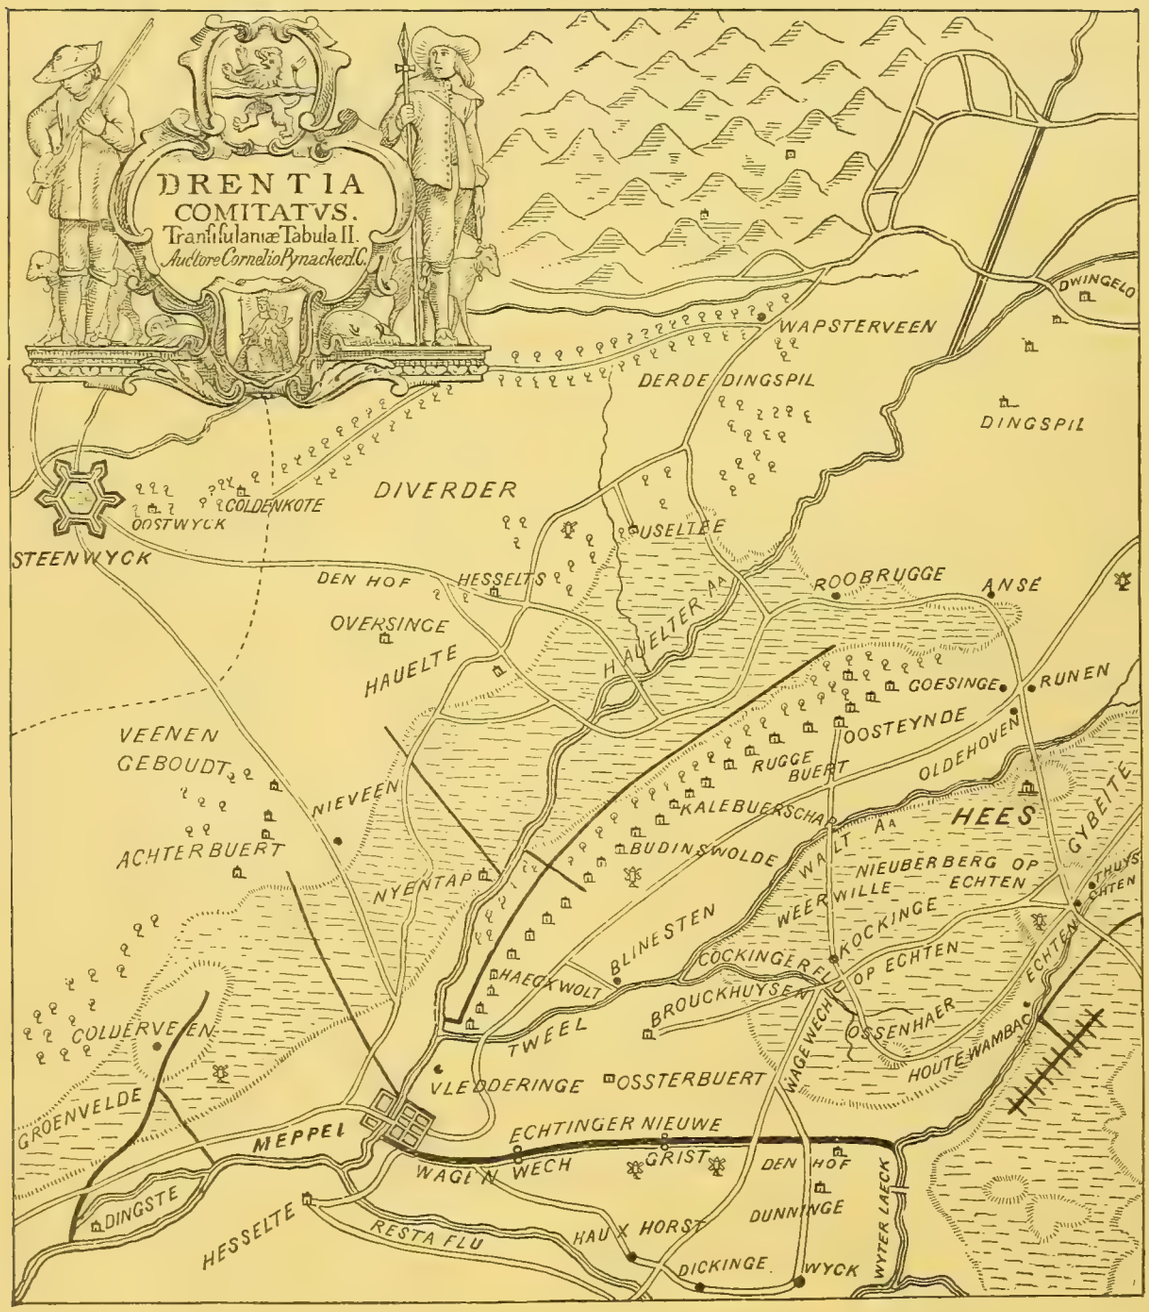
Your attached friends,

CASPARUS & LOUISA VAN ZUREN.



Map of a part of the Province of Drenthe, Holland, showing the location of the village of Hees. From the Atlas Le Theatre du Monde, by Guillaume and Iean Blaeu, Amsterdam, 1638.

THE earliest of the family of whom we have any definite information is Coert Alberts of Voorhees, the father of the emigrant ancestor, Steven Coerte Van Voorhees, and from the fact of his second name being Albert with the terminal letter "s," meaning "son of," we know that his father's first name must have been Albert.
Our genealogy commences then with :

Albert . . . . of Voorhees, b. ; d. ; m. .
Had children :

1. Coert Alberts of Voorhees, b. ; d. ; m. .

2. Steven Alberts of Voorhees, b. ; d. ; m. .

3. Hendrick Alberts of Tweel, b. ; d. ; m. .
Had five children living in 1684.

4. Luytgen Alberts of Haecxwolt, b. ; d. ; living in 1684; m. .
Had one child living in 1684.

5. Jan Alberts of Heffelying, b ; d. prior to 1684; m. .
Left one daughter who was married in 1684.

6. Hilbert Alberts of Voorhees, b. ; d. prior to 1684; m. .
Left two sons and one daughter.

7. Wesvel Alberts of Voorhees, b. ; d. prior to 1684; m. .
Left one son, Jan Wesvels, and one daughter, who in 1684 was married and resided at Amsterdam.

8. Gertien Alberts of Oshaer by Veghten, b. ; d. ; m. ; living in 1684.
Left children.

9. Merghin Alberts of Voorhees, b. ; d. ; m. , Jan Mewus of the Hught, who died prior to 1684. In 1684 she resided with her daughter and son-in-law at the Hught.

1. Coert Alberts of Voorhees, b. ; d. ; m. .
Had children :

b. Hilbert Coerte of Voorhees, b. 1634; d. ; m. .
Had two sons and one daughter by his first wife, and five sons by his second wife.

c. Jan Coerte of Voorhees, b. ; d. ; m. .
He occupied the homestead of his father in 1684.

d. Albert Coerte of Bethuyn, b. ; d. prior to 1699; m. , Aeltyn . . . . .
Had children (twins):
Swanteyn, b. , 1683.
Elizabeth, b. , 1683.

e. Wesvel Coerte of Veeninge, b. ; d. prior to 1699; m. .

f. A daughter, name unknown, b. ; d. .

g. A daughter, name unknown, b. ; d. .

a. Steven Coerte Van Voorhees, b. , 1600, at Hees, Holland; d. Feb. 16, 1684, at Flatlands, L. I. m. 1st, in Holland, a wife, name unknown, who bore him all his children; m. 2d, prior to 1677, on Long Island, Willempie Roelofse Seubering, dau. of Roelof Seubering, b. , 1619; d. , 1690.

He emigrated from before the village of Hees, in the Province of Drenthe, Holland, in April, 1660, in the ship "Bontekoe" (Spotted Cow), Capt. Pieter Lucassen, with his wife and all his children except his daughters Hendrickjen and Merghin. He purchased Nov. 29, 1660, from Cornelis Dircksen Hoogland, 9 morgens of cornland, 7 morgens of woodland, 10 morgens of plainland, and 5 morgens of salt meadow in Flatlands, L. I., for 3,000 guilders, also the house and houseplot lying in the village of "Amesfoort en Bergen" (Flatlands), with the brewery and all the brewing apparatus, kettle-house and casks, with the appurtenances, as per page 37 of Liber B. of Flatbush Records. He and his wife, Willempie Roelofse Seubering were members of the Dutch Church of Flatlands in 1677. His name appears on the assessment rolls of Flatlands of 1675 and 1683, as a Magistrate in 1664, and on a Patent of 1667.

His will is dated Aug. 25, 1677.
Had children :

A. Hendrickjen Stevense Van Voorhees of Holland and Flatlands, L. I.; b. ; d. ; m. , Jan Kiers; b. ; d. .

She appears to have come over from Holland some years after her father had settled at Flatlands, L. I. Her name and that of her husband appear on the baptismal record of the Flatbush Dutch Church as witnesses at the baptism of Steven, son of her brother Lucas Stevense Van Voorhees and Catherine Hansen Van Noortstrand on Sept. 16, 1677. No record found of any children.

B. Merghin Stevense Van Voorhees of Holland, b. ; d. Oct. 28, 1702, N. S.; m. 1 , ... Roelofs; b. ; d. ; m. 2d, Remmelt Willemse; b. ; d. .

She resided in 1684 at Dwingelo, Holland, with her son-in-law Jan Van Echten.
Had children:

II. Annachen Roelofs; b. ; d. ; m. .
Left two sons and one daughter.

III. Wennechyn Roelofs of Groningen, Holland; b. ; d. ; m. .
Left three sons the youngest being named Steven.

IV. Aeltyn Roelofs of Ruinen, Holland; b. ; d. ; m. .
Left two sons and one daughter.

V. Wilhelm Remmelts of Saxum, Groningen, Holland; b. ; d. May —, 1718.

VI. Hillechen Remmelts of Groningen, Holland; b. ; d. .

VII. Roelofyn Remmelts; b. ; d. .

C. Coert Stevense Van Voorhees of Flatlands, L. I.; b. in 1637; d. after 1702; m. prior to 1664 Marretje Gerritse Van Couwenhoven, dau. of Gerrit Wolfertse Van Couwenhoven and Aeltie Lambertse Cool; bap. Apr. 10, 1644; d. prior to 1709, and after 1702. His name appears on the assessment rolls of Flatlands of 1675 and 1683, a member of the Dutch Church of Flatlands and Deacon in 1677, a Magistrate in 1664 and 1673, and Captain of Militia in 1689. He was with Elbert Elbertse Stoothoff a representative of Flatlands in the General Assembly held at the City Hall in New Amsterdam on Apr. 10, 1664, and was also a delegate to the Convention held Mar. 26, 1674, at New Orange to confer with Gov. Colve. He took the oath of allegiance in Flatlands Sept. —, 1687. On March 8, 1691, he bought of John Tilton all his real estate in Gravesend, L. I. (Tilton reserving the use thereof for twelve months unless he should sooner remove from the town). Deed recorded in Liber 2, page 28, of Kings Co. Conveyances—consideration 295 pounds. Tilton's property was mainly located on Gravesend Neck, and some of it is still held by the Voorhees family, this purchase being the first of any considerable amount made by the Voorhees family in Gravesend. On June 20, 1699 he conveyed this property for 295 pounds to his son Albert Coerte, as per Gravesend Town Records. He also joined in a deed, with his brothers and brothers-in-law, Lucas Stevense, John Stevense, Albert Stevense, John Kierstead, Barrent Jurianz, Alexander Sympson, and Albert Voorhees, to his son, Garret Coerte, of "all that piece or parcel of land lying in the town of Flatlands in Kings County, containing by estimation six-and-seventy acres, bounded, etc. Deed dated May 8, 1694, recorded in Liber 2, page 34, of Kings Co. His Will dated, Jan. 3, 1723, proved Nov. 20, 1735, recorced in the Surrogate's Office, New York City, in Liber 12, p. 356, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. This third day of January in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and twenty-three, I, John Stevenson, of Flatlands, in Kings County, on the Island of Nassau, Yeoman, being very well and in good health, and of perfect mind and memory —thanks be given unto Almighty God—calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament—that is to say—Principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul into the hands of God that gave it, and for my body I recommend it to the earth to be buried in a christianlike and decent manner at the discretion of my executors, nothing doubting but at the General Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God—and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in manner following. Imprimis, I give and bequeath to Femmetje, my loving wife, all my estate of houses, lands, meadows, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging situate, lying and being in the town of Flatlands, or elsewhere, for and during her natural life, to the sole and proper use, benefit, and behoof of my said loving wife, for and during her natural life. Item, It is further my will that immediately after my loving wife's decease, all my whole estate of houses, lands, meadows, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in any ways appertaining, either in the Town of Flatlands or elsewhere, shall be sold to the best advantage, and the moneys as shall arise by the sale of my aforesaid estate shall be equally divided among my eleven children, by name, Stephen, Auken, Willemtie, John, Roelof, Magdelena, Lucas, Albert, Abraham, Femmetje, and Jacobus, unto them and each of them, and every of their heirs and assigns forever. Item, It is further my will that my loving wife Femmetje shall have all my goods and chattels, rights and credits for and during her natural life, and immediately after my loving wife's decease I give all my goods and chattels, rights and credits, to my eleven children above named, unto them and each of their heirs, and in equal proportions, except my eldest son Stephen shall have twenty shillings over and above his equal share with the rest of my above-named children, for his birthright. Item, It is also my will that if any of my above-named children shall happen to be unmarried at my loving wife's decease, them that are then unmarried shall have so much out of my whole estate as those have had that are married, for their setting out, besides their or any of their equal proportion. Item, It is further my will that if any of my above-named children shall happen to die under age and without issue, that then the deceased's portion shall be equally divided among the survivors of my above-named children or their heirs. And I do hereby constitute and appoint my loving wife Femmetje to be whole and sole Executrix of this, my last Will and Testament, and I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke, and disannul all and every other former Testaments, Wills and Legacies, Bequests, and Executors by me in any way before this time named, willed and bequeathed, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written.

JOHN STEVENSON. [L.S.]

Signed, sealed, published, pronounced, and declared by the said John Stevenson as his last Will and Testament, in the presence of subscribers, William Couwenhoven, Dirck Amerman, Gerrit Foy.

William Cosby, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Provinces of New York and New Jersey, and the Territories thereon depending in America, Vice-Admiral of the same, and Colonel in his Majestie's Army, etc. To all to whom these presents shall come or may concern, Greeting: Know ye, that at Kings County, the twentieth day of November instant, before Richard Stillwell, Esquire, being thereunto duly authorized and appointed, the last Will and Testament of John Stevenson was proved, and now approved and allowed of by me, having while he lived, and at the time of his death, Goods, Rights, and Credits in divers places within this Province, by means whereof the full disposition of all and singular the Goods, Rights, and Credits of the said deceased and the granting administration of them, as also the hearing of accounts, calculations or reckoning, and the final discharge and dismission from the same, unto me solely and not unto any other inferior judge, are manifestly known to belong, and the administration of all and singular the Goods, Rights, and Credits of the said deceased, and his last Will and Testament in any manner or way concerning, was granted unto Femmetje Stevenson, the Executrix, in the within Will named, chiefly of well and truly administering the same, and of making a just, and true, and perfect Inventory of all and singular, the Goods, Rights, and Credits of the said deceased, and exhibiting the same into the registry of the Prerogative Court in the Secretary's Office for the Province of New York, and that on or before the twentieth day of May next ensuing, and of rendering a just and true account, calculation and reckoning when thereunto required. In testimony whereof I have caused the Prerogative Seal of the said Province of New York to be hereunto affixed this twentieth day of November, 1735. Had children :

To the Noble, Very Worshipful, their Honors, the Director-General and Council of New Netherlands :

Frans Jansen van Hochten humbly showeth

That he the petitioner obtained from your Noble Worships a judgement by which the heirs of Wolphert Gerritse (Van Couenhoven) were condemned not only on the principal point relating to the parcel of land in dispute, but also to pay the expenses as taxed, together with a decree and order of execution. That notwithstanding this judgement the heirs defeated in the former suit, delay the payment of the costs taxed and adjudged to the petitioner, and keep him constantly running as in a treadmill.

By a special consent of his Noble Worship, the Director General, he attached in the village of Amesfoort, such moneys as were received for the house and farm formerly belonging to Wolphert Gerritse (Van Couenhoven) and sold by his heirs among themselves, and kept in deposit either by Elbert Elbertse (Stoothoff) or by the second purchaser Coert Stevense (Van Voorhees). To recover thereby the aforesaid taxed bill of costs and other expenses, he summoned Elbert Elbertse (Stoothoff) and Coert Stevense (Van Voorhees) before your Noble Worships hoping that your Noble Worships would order them to satisfy your petitioner immediately, they however did not appear, but let the case go by default, and therefore the petitioners attachment was declared valid.

Now whereas the petitioner apprehends that instigated by the heirs, the summoned parties might endeavor to delay him further and make this lawsuit perpetual, therefore, your petitioner very humbly requests your Noble Worships, that they please to direct the Schout of the aforesaid village to summon the said Elbert Elbertse (Stoothoff) or Coert Stevense (Van Voorhees) to pay to the petitioner within eight days from date the moneys received as above, the money, the payment of which, although long due, has been delayed until now, namely, the whole amount and his costs, on the penalty of immediate execution, and that in case the amount due as aforesaid should have been paid before the date of said attachment, the claim to the amount next due be sold for cash to the highest bidder at public auction, that thereby the petitioner may enjoy the benefit of your Noble Worships judgement and further orders, which doing your petitioner will ever pray etc., etc., etc.

FRANS JANSEN VAN HOCHTEN.

Pieter Wolphertse Van Couenhoven (cum sociis) plaintiff versus

Jacob Van Couenhoven, defendant.

The defendant is in default the third time.

Complaint made and delivered to the Noble, very Worshipful, their Honors, the Director General and Council of New Netherlands, by and in behalf of Pieter Van Couenhoven, Jan Van Couenhoven, Roelof Martense (Schenck) as husband and guardian of Neeltje Van Couenhoven, and Coert Stevense (Van Voorhees) as husband and guardian of Marretje Van Couenhoven as plantiffs, against Jacob Van Couenhoven, defendant, all the parties being the heirs of the late Wolphert Gerritse Van Couenhoven.

Noble, Very Worshipful Gentlemen :—The plaintiffs, as heirs of the said Wolphert Gerritse Van Couenhoven, their respective father and grandfather, say and declare by the protest drawn up by the Notary Saloman La Chair, submitted under " A " and the reports of the Court Messenger and the Concierge under " B " and " C " that the defendant, co-heir of the said Wolphert Gerritse Van Couenhoven, for one share, has by his disobedience and opposition caused the expenses and troubles resulting from the well known law-suit undertaken by Frans Jansen Van Hochten against their father and grandfather respectively.

The plaintiffs therefore endeavored by a friendly interpellation to persuade the defendant to indemnify them for the said expenses which they personally had incurred amounting to Fl' 502–3–8, as shown by the bill of taxation and specification under " D " and " E." Defendant answering by taking exceptions not to the point, refused to do this, as appears under " F."

The plaintiffs have found themselves compelled therefore to have recourse to the means of justice, and for the sake of avoiding a long protracted law-suit have at an early day sent a copy hereof to defendant that he may give his answer if he has any.

They request that the defendant for the alleged reasons be sentenced definitively by your Noble Worships to pay the aforesaid sum and that the same sum be adjudged to plaintiffs out of the moneys which plaintiffs have attached by virtue of the deed of cession made by the said Frans Jansen Van Hochten, also submitted under " E," in the hands of Elbert Elbertse (Stoothoff) of Amesfoort, as shown by " G," that this amount be declared subject to execution, and further that he pay all other expenses and fines which they may deem expedient.

Your Noble Worships servants,

PIETER VAN COUENHOVEN,
JAN GERRITSE VAN COUENHOVEN, in the name of the other heirs,
ROELOF MARTENSE (SCHENCK),
COERT STEVENSE (VAN VOORHEES).

THURSDAY, Feb. 21, 1664.

The prayer of the petitioners was granted.

A CERTIFICATE FOR JAN ELTEN.

To day the 10th of October 1679 appeared before us, Captain James Hubbard, Elbert Elbertse Stoothoff, and Jacques Corteljou, at the request of Jan Elten, a resident of Kingston, now about to depart for the Fatherland, the Worshipful Steven Coerte (Van Voorhees) seventy-nine years old, William Roeloffs sixty years old, Jan Stryker, armourer, sixty-four years old, Jan Suebering forty years old, and Coert Stevense (Van Voorhees) forty-two years old, all natives of the land of Drenthe, who declare that it is true that the above named petitioner is the lawful son of Roeloff Elten by his wife Aeltje Elten of the village of Swigtel, in the said land of Drenthe. They further declare that to the best of their information that they have always known him as an honest and virtuous man, and that as far as they can remember they never knew any other man of the same name. They are willing to confirm their testimony by a solemn oath.

In witness of the truth they sign this with their own hands at New Amesfoort on Long Island, in America, date as above.

STEVEN COERTE (VAN VOORHEES),
WILLEM ROELOFFS (his mark),
JAN STRCYKER, armourer.
JAN SUEBERING,
COERT STEVENSE (VAN VOORHEES).

Testified in the presence of us under-written, under oath.

J. HUBBARD, Justice.
ELBERT ELBERTSON (STOOTHOFF), Justice.
JAMES CORTELJOU, Justice.

He resided in Flatlands in 1698, and in Gravesend in 1723. In 1693 he bought 40 acres of land at Jamaica, L. I., from Wesvel Pieterson. His Will, dated Feb. 5, 1723–4, proved Aug. 29, 1753, recorded in the Surrogate's Office in New York City, in Liber 18, p. 388, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. The fifth day of February, in the year of our Lord 1723–4, I Steven Koerten of Gravesend in Kings County, Gentleman, being very sick and weak in body, but of perfect mind and memory—thanks be given unto God therefore—calling unto mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to dye, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say: Principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hands of God that gave it, and for my body I recommend it to the earth to be buried in a christian-like and decent manner at the discretion of my Executors nothing doubting but at the General Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God: and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form: Imprimis, I give and bequeath unto Eva my dearly beloved wife, the whole term, together with all my houses, as long as she is alive, and after she dyes then I give to my well beloved sons Koert Stevensen and John Stevensen, whom likewise I constitute, make and ordain my only and sole Executors of this my last Will and Testament, all and singular the lands, messuages and tenements, by them freely to be possessed and enjoyed and their heirs and assigns forever. And to my five daughters I give all that tract of land upon the Rarytan in the New Countrye—and they must divide equal—along the west side of the Millstone river. And I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disannul all and every other former Testaments, Wills, Legacies and Executors by me in any ways before this time willed and bequeathed, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I have set my hand and seal the day and year above written. STEVEN KOERTEN. [L.S.]

"Signed, sealed, published, pronounced and declared by the said Steven Koerten as his last Will and Testament in the presence of us.

"Elias Hubbard, Gerrit Dorlent, Elias Hubbard, Jr.

"City of New York, ss.: Be it remembered that on the twenty-ninth day of August, One thousand seven hundred and fifty-three, personally came and appeared before me Goldsbrow Banyer thereunto delegated and appointed, John Van Voryes, youngest son and surviving Executor of the within named Steven Koerten deceased, and being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists, on his oath declared that the within instrument, bearing date the fifth day of February, 1723–4, and purporting to be the Will of the said Steven Koerten contained the true last Will and Testament of the said Steven Koerten, as far as he the said John Van Voryes knew or did believe, and that he as Executor thereof would well and truly perform the same by paying first his just debts and then the legacy contained in the said Will, as far as the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased would thereunto extend and in the law charge him, and that he would make and exhibit a true and perfect inventory of all the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, as also a just and true account render when thereunto required. He took the oath of allegiance in Flatlands, as a native, in 1677, and was commissioned Ensign of Militia by Lieut.-Gov. Leisler, and held said office in said town in 1691 and 1700. In 1699 he bought of his brother Gerrit Coerte Van Voorhees his interest in the Anthony Jansen Van Salee patent at New Utrecht, L. I., and on Feb. 12, 1702, the interest of Barrent Joosten, thus becoming sole owner, as per Liber 2, of Kings Co., N. Y., conveyances.

On the assessment roll of New Utrecht of 1723. On Aug. 6, 1718, he obtained liberty from the freeholders of Gravesend to erect a mill on a creek, known as, De Bruynnes' creek, which mill, known afterwards as Voorhees Mill, was used for many years in grinding the grists of the surrounding farms, and was afterwards bought by a Mr. Partridge and changed for grinding paints, and finally swept out of existence by fire. His Will, dated May 14, 1747, proved Apr. 14, 1748, recorded in the Surrogate's Office, New York City, in Liber 16, p. 251, is as follows:

(X. Albert Coerte Van Voorhees.)

"In the name of God, Amen. The fourteenth day of May in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and forty seven, I, Albert Coerte of Flatlands in Kings County on the Island of Nassau, Yeoman, being at this present time in good health and of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given to God therefore, calling unto mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say, Principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hands of God who gave it, and for my body I recommend it to the earth, to be buried in a christianlike and decent manner at the discretion of my Executors, nothing doubting but at the general ressurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God, and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form. Imprimis, That after my lawful debts are paid and funeral charges are defrayed, I give and bequeath unto my son Coert Voorhees, or his heirs, the full and just sum of twenty-five pounds current money of New York, to be levied out of my estate before any division is made, for his first birthright, wherewith he shall quit-claim of any pretention of being heir-at-law. Item, It is my will that my whole real estate within the town of Flatlands abovesaid or elsewhere shall be sold by my Executors or the major part of them to the highest bidder immediately after my decease, and I do give by these presents full power and lawful authority to my Executors or the major part of them, to sell, convey, assure and confirm my real estate to any buyer or buyers, and such deed or deeds, conveyance or conveyances, as my Executors, or the major part of them, shall make or execute for my said real estate, or any part or parcel thereof, shall be as lawful and authentic in the law for and to any buyer or buyers, and to their heirs and assigns, as if I had acted and executed the same in my lifetime. I give and bequeath all the money which shall arise by the sale of my real estate as abovesaid, to my children, by name, Coert Voorhees, Elizabeth, now the wife of Rutgert Van Brunt, Mary now the wife of John Noordstrandt, Margaret now the wife of David Nevius, Aeltje now the wife of Wilhelmus Stoothoof, and the children of my daughter Ann who was the wife of Hendrick Cortelyou, and the children of my daughter Neeltje who was the wife of Christopher Hooglandt, each an equal portion, that is to say, my daughter Ann's children together, a part with my own children, and my daughter Neeltje's children together, a part with my own children, and after my daughter Margaret's decease, that then the children which she had by Petrus Stoothoff shall each have so much out of that portion which I gave to her, as the children shall have as she has by David Nevius. Item, I give and bequeath all my personal estate in Flatlands or elsewhere to all my above named children and grandchildren, to be equally divided among them, in manner and form as is abovesaid, immediately after my decease, and if any of my children shall happen to dye under lawfull age without issue, that then the deceased's portion shall be equally divided among the survivors of my children and grandchildren included in this Will. And I do constitute and appoint my son Coert Voorhees, and my sons-in-law Rutgert Van Brunt, John Noordstrant, David Nevius and Wilhelmus Stoothoff to be my Executors of this my last Will and Testament, and to see that it is duly and truly performed according to the true intent and meaning thereof, and I do utterly disallow, and revoke and disannul all and every other former Testaments, Wills, Legacies, Bequests and Executors by me at anytime before this time named, willed or bequeathed, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written.

"Signed, sealed, published, pronounced and declared by the said Albert Coerte as his last Will and Testament in the presence of us subscribers,

He left Long Island about 1740 and settled at Sourland (now Harlingen), Somerset Co., N. J., upon land purchased by his father in 1726 from Jacob Van Dyck, of Kings Co., L. I. His Will, dated Feb. 20, 1781, proved Oct. 26, 1784, recorded in the Office of the Secretary of State of New Jersey, in Liber M., p. 218, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. The twentieth day of February in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, I Albert Voorhees of Sourland, in the County of Somerset and State of New Jersey, Yeoman, being in health and of sound and perfect mind, memory and understanding — thanks be given unto Almighty God therefor—calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to dye, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, as follows. Imprimis, It is my will and I do order that in the first place all my just debts and funeral charges be paid and satisfied. Item, I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Nelly, One hundred pounds in cash current money, gold or silver, or the value thereof, to be paid unto her by my Executors two months after my decease, and one feather bed standing in my dwelling room which I now use, with all the bed-clothes and furniture thereunto belonging, and all the household and kitchen furniture, and one negro wench named Bet which she brought me at our marriage which she can properly call her own, to her, her heirs and assigns forever. I do also order that my said wife shall have the privilege to live in the Easterly room of my dwelling house, and I do order and direct that my son Peter Voorhees or his Executors or

(X. Albert Coerte Van Voorhees)

Administrators shall find her sufficient meat, drink, firewood and all other necessaries, both in sickness and health, fit and convenient for her, as long as she shall remain my widow, or until such time as she shall choose to live elsewhere, and then I do order that my said son Peter or his Executors or Administrators shall pay unto my said wife nine pounds per year as long as she shall remain my widow, and then she shall be debarred from the privilege of coming to live in said room again: but the said one hundred pounds in cash, feather bed, negro wench named Bet &c. are given to my said wife in full consideration and in lieu of her dower. Item, I give unto my son Isaac Voorhees Fifty pounds money aforesaid for his birthright, to be paid unto him out of my personal estate two months after my decease. Item, I give and bequeath unto my daughter Anne one Dutch cupboard with all the goods and wares that is in and on it, and one feather bed with all the bed clothes and furniture thereunto belonging, one brown chest, two tables, one looking-glass, one silver teapot marked with the letters 'A. C.,' and six red chairs, and one side-saddle, to hold to her, her heirs and assigns forever. Item, It is my will and I do order that about two months after my decease all the remainder of my personal estate whatsoever and wheresoever in the State of New Jersey, New York or elsewhere, shall be equally divided in quality and quantity, among my children named Annatie, Isaac, Anne, Court, Albert and Peter, share and share alike, to them their heirs and assigns forever, and if they can make no equal dividend without making a Vendue, then it is my will that they shall so do in order to have it equally divided, and I do hereby give them full power and authority to sell and dispose of the same for that purpose. Item, I give and devise unto my son Peter Voorhees all that farm and plantation whereon I now live, containing about Two hundred and six acres with all the privileges and appurtenances thereunto belonging. Also about thirty-four acres of clear land and twenty acres of woodland joining the farm of my son Court Voorhees, all situate at Sour-land, in the County and State aforesaid, to hold to him, his heirs and assigns forever, for which my said son Peter Voorhees or his executors or administrators shall pay Nine hundred and fifty pounds current money, gold or silver or the value thereof, exclusive of his own share therein, to be paid in four payments as follows, the first payment Two hundred and fifty pounds thereof to be paid one year after my said wife Nelly shall cease to be my widow, and to be equally divided among my children named Annatie, Isaac, Anne, Court and Albert, and the second and third year also Two hundred and fifty pounds yearly, and to be equally divided as the said payments shall come in among my said five children last named as aforesaid, and the last payment to be four years after my said wife shall cease to be my widow, and to be Two hundred pounds and to be equally divided among my four children named Isaac, Anne, Court and Albert, to them their heirs and assigns forever. Lastly, I do hereby nominate constitute and appoint my loving sons Isaac, Court and Peter Voorhees of Sourland, and my son Albert Voorhees of Long Island to be Executors of this my last Will and Testament, and I do hereby revoke disannul, and make void all former Wills and Testaments by me at any time heretofore made, declaring this only and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, I the said Albert Voorhees have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written.

ALBERT VOORHEES. [L.S.]

(X. Albert Coerte Van Voorhees.)

"In the name of God, Amen. I Zachias Voorhees of the Township of New Utrecht in Kings County Province of New York, being now very sick and weak but of perfect mind, memory and understanding—thanks be given unto God therefor—considering the uncertainty of this transitory life, do make, publish and declare this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, to wit, First and principally, I resign my soul to God Almighty, and hope for salvation through the merits of my blessed Redeemer Jesus Christ: as to my temporal estate I dispose thereof as follows. I will and ordain that my funeral charges be first paid, then I give and bequeath the use and benefit of all my estate unto my wife for and during the time that she shall remain my widow, but if she marries again, then and in such case I give and bequeath her only the sum of Eighty pounds, and that in lieu of her dower. Secondly, Immediately after the death or remarriage of my widow, then I give and bequeath unto my son Coert the sum of One hundred and fifty pounds, and unto my son John the sum of One hundred pounds, to be taken first out of my estate before any division thereof is made. Thirdly, All the rest residue and remainder of my estate whatsoever or wheresoever I give, devise and bequeath unto all my children Coert, John, Mary and Annatje, to them, their heirs and assigns forever to be equally divided between them, share and share alike: and in case my children that are of age and my widow shall think it best at any time after my decease to dispose of my estate the whole or in part, then and in such case, I do hereby empower and order my Executor and Executors hereinafter mentioned to sell my estate or any part thereof at public vendue or otherwise, and to give such deed or deeds for the same as the Law directs in such cases. Lastly, I do hereby nominate and appoint my son Coert, Executor, and my wife, Executrix, of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Will and Wills by me heretofore made. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty-ninth day of September in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and seventy.

ZACHIAS VOORHEES. [L.S.]

"Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above-named Zachias Voorhees as and for his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses thereto in the presence of the said testator and in the presence of each other:

"David Brouer, Daniel Lake, Nicholas Couwenhoven.

"City of New York, ss.: Be it remembered that on the eighth day of December One thousand seven hundred and seventy, personally came and appeared before me John Bowles, thereunto duly authorized, David Brouwer, Daniel Lake, and Nicholas Couwenhoven, all of Kings County, and being duly sworn on their oaths declared that they and each of them did see Zacheus Voorhees sign and seal the annexed written instrument purporting to be the Will of the said Zacheus Voorhees bearing date the twenty-ninth day of September last, and heard him publish and declare the same to be and contain his last Will and Testament. That at the time thereof he the said Zacheus Voorhees was of sound disposing mind and memory to the best of the knowledge and belief of them the deponents and that their names subscribed to the said Will are of their respective hands writing which they subscribed as witnesses to the said Will in the testators presence. JOHN BOWLES."

He resided at Gravesend, L. I., and his descendants mainly write the family name "Voorhies." His Will, dated Oct. 21, 1769, proved Dec. 14, 1769, recorded in the Surrogate's Office in New York City, in Liber 27, p. 184, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. The twenty-first day of October in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine, I, Bernardus Voorhees of the Township of Gravesend, in Kings County, on Nassau Island, in the Province of New York, Yeoman, being sick and very weak in body, but of sound mind, memory and understanding—blessed be God—but considering the uncertainty of this life and the certainty of death, do hereby make, ordain, publish and declare this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, to wit. Imprimis, I recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God, in whom, and by whose mercy I trust and hope for salvation, and my body I recommend to the earth, to be decently interred at the discretion of my Executors hereinafter mentioned, and as for that worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless and enrich me in this life, I dispose of the same as follows. In the first place, it is my will and I do hereby order that all my just debts together with my funeral expenses shall be duly paid out of my personal estate by my Executors hereinafter named some convenient time after my decease. Item, I give, devise and bequeath all my whole real estate whatsoever I have in the Townships of Gravesend and New Utrecht, in Kings County, or elsewhere unto my daughter Ann Voorhees, to her and her heirs and assigns forever: and that my said daughter Ann shall take possession of my said real estate whenever she arrives at the age of twenty one years or on her marriage day which shall first happen, and until that time my Executors hereafter named shall let my said real estate to any person or persons as they think will be to the most advantage of my said estate, and that my said daughter Ann shall be kept and maintained out of the money that my said real estate rents for till the time she takes possession of my real estate as aforesaid. Item, I give and bequeath unto my said daughter Ann, to her, her heirs and assigns forever, my cupboard with all that is in the same, also one of my best bedsteads and bedding and all its furniture, also my silver plate, my clock, my Dutch Bible, my Psalm Book bound with silver, and my large looking glass. Item, I hereby give full power unto my Executors or any one of them to sell and dispose of all the remainder of my personal estate at public or private sale as they or any one of them shall think best some convenient time after my decease, and all the money arising by the sale of my said personal estate I give and bequeath the same unto my said daughter Ann, to her, her heirs and assigns forever whenever she shall arrive at a lawful age or on her marriage day which shall first happen, and until that time I desire my Executors or any one of them to put out at interest all such monies and all other monies of mine for the most advantage of my said daughter Ann. Item, I give and bequeath all my wearing apparel of what kind soever unto my two brothers Albert Voorhees and Zacheus Voorhees to be equally divided between them share and share alike. But if in case my said daughter Ann shall happen to die without lawful issue then in such case I do hereby give full power unto my

(X. Albert Coerte Van Voorhees.)

Executors hereinafter named or any one of them to sell and dispose of all my said real estate whatsoever and to give such deed or deeds for the same to the buyer or buyers as the law directs in such cases, and the money arising by the sale of the same I give and bequeath as follows: that is to say, if such sale shall be made, I give unto my sister Jannetje the wife of Wilhelmus Van Brunt, the sum of Four hundred pounds if she is then living, if not living, then to her child or children equally: If such sale shall be made then I give to Annatie Voorhees the daughter of my brother Coert Voorhees deceased, the sum of One hundred pounds; and all the remainder of the moneys that my said real estate has been sold at, I give the same unto Isaac Voorhees, Coert Voorhees, Albert Voorhees, and Peter Voorhees sons of my brother Albert Voorhees; and Coert Voorhees and John Voorhees sons of my brother Zacheus Voorhees, to be equally divided between them, share and share alike, and if any of them shall happen to die before such division is made, the share of them so dying shall be equally divided between the surviving sons of my two brothers aforesaid. And lastly, I do hereby nominate, ordain and appoint my said brother Albert Voorhees and my friend Rutgert Van Brunt Esqr Executors of this my last Will and Testament, and I do hereby give them or any one of them full power, lawful and absolute authority to execute, fullfill and perform all and every article, matter and thing herein contained as near as can be done by them or any one of them, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, I the said Bernardus Voorhees have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written.

He resided at New Utrecht, L. I. His Will, dated Sept. 17, 1761, proved Mar. 11, 1762, recorded in the Surrogate's Office in New York City in Liber 23, p. 263, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. The seventeenth day of September in the year of our Lord Christ One thousand seven hundred and sixty one, I, Coert Voorhees of the Township of New Utrecht in Kings County on Nassau Island, in the Province of New York, Farmer, being at this present time very weak in body, but of sound mind and memory—blessed be his Holy Name therefor—and calling to mind the shortness of life, and the uncertain hour of my decease, do therefore make this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, willing and desiring that all and every person and persons herein concerned may be fully contented and satisfied therewith and raise no contention about the same after my decease. First I give and bequeath my soul immortal unto God who gave it, my body I recommend to the earth from whence it came to be interred in a decent and christianlike manner at the discretion of my Executors hereinafter named; and as touching and concerning my worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, will, devise, bequeath and dispose thereof in the following manner—to wit—First I do will and order that all my just and lawful debts as they become due shall be duly paid by my Executors hereafter named or the major part of them, as I shall herein order them to pay the same, together with all my funeral expenses, shall be duly paid by my Executors hereafter named out of my estate some convenient time after my decease. Item, I give and bequeath unto my well beloved wife Sarah all the use and income of my whole estate both real and personal whatsoever I have in the Township of New Utrecht in Kings County or elsewhere during the natural life of my mother Annatie, if she so long shall remain my widow, but if she shall happen to remarry before the decease of my said mother Annatie then such marriage shall debar her of staying any longer upon the said estate, but if she remains my widow till the death of my said mother Annatie then she shall enjoy all my whole estate during the time as aforesaid; provided my said wife Sarah shall do and well perform and fullfill the obligation which I heretofore have made with my said mother Annatie—that is to say—to give and allow unto my said mother Annatie in money the one third of all the gain or profit yearly and in every year of my said estate, or what my said estate produces, the one third of the same during the natural lifetime of my said mother Annatie or during the time my said wife Sarah remains my widow as aforesaid and that my said wife Sarah shall use my said estate as I have heretofore used the same, without any wilfull waste or extravagency during the time aforesaid: and further that my said mother Annatie shall have for her to live in during her lifetime one of my best rooms which she chooses, and the use of my kitchen and milk-room, and that my wife Sarah shall during the time she possesses my said estate, keep and maintain my daughter Annatie. If in case it shall happen that my said wife Sarah remarries before the decease of my said mother Annatie, then I will and desire of my Executors hereafter named to take special care of my said daughter Annatie and manage my estate by hiring out the same or otherwise as they think best to the most profit of my said child Annatie, and the best for my said mother Annatie. Item, I give and bequeath unto my said wife Sarah all the household furniture which she had from her father and brought into my estate, to her and her heirs

(X. Albert Coerte Van Voorhees.)

forever. After the remarriage of my said wife Sarah, or after the decease of my said mother Annatie, my will is and I do hereby give full power unto my Executors hereafter named or to the major part of them to sell and dispose of so much of my personal estate to the value of One hundred pounds current, lawfull money of the Province of New York aforesaid and to give the said sum of One hundred pounds unto my said wife Sarah in lieu and stead of her right of dower. Item, After the decease of my said mother Annatie it is my will and I do order my Executors hereafter named or the major part of them to sell and dispose of my said whole estate both real and personal at public sale to the highest bidder, except what I have heretofore given to my said wife Sarah, and I do hereby give them or the major part of them full power, lawfull and absolute authority to sell and dispose of the same accordingly, and to give deed or deeds for the same to the buyer or buyers as the case may require whenever my whole estate both real and personal is sold and made into money. My will is and I do hereby desire and order my Executors hereafter named, or the major part of them, to satisfy and pay all my just debts which will become due after the decease of my said mother Annatie, and I do hereby give full power, lawfull and absolute authority unto my Executors hereafter named, or the major part of them, whenever they think proper, to call in all the money due, owing and payable unto me or which hereafter shall become due and payable unto me, and to take the same money and pay off all the bonds which are now payable as far as the money will extend, and after all my just and lawfull debts, together with the legacies I have herein before given unto my said wife Sarah are all paid and satisfied, I give and bequeath all the residue or remainder of my whole estate so sold and made into money as aforesaid unto my said daughter Annatie, to her and her heirs and assigns forever; but if in case my said daughter Annatie shall happen to die before she shall arrive to lawfull age and without lawfull issue, then I give my said whole estate, so made into money as aforesaid, unto my brothers and sister named, Albert, Zacheus, and Bernardus, and my sister Jannetje the wife of Wilhelmus Van Brunt, to be equally divided between them share and share alike. If in case any of my said brothers or sister shall happen to die before such division is made, the child or children of them so dying shall be in stead and place of their father or mother so dying as aforesaid. Lastly, I do hereby nominate, constitute, ordain and appoint my said brothers Albert Voorhees, Zacheus Voorhees, Bernardus Voorhees and my said brother-in-law Wilhelmus Van Brunt, to be Executors to this my last Will and Testament, desiring them to take good care of my said daughter Annatie, and to put out at interest all the money that my whole estate is sold for, after all my just and lawfull debts are paid and satisfied, for the better educating, supporting and maintaining of my said daughter Annatie till she marries or comes of lawfull age, then the same to be her own property, and I do hereby give them full power, lawfull and absolute authority, or the major part of them, to execute, fulfill and perform all and every article and thing herein contained as near as can be done by them or the major part of them, ratifying and allowing this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written. COURT VOORHEES. [L.S.]

(X. Albert Coerte Van Voorhees.)

His Will, dated Oct. 1, 1702, proved Sept. 23, 1704, recorded in the Surrogate's Office, New York City, Liber 7, p. 175, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. the first day of October in the first year of the reigne of our Soveraign Lady Anne, by the grace of God now of England &c Queen, and in the year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and two, I Gerrit Coerte of Flatlands, in Kings County on Nassau Island in the Province of New Yorke, being of good and perfect memory, praised be Almighty God therefore, do make this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say; First, I recommend my soul to Almighty God who gave it, and my body to the earth to be buried in such decent and christianlike manner and in such place as by my Executrix hereafter named shall be thought fit and expedient.

Item, I give, grant, devise and bequeath unto my loving wife Willempie all and singular my houses, lands, tenements, orchards, gardens, meadows and hereditaments in possession or reversion or remainder, situate lying and being within the town and liberties of Flatlands aforesaid or elsewhere, either within the Province of New Yorke or without, for and during her natural life, to have and to hold all the said houses, lands, tenements, orchards, gardens, meadows and hereditaments in possession or reversion or remainder as aforesaid, unto my loving wife Willempie for and during her natural life to the sole and only proper use, benefit and behoof of her the said Willempie for and during her natural life, Provided always, that if in case my said wife Willempie at any time after my decease should happen to remarry then it is my will and order that my said wife Willempie shall only have possess and enjoy the messuage or tenement whereon I now live containing five and forty morgens, with half of the meadow and the rights and priviledges thereunto belonging for and during her natural life. And all that piece of land lying after the said messuage commonly called Bashurys Hook, lying by ye Stroomkill, so called, immediately after my said wifes remarriage shall be taken into possession by my overseers hereafter named for the only proper use and behoof and benefit of my loving children by names, Marytie, Coert, Altie, Peter, Hendrick, Steven and Gertie and to be let or hired out by my said overseers for ye use and benefit of said children in general, each a like share of the profit thereof until my eldest son comes of age, and then to be equally divided by said overseers to every of said children alike and delivered to them. Item, I give, grant, devise and bequeath unto my dear and loving children by names, Marytie, Coert, Altie, Peter, Hendrick, Steven and Gertie, after the decease of my said wife Willempie all and singular my houses, lands, tenements, orchards, gardens, meadows and hereditaments in possession, reversion or remainder, situate lying and being within the town and liberties of Flatlands aforesaid or elsewhere, either within the Province of New Yorke or without, in just and equal proportion to be divided between them and to them, their heires or assignes forever, to have and to hold all the said houses, lands, tenements, orchards, gardens, meadows and hereditaments as aforesaid unto my said loving children Marytie, Coert, Altie, Peter, Hendrick, Steven and Gertie, and all other children that I may hereafter happen to have by my said wife, their heires and assignes forever in just equal proportion, to be divided between them immediately after my wifes decease, to the sole and only proper use, benefit and behoof of them as aforesaid, their heires and assignes forever. Provided always, and it is my will and order that no molestation be made to my father Coert Stevense and wife, for the house and ground they now possess and live on, so long as both of them lives, and that no division be made of said house and ground till after the decease of my said father and mother, but they peaceably hold and enjoy it so long as they both shall live. Further it is my will that my eldest son Coert shall have out of my estate aforesaid five and twenty pounds in money over and above his equal share with my other children before any division is made of said estate, and likewise it is my will that if in case my said wife happen to dye before my eldest son comes of age then I do order that said son shall help to maintain my youngest children out of his portion and estate so long and until said children are of age to help themselves. Item, I give grant devise and bequeath unto my said loving wife Willempie all and singular my goods and chattels, rights and credits, whatsoever or wheresoever the same are or shall become due either within the Province of New Yorke or without, for and during her natural life, but if in case my said wife after my decease happens to remarry, then to enjoy only the half part of said goods and chattels as aforesaid during her life, and after the remarriage of my said wife (if it so happen) the one half part of said goods and chattels as abovesaid immediately to be equally and in just proportion divided between my children above named, and the other half to be divided also after the decease of my said wife, equally among my said children, and in case of the non-marriage of my said wife all my goods and chattels as above (that is what is then in being after the decease of my said wife) to be equally divided immediately between my said children, to have and to hold to them as their own goods and chattels forever. Lastly, I do hereby make and ordaine my loving wife Willempie whole and sole Executrix of this my last Will and Testament and Peter Monfoort and Cornelius Coerte overseers over my said wife and children, to see this my last Will and Testament performed according to the true intent and meaning thereof. In witness whereof, I, the said Gerrit Coerte have

He resided at Gravesend, Long Island. His Will, dated Jan. 3, 1746, proved July 24, 1750, recorded in the Surrogate's Office, New York City, in Liber 17, p. 191, is as follows:
"In the name of God, Amen. The third day of January, in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and forty six, I Koert Voorhees of Gravesend, in Kings County, on the Island of Nassau, Yeoman, being at present very sick and weak in body, but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God therefore, calling unto mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say: Principally and first of all, I give and recommend my Soul into the hands of God that gave it, and for my body I recommend it to the earth to be buried in a christianlike and decent manner at the discretion of my Executors, nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God, and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form. Imprimis, That after my lawful debts are paid and my funeral charges are defrayed, I do give to Neeltje, my loving wife, the use of all my real and personal estate in Gravesend, in said County, or elsewhere, for and during her natural life till remarriage, for her to possess, use and occupy without any hindrance, let or molestation, by any person or persons whatsoever. Item, It is my will that immediately after my loving wife's remarriage she shall surrender my said estate to my children, provided my said loving wife shall have out of my estate a bed, with its furniture, and I do give to my loving wife twenty five pounds current money of New York, to be paid her out of my estate, by my Executors immediately after remarriage. Item, I give my whole estate, real and personal, to my children by names, Stephen, Garret, Adrian, Eva, now the wife of Charles Debevoise, Maria, Anne, Lucrecia, Catherine, Neeltje, Sarah, and the children of my son Isaac, deceased, unto them, their heirs and assigns forever, each an equal portion, that is to say the children of my son Isaac shall have an eleventh part of my said estate. Item, It is my will that my said estate shall be divided as abovesaid immediately after my loving wifes remarriage or decease. And I give to my eldest son Stephen Voorhees my great Dutch Bible, as a token for his birthright and to divide equal with his brothers and sisters. And I give forty shillings to my daughter Catherine out of my estate before division of my estate is made, and then divide with my children. Item, It is further my will that if it should please God that any of my children should die under age without issue, that then the deceased's portion shall be equally divided among the survivors of my children. And I do constitute and appoint my son Stephen Voorhees and my brother John Voorhees and my brother-in-law Teunis Bogart to be Executors of this my last Will and testament to see that it is duly and truly performed according to the true intent and meaning thereof, and I do appoint them also to be Guardians of my non-aged children. And lastly I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disannul all and every other former Testaments, Wills and legacies, bequests and Executors by me in any ways before this time named, willed and bequeathed, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my my hand and seal the day and year first above written.

"KOERT VOORHEES. [L.S.]

"Signed, sealed, published, pronounced and declared by the said Koert Voorhees as his last Will and Testament in the presence of us subscribers. Elias Hubbard, Samuel Gerritsen Jr., S. Gerritsen.

"City of New York, ss.: Be it remembered that on the twenty fourth day of July 1750 appeared before me Goldsbrow Banyar, hereunto authorized, Samuel Gerritsen Jun'r and made oath on the Holy Evangelists that he saw Koert Voorhees deceased, in his lifetime sign and seal the within written instrument purporting to be the Will of the said Koert Voorhees and heard him publish and declare the same to be and contain his last Will and Testament, that at the time thereof he was of sound and disposing mind and memory, to the best of his, the deponents, knowledge and belief, that he the deponent subscribed his name as a witness thereto in the presence of the testator, and also saw Elias Hubbard and Samuel Gerritsen subscribe their names as witnesses thereto in the testators presence. GW. BANYAR."

(XI. GERRIT COERTE VAN VOORHEES.)

He removed from Flatlands, L. I., because unwilling to pay tithes to the English Church, and purchased 231 acres of the Van Horne tract near Blawenburgh, Somerset Co., N. J., on which he settled. His Will, dated Mar. 24, 1747, proved July 14, 1749, at Perth Amboy, N. J., recorded in the Office of the Secretary of State of New Jersey in Liber E, p. 315, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Peter Van Voorhees being thro the abundant mercey and goodness of God, tho weak in body, yet of a sound and perfect understanding and memory, do constitute this my last Will and Testament, and desire it may be received by all as such. Imprimis, I humbly bequeath my soul to God who gave it, beseaching his most gracious acceptance of it thro the merits of Jesus my Redeemer, Amen. Imprimis, I give my body to the earth from whence it was taken in full assurance of its resurrection at the last day. As for my burial I desire it may be ordered and done at the discretion of these my Executors hereafter named, who I doubt not will manage it with all requisite prudence. As to my worldly estate I will and positively order that all my debts be paid. Item, I give to my dear and loving wife for the term of her life, provided she marry not, this house wherein I now dwell, with all the furniture, and the lands and tenements that belong to, or lye about it, with my lot of land in Brunswick, and all the moveables and properties whatsoever belonging to me, and after her death the farm to be sold, as also the lot in Brunswick, and the price divided equally amongst the children as also the moveables to be divided amongst them equally, excepting my oldest son Garret to whom I bequeath twenty five pounds legal money over and above his common share. For the true performance of which, I do constitute these my dear friends, Peter Nevius, Daniel Polhemus, and Hendrick Van Voorhees, the Executors of this my last Will and Testament and Trustees for my wife and children. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty fourth day of March, Anno Domini 1747. PETER VAN VOORHEES. [L.S.]

"Witnesses present: John Gordon, Nicholas Wyckoff, Guysbert Lane.

"We affirm that ye Executors names are interlined two lines from the number line.

"Be it remembered that on the second day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and forty eight, Nicholas Wyckoff and Guysbert Lane, two of the witnesses within subscribed, personally came before me Anthony White, duly authorized to prove Wills and qualify Executors in the Province of New Jersey, and they being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists did depose and say that they were present and saw Peter Van Voorhees the testator within named sign and seal the within written instrument and heard him publish, pronounce and declare the same to be his last Will and Testament, and at the doing thereof the said testator was of sound mind and memory to the best of their knowledge and understanding and that the same time John Gordon the other witness was present and signed as a witness, as did also each of them the deponents sign as a witness in the testators presence.

ANTHONY WHITE.

"Be it remembered that at the same time Peter Nevius and Hendrick Van Voorhees, two of the Executors within named personally came before me and were sworn to the due execution and performance of the within Will according to law.

ANTHONY WHITE.

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Hendrick Voorhees, of Freehold in the County of Monmouth and Province of East New Jersey, Yeoman, being weak of body but of perfect memory, thanks be to God therefore, this nineteenth day of April, in the fourth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, over Great Brittain, France and Ireland, King, &c. Anno Domini One thousand seven hundred and sixty four, do constitute, and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say. First my will is that all my lawful debts shall be paid by my Executors hereinafter mentioned. Item, I give and bequeath to my loving wife Sarah fifty pounds money at eight shillings per ounce, to be her dower, and to have her maintainance out of my estate as long as she remains my widow. Item, I give and bequeath to my grandson Hendrick, son of my son John deceased, five pounds. Item, I give and bequeath to my two sons Andrew and Peter each one hundred pounds. Item, I give and bequeath to my son William fifty acres of land bounded by land of Peter Schenck and John Crage Junior, for which he is to give Two hundred and fifty pounds to be paid in a year after my decease to my Executors hereinafter named. And then the whole of my remaining estate I give and bequeath to all my sons and daughters hereinafter mentioned to be equally divided, share and share alike, my daughter Geertye, my daughter Willimpy, my daughter Catherine, my son Andrew, my son William, my son Hendrick, my daughter Jean, my son Rulef, my son Albert, my son Garret, the whole of my estate, real and personal, to be divided in eleven equal parts and divided as aforementioned. And if it should happen that my sons and daughters should not agree concerning said division of my estate between themselves, it is my will that all my lands and moveables be sold by my Executors and the money to be equally divided among my abovesaid eleven mentioned children, and to be equally divided as aforesaid, and if it should happen that any of my sons or daughters shall die before they arrive to the full age of twenty one years without any heir from their own body, then my will is, that such eleventh part or parts of my said estate shall be equally divided between my surviving sons and daughters as aforesaid. I do constitute, appoint and ordain my well beloved son Peter, my son-in-law David Williamson and my good friend Derick Zutphen son of Derick, the Executors of this my last Will and Testament. In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the year and day first above written.

" In the name of God, Amen. I, Koert Van Voorhees of Perth Amboy, County of Middlesex, and Province of New Jersey, Yeoman, being aged and weak in body, but of perfect mind and memory—thanks be given to Almighty God therefor—calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do now make and ordain this my last Will and Testament. Firstly, I recommend and resign my soul unto the grace and mercy of Almighty God who gave it, and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in a decent and christianlike manner at the discretion of my Executors, nothing doubting but that I shall receive the same again at the general resurrection of the dead at the last day by the almighty power of God : and as for what worldly goods it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life, I give and bequeath and dispose of the same in the following manner and form : dated this fourth day of February, Anno Dom' 1754. Imprimis, I give and bequeath unto Stephen Van Voorhees, my only son, one silver tankard, one large silver spoon. Item, I give and bequeath unto Sarah Van Voorhees my dearly beloved wife three silver tea-spoons. Item, I will and ordain that my funeral charges and just debts be all paid out of the other part and remainder of my estate. Item, I will and ordain that after my funeral charges and just debts are paid then the remainder and overplus money to be divided into three equal parts: And I give and bequeath one third part unto Sarah Van Voorhees my dearly beloved wife, and I give and bequeath the two third parts unto my said son Stephen Van Voorhees, to the only proper use, benefit, and behoof of my said beloved wife, and son, divided as aforesaid, and to their heirs and assigns forever. Item, I hereby will and ordain, nominate, constitute and appoint my well beloved friends James Peairs and Luycas Schenck, to be my Executors to execute this my last Will and Testament, and hereby acknowledge and declare this and only this to be my last Will and Testament.

KOERT VAN VOORHEES. [L.S.]

"Signed, sealed, delivered, pronounced and declared by Koert Van Voorhees in the presence of (Memo' the word 'two' in the 11th line was erased out and the word 'one made in its place, and the words 'three silver tea-spoons' in the 12th line was erased out by order of the testator before signing and delivery hereof).

"Stephen Warne, Mathias Johnson, John Collins.

"Be it remembered, that on the twentieth day of January One thousand seven hundred and fifty six, before me, Thomas Bartow duly authorized, personally came Stephen Warne and Mathias Johnson, two of the within witnesses, and made oath on the Holy Evangelists that they saw Koert Van Voorhees the testator within named sign and seal the within written Will, and heard him publish and declare the same to be his last Will and Testament, and that at the doing thereof he was of sound mind and memory to the best of their knowledge and as they verily believe, and that at the same time John Collins was present and signed as a witness together with them in the testators presence.

THOS. BARTOW."

"Anno Dom' 1772 the 22d day of May. In the name of God, Amen; I, Koert Voorhies (the elder) of the Township of Windsor, in the County of Middlesex and Province of New Jersey, Yeoman, being in perfect health and sound mind and memory and understanding—blessed be God—do make this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following. First and principally I resign my Soul to God that gave it, and hope for salvation through the merrits of my Redeemer Jesus Christ, and as touching my worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise and bequeath of the same in the following manner and form. In the first place it is my will and I do hereby order and direct my executors hereinafter named to satisfy and pay all my just debts together with my funeral expenses some convenient time after my decease. Item, I give and bequeath unto my said son John Voorhies the sum of five pounds for his birthright, to him, his heirs and assigns forever. Item, I give and bequeath unto my loving wife Nelley all the profits, use and income of my whole moveable estate whatsoever during the time she remains my widow, and after her re-marriage or decease I give and bequeath the same unto my four children, my said son John Voorhies, my son Koert Voorhies, my two daughters, Ann the wife of Isaac Van Dyke and Lammettie the wife of Rutgert Couenhoven, to them and their heirs and assigns forever respectively, but if my said wife Nelley shall happen to re-marry, that then and in such case, she shall have an equal share out of my said moveable estate, with my said four children, but if she shall happen to die my widow, then my said moveable estate shall be equally divided between all my said four children, except that my said son Koert shall, before any division of my said moveable estate is made, have three fourths of an Inventory I have made of some of my moveable estate bearing date the first day of October in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and seventy one, and my said son John shall before any division of my said moveable estate, have the one fourth of the aforesaid Inventory—all and whatever I have herein given to my said wife Nelley shall be in lieu of her right of dower. Item, I give and bequeath unto my said son Koert Voorhies, his heirs and assigns forever all my whole real estate whatsoever I have in the Township of Windsor aforesaid or elsewhere, he the said Koert Voorhies paying unto his brother John Voorhies the sum of One hundred pounds Proclamation money one year next after my decease, and to his sister Ann wife of Isaac Van Dyke the sum of One hundred pounds money aforesaid two years next after my decease, and to his sister Lammetie the wife of Rutgert Couenhoven the sum of One hundred pounds money aforesaid three years next afier my decease, in all three hundred pounds to be paid to them, their heirs and assigns agreeable to the time before mentioned. And Lastly, I do hereby nominate constitute, ordain and ap-

He resided at Flatlands, L. I. His Will, dated July 11, 1752, proved Aug. 29, 1754, recorded in the Surrogate's Office, New York City, in Liber 19, p. 71, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Abraham Voorhees of the Township of Flatlands in Kings County in the Province of New York, Yeoman, being in a weak and sickly condition of body, but, thanks be to God, of sound mind, memory and understanding, do therefore make this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, viz, Principally and first of all, I give and bequeath my Soul immortal unto God who gave it, and my body I recommend unto the earth whence it was taken, to be buried in a decent and christianlike manner at the discretion of my Executors hereinafter named, and as to such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me, in this life, I give, devise and dispose thereof as followeth, viz., First, I do will and order that all my just and lawful debts and funeral charges shall be duly paid by my Executors. And whereas I am ordered and directed by my father in his last Will and Testament (in consideration of certain legacies therein given, devised or bequeathed unto me) to pay out divers legacies which in the whole amount to seven hundred pounds or thereabouts, wherefore in order for the payment of my debts and the legacies aforesaid I do will and order that my Executors shall sell and dispose of so much of my lands and moveable estate as shall be sufficient for paying of my debts and the legacies aforesaid as they shall become due and payable according to the direction and intention of the last Will and Testament of Cornelius Voorhees my father aforesaid, and I do hereby authorize and empower my said Executors to make sale thereof accordingly as their discretion shall direct, and to give a good and lawful title to the buyer or buyers their heirs and assigns therefor. Item, I give and bequeath unto Sarah my beloved wife, one third part of my estate for so long a time as she shall continue my widow, and over and above that, I give unto her two mares for her own use and also the sole and whole use benefits and profits of all and singular my lands and moveable estate, excepting what shall be sold for the purposes aforesaid, from and after the decease of my said father, until my only son Cornelius shall arrive to lawful age, to take and receive the benefits and profits thereof for her own maintainance and the maintaining educating and bringing up of my children in their nonage, and the overplus, if any, to take and receive for her own use, and if my said wife should happen to marry before my said son shall arrive to lawful age as aforesaid, yet my will is that she shall and may continue upon my farm and take and receive the benefits thereof as aforesaid till my son do arrive to age as abovesaid, and when arrived to such age I do will and order that he my said son shall pay unto her my said wife the full sum of two hundred pounds New York money, that is to say, within two years after, at two equal payments which said sum of money shall be for her own use and at her own disposal, upon the receipt of which, if then married, she shall quit all right and title of dower which she may then have of, in or to, or out of, my estate and accept of the said two hundred pounds in lieu thereof. Item, I give and bequeath unto my two daughters namely, Hailtie and Antie, each one hundred pounds New York money, to be paid to them when they respectively arrive to the age of eighteen years, and I do will and order that my said son Cornelius shall pay the same to them as above directed, and moreover I do order and will that he shall pay unto each of my said daughters the sum of twenty-five pounds like money, for an outset of household goods on the day of their respective marriages and not otherwise, and till they marry my will is that they shall continue and stay upon my farm with my son, if they see cause to do so. In consideration of what I have ordered and willed as aforesaid for my said son to pay and perform, I do give, bequeath and devise unto him all the rest residue and remainder of all my lands and real estate whether in possession or reversion whatsoever, as also all the rest residue and remainder of my moveable estate which now doth or hereafter shall or may of right belong unto me, to have and to hold the same and every part thereof unto him my said son his heirs and assigns to his and their own proper use and behoof forever. And lastly, I hereby nominate and appoint my well beloved brother Daniel Voorhees of Oysterbay in Queens County, and Rem Remsen of Bedford in Kings County aforesaid, Yeomen, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Will and wills by me heretofore made. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this eleventh day of July in the year of our Lord Christ One thousand seven hundred and fifty two.

ABRAHAM VOORHEES. [L.S.]

(XIV. CORNELIS COERTE VAN VOORHEES.)

"Signed, sealed, published and declared (after the words 'to make sale' in the fifteenth line were interlined) by the above named Abraham Voorhees as and for his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses thereto in the presence of the said testator and in the presence of each other. Dirck Remsen, Pieter Wyckoff, Marten M. Schenck.

"City of New York, ss.: Be it remembered that on the 29th day of August 1754 personally came and appeared before me Goldsborow Banyar, thereunto delegated and appointed, Dirck Remsen, cordwainer, Pieter Wyckoff, farmer, and Marten M. Schenck, farmer, all of Flatlands in Kings County and being duly sworn on their oaths declared that they and each of them did see Abraham Voorhees sign and seal the within written instrument purporting to be the Will of the said Abraham Voorhees bearing date the 11th day of July 1752, and heard him publish and declare the same to be and contain his last Will and Testament, that at the time thereof the said Abraham Voorhees was of sound disposing mind and memory to the best of the knowledge and belief of them the deponents, and that their names subscribed to the said Will are of their respective hands writing which they subscribed as witnesses to the said Will in the testators presence. "In the name of God, Amen. I, Daniel Voorhies of South Brunswick, County of Middlesex and State of New Jersey, being weak in body but of perfect mind and memory do make, constitute and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, to wit: First, I do will and order that all my just debts and funeral charges be paid out of my estate by my Executors hereafter named. Secondly, it is my will and I do order that my Executors hereafter named as aforesaid do give and deliver up to my beloved wife Eve Voorhies all such or the same household furniture as she brought to me when I married her, as soon after my death as possible, and likewise I give and devise unto my said wife Eve all that legacy of money given to her by the last Will and Testament of her father Lucas Couenhoven, deceased, or by any other person or persons, to be at her own disposal forever. Thirdly, I do give and devise to my son Peter my watch, to him, as aforesaid. Fourthly, It is my will and I do empower by this my last Will and Testament, my Executors to sell, dispose and convey all my estate both real and personal whatsoever and wheresoever, excepting what is given as above, and the money arising from the sale, after my debts and funeral charges be paid, to be put out at interest, and the interest arising to be applied to the educating of my three sons Peter, Cornelius, and William, or so much as is necessary for their education, and as they arrive to the age of twenty one, both principal and interest to be equally divided between them, of all my said estate; and if either of my said sons should die and leave lawfull issue that should arrive to the age of

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Cornelius Voorhees of Flatlands in Kings County, in the Province of New York,

Yeoman, being sick and weak in body, but of perfect mind and memory—thanks be given unto God therefor—calling unto mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, and that it behooveth every man to set his worldly estate in such order if possible before he departeth this life that no strife or debate may arise about the same after his decease, do therefore make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say, Principally and first of all, I give and recommend my Soul into the hands of God who gave it, and my body I recommend to the earth from whence it was taken, to be decently interred in some convenient place at the discretion of my Executors, nothing doubting but at the general ressurrection I shall receive the same again, by the mighty power of God, and as touching my worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, will, devise, bequeath and dispose thereof in the following manner and form. Imprimis, It is my will and I do order that all my just and lawful debts and funeral charges shall be duly paid by my Executors out of my estate. Item, I give and bequeath unto Marretje, my loving wife, my cupboard with the linnen and woolen cloth therein, three bedsteads, with all the furniture thereunto belonging, and all the rest of my moveable goods which she brought into my estate, and I also give unto my said loving wife my brown mare, and my ryding chair, and harness thereunto belonging. Item, I give to my daughter Catryntje my Dutch Bible and one silver spoon, and one silver tea spoon. Item, I give to my daughter Sarah one silver spoon, and one silver tea spoon. Item, I give to my nephew Abraham Stoothoff, that is, the son of my brother-in-law Wilhelmus Stoothoff, all my wearing apparel of Woolen cloth. Item, It is further my will and I do order, that all and singular my real estate whatsoever shall be sold by my Executors hereafter named, or any two of them, at public vendue or otherwise as to them shall seem best, at some convenient time after my decease, and I do hereby, as far as in me lyeth, authorize and empower them or any two of them, as aforesaid to make sale thereof accordingly, and to execute good, sufficient, lawful deed or deeds or other lawful and proper instruments in writing to the buyer or buyers, his, her, or their heirs and assigns forever in fee simple for the same and every part and parcel thereof. And my will is further and I do require that my said Executors or any two of them as aforesaid shall also sell and dispose of all the rest and residue of my moveable and personal estate which is not herein before given or bequeathed, at public vendue or otherwise as they shall think best, and the moneys arising by the sale of my said real and personal estate over and above to pay my just and lawful debts and funeral expenses, I give and bequeath the same unto my said loving wife Marretje, and my two loving daughters Catryntje and Sarah before named, each, one equal third part thereof, and to their respective heirs and assigns forever; the said one third part shall be paid to my loving wife Marretje out of the money that shall first come due and payable from my said real and personal estate after sale thereof, and the other two third parts shall be paid to my two daughters Catryntje and Sarah before named, to each one third part when they shall respectively arrive to the age of twenty one years, and if it shall happen that my said daughters or any one of them shall come to marry before the said age of twenty one years, then it is my will that they shall have, each of them, the sum of Sixty pounds out of their portion to be paid to them or any one of them, within two months after they shall respectively marry, to enable them to set out for housekeeping. And it is further my will that my said loving wife Marretje shall from her portion herein before by me given her, maintain and bring up my children aforesaid until they shall respectively arrive to the age of twenty one years, or marry, which shall happen first. And lastly I do nominate and appoint my father-in-law Dowe Ditmars—my brother-in-law Wilhelmus Stoothoff Junior and my uncles Abraham Remsen and Derrick Remsen Executors of this my last Will and Testament, allowing and declaring this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this first day of April in the year of our Lord Christ One thousand seven hundred and sixty eight. CORNELIUS VOORHIES. [L. S.]

"Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the said Cornelius Voorhies as and for his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us the subscribers, Johannes Lott, Nicholas Wyckoff, Johannes Lott Junior.

"City of New York, ss.: Be it remembered that on the thirteenth day of February, One thousand and seven hundred and sixty nine, personally came and appeared before me Phillip Livingston Junior, thereunto duly authorized, Johannes Lott and Nicholas Wyckoff both of Kings County Yeomen, and being duly sworn on their oaths declared that they and each of them did see Cornelius Voorhies sign and seal the within written instrument purporting to be the Will of the said Cornelius Voorhies bearing date the first day of April, One thousand seven hundred and sixty eight, and heard him publish and declare the same as and for his last Will and Testament, that at the time thereof he the said Cornelius Voorhies was of sound disposing mind and memory, to the best of the knowledge and belief of them the deponents, and that their names subscribed to the said Will are of their respective proper handswriting, which they subscribed as witnesses to the said Will in the testators presence and that they the deponents saw Johannes Lott Junior, the other witness to the said Will subscribe his name as a witness thereto in the testators presence. He left Flatlands, L. I., after his first marriage and settled first at Freehold, Monmouth Co., N. J., on a farm of 200 acres, purchased by him from Alexander Adams on Mar. 8, 1702. Deed recorded Liber H., p. 116, Office of the East New Jersey Proprietors, Perth Amboy, N. J. And from there removed to the Rombout Precinct, now Fishkill, Duchess Co., N. Y., where he purchased, on June 20, 1730, from Philip Verplanck, of the Manor of Courtlandt, the following described premises: "All that certain lot of land No 1. situate, lying and being in Duchess County N. Y. beginning on the Hudson River at the northermost bounds of land belonging to Mrs. Brett or her assigns running from thence along said bounds Northerly 66 degrees Easterly 575 chains; thence Northerly 20 degrees Westerly 7 chains; thence Southerly 62 degrees Westerly 565 chains to the Hudson River aforesaid, thence along said River to the place where it began. Containing two thousand seven hundred and ninety acres more or less."

This deed is an indentured parchment, and has on its back the acknowledgment by Philip Verplanck of its execution before Judge Jacobus Ter Bos, with a permission to record, and also a receipt signed by the said Philip Verplanck for the consideration money, 670 pounds sterling. This deed was never recorded, and is now in the possession of Mr. William Henry Van Voorhis, of Fishkill-on-the-Hudson, Duchess Co., N. Y. Johannes Coerte Van Voorhees was one of the organizers, and for many years an Elder of the Dutch Church at Fishkill Village, his name appearing on almost all the early Church papers. His descendants universally write the family name "Van Voorhis," and the change from "Van Voorhees" must have been made about the time of his death, as his tombstone in the churchyard of the Dutch Church, Fishkill Village, has the inscription: "Here Lyes the Body of John Van Voorhis Aged 75 Years. Deceased Oct. 10th Anno 1757." On the same stone is the inscription: "Here lyes the Body of Barbara Van Dyck, Aged 59 Years. Deceased Apr. 18, Anno 1743." The family Bible of Johannes Coerte Van Voorhees having passed at his death into the possession of his eldest son Coert, and on the death of Coert, into the possession of his eldest son Henry, is now the property of Mr. John Courtland Van Voorhis, of Malden, Mass., a grandson of the said Henry, and contains entries of births and marriages by Johannes Coerte Van Voorhees, Coert Van Voorhees, Johannis Van Voorhees, Junior, and Elias Du Bois, a son-in-law of Johannes Coerte Van Voorhees, the entries by Johannes Coerte Van Voorhees and Coert Van Voorhees being in the Dutch language.

Henry Van Voorhis died the 18th of September, in the year of our Lord 1801—66 years of age the 21st of April.

The Will of Johannes Coerte Van Voorhees, dated Aug. 15, 1755, proved Feb. 5, 1758, recorded in the Surrogate's Office, in New York City, in Liber 21, p. 19, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen: I, Johannes Van Vorhuis of Rombout Precinct in Duchess County, in the Province of New York, Yeoman, being weak in body but of sound memory—blessed be God therefor—Do this fifteenth day of August, in the year of our Lord Christ One thousand seven hundred and fifty five, make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner following, that is to say, Imprimis, I commend my soul to the hands of Almighty God, and my body to the earth from whence it came, in hopes of a joyful resurrection at the last day, and as for that worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me, after payment of my just debts and funeral expenses by my Executors hereinafter named, I give, devise and dispose thereof as followeth: I give and bequeath unto my well beloved son Court Van Voorhis, the sum of five pounds, to be raised and levied out of my personal estate, wherewith I do exclude and bar him from any other or further claim as being my eldest son and heir at law. Item, I give and bequeath unto my well beloved son, Zacharias Van Voorhis, the choice of one of my negro men, and also my old negro man Tone, forever; also one good waggon with its tackling, two horses, two cows, a plow and its tackling, and to his heirs and assigns for ever. Item, I give and bequeath unto my son Jacob Van Voorhis, before any division is made, one good waggon with its tackling, two horses, two cows, a plow with its tackling, and to his heirs and assigns forever. Item, I give and bequeath unto my dear and loving wife, Sarah Van Voorhis, the sum of seventy five pounds current money of New York, to be raised and levied out of my personal estate, and to be paid unto her by my Executors hereinafter named within three months after my decease; fifty pounds of said seventy five pounds is in discharge of so much I covenanted to pay unto her, in and by a contract of marriage entered into between us, and the remaining twenty five pounds is given her for the love and affection that I have for her. Item, It is my will order and desire that my negro woman shall live and serve my said son Zacharias as long as he shall remain unmarried, and in case of his marriage or death, or which shall first happen, she shall and hereby is deemed to be a part of my personal estate, and disposed of as is the residue of my personal estate hereinafter mentioned and disposed. Item, I give, devise and bequeath all my Real Estate whatsoever and wheresoever, in manner following, that is to say: one equal quarter part unto my aforesaid son Court, and to his heirs and assigns forever; one other equal quarter part unto the children of my late son Johannes Van Voorhis, deceased, and to their several and respective heirs and assigns forever; one other equal quarter part to my aforesaid son Zacharias Van Voorhis, and to his heirs and assigns forever; and the remaining equal quarter part thereof unto my well beloved son Jacob Van Voorhis, and to his heirs and assigns forever. Item, all the rest, residue and remainder of my personal estate I give, devise and bequeath unto my three aforesaid sons, the children of my late son Johannes, and my two daughters Jannetje and Maria, to each son, and to my daughters, and to the children together, one equal and even sixth part, share and proportion thereof, and that the division and sharing of the said rest, residue and remainder of my personal estate shall be had and made within six months after my decease. Lastly I do by these presents nominate, constitute and appoint my said sons Zacharias and Jacob, and my sons-in-law John Brinckerhoff and Elias Dubois, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former and other Wills and Testaments heretofore by me made, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament.

1. Jannetje, b. Sept. 15, 1704; d. Nov. 11, 1792; m., Mar. 12, 1725, Col. John Brinkerhoff, of Fishkill, Duchess Co., N. Y., b. July 11, 1703; d. Mar. 26, 1785.

The following extract concerning Col. John Brinkerhoff is from "Historical Sketches," No. 61, by Hon. Benson J. Lossing, in the Poughkeepsie Eagle, issue of Feb. 14, 1874:

"A letter written by Gen. Washington to General Lincoln, announcing the appointment of the latter gentleman to the command of troops for the defence of Charleston, is dated at Col. Brinkerhoff's, Oct. 3, 1778. The house in which that letter was written is standing a few rods from the line of the Duchess and Columbia Railway, about three miles northeast of Fishkill. It is an old-fashioned house, built of stone, with the date 1738 on one of its gables, formed of brick imported from Holland. In that year it was built by John Brinkerhoff (the Colonel Brinkerhoff mentioned in Washington's letter), and is one of a group of buildings in and around Fishkill Village made notable by their connection with historic events. In the Brinkerhoff Mansion Washington remained a few days at this time, dating his letters written there, after the one just mentioned, 'Headquarters, Fishkill.' That village and its vicinity were conspicuous during the early years of the old war for Independence as a safe depository of military stores, a meeting place for the Committee of Safety and the Legislature of New York, and a refuge for the Whigs after the British took possession of the city of New York, in the autumn of 1776. There Samuel Loudon, a Whig printer of New York, halted in his flight and set up his press; and there, in 1777, he printed the first book, as well as one of the most important ones ever published in this State—that book was the Constitution of the State of New York. There a portion of the Continental army were encamped for a while, and at the headquarters at Brinkerhoff's might have been seen groups of distinguished officers of that army. Whenever Washington was at Fishkill he made Colonel Brinkerhoff's his headquarters. He occupied the bedroom back of the parlor, which remains the same, excepting a door that opens into the hall, which has been cut through. The Colonel's wife appears to have been one of those kind-hearted, motherly women, who are never at ease unless every one around them is comfortable ; and there is a tradition in the family that she always went to Washington's room after he had retired and tucked the bedclothes around him to keep him warm. The Colonel was a religious man, and a devout member of the old Dutch Church at Fishkill Village. He was rigid in his observances of Christian duties. He said to Washington when he first came there : 'I am Commander-in-chief in my own house and wish everybody under my roof to attend family prayers.' Of course Washington yielded to his wishes."

His Will, dated Dec. 29, 1784, proved Mar. 31, 1785, recorded in the Surrogate's Office in New York City, in Liber 37, p. 476, is as follows :

"In the name of God, Amen. I, John Brinkerhoff, of Rombout Precinct, in Duchess County, and in the State of New York, this twenty-ninth day of December, in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, being in good health and perfect memory—blessed be God therefor—do make and publish this my last Will and testament, in manner and form following, that is to say : Imprimis, I commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God who gave it me, and my body to the earth from whence it came, in hopes of a joyful resurrection through the merits of my Saviour Jesus Christ ; and as for my worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me, I dispose thereof as follows : First, I will and direct that all my just debts and funeral charges be paid by my Executors to be hereinafter mentioned. Item, I give and bequeath unto my grandson Adrian Brinkerhoff the sum of Five pounds current money of New York, to be paid by my Executors within six months after the decease of my wife Jannetje Brinkerhoff which shall be in full bar of any claim or demand which he may or can have against my estate as heir-at-law. Item, I give, devise and bequeath unto my said grandson Adrian, that farm which the said Adrian now possesses situate in Rombout Precinct, containing about two hundred and ninety two acres ; also sixty acres adjoining to said farm which I bought of Dr. Theodorus Van Wyck ; also thirty acres of upland, meadow and swamp, twenty acres thereof to be meadow and swamp, and ten acres thereof to be upland, the said upland, meadow and swamp to be taken off the east end of my farm whereon I now live, beginning with the meadow and swamp on the bank of the Fish Kill, on the line of Johannes Rosekrances's farm, from thence running down along the said Fish Kill till it meets with Dr Van Wyck's swamp, thence westerly along his line so far as to make twenty acres and no more, square off to the upland; also beginning with the ten acres of upland at the northeast corner of my said farm, thence running westerly on the line of said farm two chains, thence southerly slanting off to the said meadow and swamp so far west as to leave a passage down to said meadow on the west side of a point of rocks. Also I give him one hundred and thirteen acres of woodland off the north end of a lot of land which my father-in-law Mr Johannes Van Voorhis gave me lying in Middlebush. I also give him twenty five acres of woodland in said Middlebush joining on Guysbert Schenck's land near his meadow, which my father Mr Dirck Brinkerhoff gave me. I also give him the one full half of a mountain farm in quantity and quality, which I bought of Benjamin List. I also give him the one full half of all my lands in the township of Berlin. Further more it is my will and pleasure that my said grandson Adrian Brinkerhoff shall enjoy and possess the above said farm, with all the buildings thereon, together with the above described pieces and parcels of land during his natural life; and furthermore it is my will and pleasure that after the decease of my said grandson Adrian, that the above described farm together with the said pieces and parcels of land, shall be possessed by the widow of my said grandson to maintain, feed clothe and educate all the children of my said grandson till they arrive at lawful age or marriage, and if the widow of my said grandson should die or marry again, then I give and bequeath unto all the children of my said grandson Adrian Brinkerhoff the above said farm with the buildings thereon, together with the above described pieces and parcels thereof, to them and to each of them, their heirs and assigns forever, in quantity and quality share and share alike. Item, I give and bequeath unto my grandson John Brinkerhoff Van Wyck, the farm which I now live on—the thirty acres of upland, meadow and swamp on the east end of my farm given to my grandson Adrian, and the one hundred acres of land hereafter mentioned on the west side of my farm given to my grandson Dirck Van Wyck, only excepted—together with my dwelling house, barn and out-houses, &c., appertaining thereto. I also give him the one full half of a mountain farm, in quantity and quality, which I bought of Benjamin List, to have and to hold the said farm and buildings thereof, together with the said half of the said mountain farm to him and his heirs and assigns forever. Provided he shall pay unto my grandchildren born of the body of my daughter Altje, late wife of Dr Theodorus Van Wyck, viz, Elizabeth, Altje, Theodorus, Jannetje, William and Abraham, the sum of fifty pounds New York currency, to each of them and their heirs, twelve months after the decease of my loving wife Jannetje; and in case my said grandson neglects or refuses to pay the said legacies to my said grandchildren or their heirs at the period aforesaid, then on such neglect or refusal I order my Executors to sell so much off my said farm as will pay off the several legacies given to my said grandchildren; and in case either the said Elizabeth, Altje, Theodorus, Jannetje, William and Abraham, or any one of them should die before age or marriage, then I will, order and direct my said grandson John Brinkerhoff Van Wyck, to pay their, and each of their respective legacies, sum and sums of fifty pounds aforesaid (so dying) to the survivor or survivors at the time aforesaid. I also give and bequeath unto my said grandson John, the one full half of all my right title and interest in Frankfort store-house, lands and appurtenances thereunto belonging, to him and his heirs and assigns forever. I also give him the one full quarter part of all my lands in the township of Berlin, to him and his heirs and assigns forever. Item, I give and bequeath unto my grandson Dirck Van Wyck, one hundred acres of land on the west end of the farm whereon I now live, in two pieces, on the north and south sides of the road leading down from Hopewell, beginning at the south lot, at the blacksmiths shop, thence southerly along the road leading from the new bridge to the Fish Kill, thence up the said Fish Kill till it meets with Dr Van Wycks land, thence along said Van Wycks land northerly till it meets with the said road leading from Hopewell, thence westerly along the said road to the place of beginning, containing fifty acres more or less; also beginning with the north lot, at the corner of Col Dirck Brinkerhoff's orchard on the said road, thence running northerly along said Brinkerhoff's line till it meets with Godfrey Hayne's land, then easterly along said Hayne's line till it meets with Dr Van Wyck's land, thence southerly along said Van Wycks line till it meets with the said road, thence westerly along said road to the place of beginning, containing fifty acres more or less. Also I give him one hundred and sixty acres of land lying in Middlebush, being in two pieces—one of the pieces containing twenty five acres was given me by my father Mr Dirck Brinkerhoff, lying southerly from the twenty five acres given to my grandson Adrian, and the other piece of land containing one hundred and thirty seven acres, was given me by my father-in-law, Mr Johannes Van Voorhis, lying southerly of the one hundred and thirteen acres given to my grandson Adrian—it being the farm that William Vantine at present possesses. I also give him the one full half of all my right title and interest in Frankfort storehouse, lands and appurtenances thereunto belonging. I also give him one full quarter part of all my land in the township of Berlin; the above said pieces and parcels of land together with the houses and outhouses I give to my grandson Dirck Van Wyck, to him and his heirs and assigns forever, provided he lives to the age of twenty one years or marriage; and if he should die before age or marriage, then I give and bequeath the said pieces or parcels of land together with the houses and outhouses thereon to my grandchildren hereafter mentioned, born of the body of my daughter Altje deceased, viz. Elizabeth, Altje, John Brinkerhoff, Theodorus, Jannetje, William, and Abraham, to be divided equally in quantity and quality, to them and to each of them, their heirs and assigns forever. But in case any one of my above mentioned grandchildren should die before age or marriage, then he, she or they so dying before age or marriage as aforesaid, that the survivor or survivors of my said grandchilden shall inherit the said estate, share and share alike, to them, their heirs and assigns forever. And I do hereby authorize and direct my Executors immediately after my decease to sell all my real estate which lies in Phillips Precinct, and also a lot of land which

(XVI. JOHANNES COERTE VAN VOORHEES.)

I bought of Thomas Woodward, lying on the mountains in Rombout Precinct, and also my share in the mines at Kent, Connecticut, and the moneys arising from the sale thereof I dispose of in manner following: that is to say, the one full half thereof I give and bequeath unto all the children now born, or may be born, of my said grandson Adrian, to be put out at interest for the said children by my Executors till each of them arrive at full age or marriage, and the remaining full half of the moneys arising from the sale of said lands I give and bequeath unto my grandchildren, viz: Elizabeth, Altje, Theodorus, Jannetje, William and Abraham; but in case any of my said grandchildren should die before age or marriage, that then the survivor or survivors of him, her, or them so deceased shall enjoy the full half of all the moneys arising from the sale of the said lands, to them and their heirs, share and share alike. Item, I give unto my well beloved wife, Jannetje Brinkerhoff, the sole and entire management of all my estate, both real and personal, whatever (excepting the land in Phillips Precinct and the lot of land which I bought of Thomas Woodward, and my share in the mines of Kent) for and during her natural life; and after the decease of my said wife I order and direct my Executors, or the survivor or survivors of them to sell the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, of what nature or kind soever, at Public Vendue, and the moneys arising from the sale thereof I dispose of in the following manner, viz: Item, I give and bequeath to the Elders and their successors (in trust) for the Reformed Dutch Church at Fishkill Town, the sum of One hundred pounds New York currency, and the interest money arising therefrom annually to be disposed of by the said Elders and their successors for the benefit of said Church and that no part of the principal thereof to be taken for any use whatsoever. Item, I give and bequeath unto my granddaughter Jannetje the sum of fifty pounds New York currency when she shall attain the age of twenty one years, or at her marriage; and in case she should die before age or marriage then I give the said Fifty pounds unto my grandchildren, Elizabeth, Altje, Theodorus, William and Abraham, to be divided equally between them or their heirs. Item, I give and bequeath unto all the children who are born, and who may be born of my grandson Adrian Brinkerhoff, the remaining full half of my estate (which is not already given) to be equally divided among them, and in case one or more of the children of my said grandson Adrian should die before lawfull age or marriage, that then the survivor or survivors of him, her, or them so deceased shall inherit the said one full half of the said estate, share and share alike. And it is also my will and pleasure that when the estate which I have given unto my grandson Adrian shall come to the children who are born and may be born of my grandson Adrian, the same shall be divided to them in the same manner that I have given them the last half of my estate. Item, I give and bequeath the remaining one full half of my estate (which is not already given) to all my grandchildren born of the body of my daughter Altje, deceased, viz, Elizabeth, Altje, John Brinkerhoff, Theodorus, Jannetje, William, Dirck and Abraham, share and share alike of the moneys arising from the last part of my estate; and in case any of my said grandchildren should die before age or marriage, that the survivor or survivors of him, her, or them so deceased shall inherit the said full half of the said estate, share and share alike; and also it is my will and pleasure that my son-in-law Dr Theodorus Van Wyck, who is hereinafter named, in this my last Will and Testament, as one of my Executors, shall have the sole management and care of all the moneys, lands, and tenements which I have given each of my grandchildren born of the body of my daughter Altje deceased, till they arrive at lawful age or marriage, which moneys I order to be put out at interest, and the lands I order to be rented to careful and industrious tenants. And furthermore it is my will and pleasure that in case my old and faithfull servant Culloman should survive my loving wife Jannetje, that then I will and direct my Executors to give him choice where to live during life, and the expense of feeding and clothing him shall be paid by my Executors—the one half thereof out of the estate, the other half thereof to be taken out of the estate of all the children of my daughter Altje, deceased, share and share alike. And I do make, constitute, and ordain my beloved wife Jannetje, Executrix; my son-in-law Dr Theodorus Van Wyck, and my good friends Jacobus Swartwout and Jacob Griffin Esquire,

(XVI. JOHANNES COERTE VAN VOORHEES.)

Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me made. In witness whereof, I, the said John Brinkerhoff, have to the first sheet of this, my last Will and Testament (containing two sheets of paper) set my hand, and to the last sheet thereof my hand and seal, the day and year first above written. JOHN BRINKERHOFF. [L.S.]

He resided at Fishkill, Duchess Co., N. Y. His Will, dated Dec. 26, 1782, recorded in the Office of the Surrogate of Duchess Co., in Liber 1, p. 92, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Court Van Voorhees, of Rumbout Precinct, in Duchess County, State of New York, being, through the abundant mercy and goodness of God, though weak in body yet of sound mind and perfect understanding and memory, do constitute this my last Will and testament, and desire it may be received by all as such. Imprimis, I most humbly bequeath my soul to God my maker, beseeching his most gracious acceptance of it through the all sufficient merits of my most compassionate Redeemer, Jesus Christ, who gave himself to be an atonement for my sins and is able to save to the uttermost all that come unto God by him, seeing he liveth to make intercession for them, and who, I trust, will not reject me, a returning penitent sinner, when I come to him for mercy. In this hope and confidence I render up my soul with humble beseeching the most blessed and glorious Trinity—one God most holy, most merciful and gracious—to prepare me for the time of my dissolution, and then to take me to himself unto that peace and rest and incomparable felicity which he has prepared for all that love and fear his holy name. Amen; blessed be God. Imprimis: I give my body to the earth from whence it was taken, in full assurance of its resurrection from thence at the last day; as for my burial, I desire it may be decent, at the discretion of my Executors hereafter named, who, I doubt not will manage it with all requisite prudence. As to my worldly wealth, I will and positively order that all my debts and funeral charges be paid and discharged by my Executors hereinafter named. First, I give bequeath, and devise to my eldest son, Henry Van Voorhees, his heirs and assigns forever, all that messuage, tenement, farm or parcel of land containing one hundred acres more or less, situate, lying and being in Rumbout Precinct in Duchess County, which I am now in possession of agreeable to a Deed from Johannes Van Voorhees, bearing date the 20th day of May, 1754; reference or relation to said deed being had, the corses and distances, boundaries and contents will at large appear. To have and to hold the said messuage or tenement, farm or parcel of land with the appurtenances, unto the said Henry Van Voorhies, his heirs and assigns forever. I also give, bequeath and devise to my said son Henry Van Voorhees, his heirs and assigns, one other piece or parcel of land containing forty acres, situate in Rumbout Precinct, in Duchess County, according and agreeable to a Deed from Francis Brett, bearing date the 29th day of December, 1767; reference unto said deed being had the corses, distances boundaries, and contents will at large appear. To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and premises, with the appurtenances, unto the said Henry Van Voorhees, his heirs and assigns forever. Also, I give and bequeath to my grandchildren, to wit: Samuel Van Voorhees and Sarah Van Voorhees, son and daughter of my daughter Sarah, deceased, one messuage, tenement, farm or lot of land containing one hundred and fifty acres, situate in Charlotte Precinct in Duchess County, in the lower Nine Partners, in lot Number Six, adjoining the farm of my daughter, being in length along my daughter Marys farm 78 chains and 15 links, and in breadth 20 chains. To have and to hold the said messuage, tenement, lot of land and premises, with the appurtenances; that is to say, the equal undivided half unto the said Samuel Van Voorhees, his heirs and assigns; the other equal undivided half unto the said Sarah Van Voorhees, her heirs and assigns. Also I give bequeath and devise unto my sons and daughters to wit: Catherina, Barbarah, Janetie, Henry, John, Mary, Helenah, and Zachariah, and to their heirs and assigns, all my right, title, and interest in the right formerly of my late wife Catherine, deceased, in undivided lands situate in the lower or great Nine Partners, which land is equally to be divided among them as to quantity and quality. To have and to hold to each and every one of them their one-eighth part thereof, and to each and every of their heirs and assigns. My will is likewise that such of my children as do not join for the defraying of all expenses necessary to procure and establish my said right to and in said undivided lands, their right or rights shall be forfeited to such of my children as advance the money. Further, my will is that the said undivided land shall be divided conformable to the intent and purpose of this my Will, both as to quantity and quality. Also, I give and bequeath unto my daughters in general, to wit: Catharina, Barbarah, Janetie, Mary and Helenah, and to my late daughter Sarah's two children, my two negro girls, by the name of Ann and Rose—that is to say, with this condition—that the two negro girls are willing to leave my son Henry Van Voorhees and his family; if not, to be appraised by my Executors, and according to said appraisement my son Henry Van Voorhees is to pay down in cash immediately, that my five daughters and grandchildren may have the use of the money, and the said money to be equally divided in six equal divisions, one sixth part to my daughter Sarah's two children, as hereafter shall be mentioned, and for what use applied. Also, I give and bequeath unto my daughters in general, to wit: Catherina, Barbarah, Janetie, Mary, and Helenah, and to my daughter Sarah's two children as aforesaid, the sum of Two hundred and fifty pounds; that is to say, Two hundred pounds due me from Joseph Horton, and fifty pounds due me from Daniel Van Voorhis, which sum or sums of money is to be equally divided in six equal divisions as aforesaid. Also I give unto my granddaughter Sarah Van Voorhees, one chest of drawers, now standing in my room. Also, all the rest and residue of my goods, chattels and personal estate whatsoever, I give and bequeath to my said son Henry Van Voorhees, and to his heirs and assigns. Also it is my will, and I do empower my Executors hereinafter named to let the farm or lot of land by me willed and given to my grandchildren, Samuel Van Voorhees and Sarah Van Voorhees, and the rent or rents thereof to be applied by my Executors to and for the maintainance, bringing up and education of the said Samuel and Sarah, and also his and her to wit: the said Samuel and Sarah, their dividend or portion of moneys by me willed and given, I do hereby empower my Executors to put said moneys out on use, and by my Executors to be also applied for the maintainance and education of said Samuel and Sarah. Should either die without issue, then I do order and it is my will, and I do give and bequeath such part or parts of land and tenements and moneys remaining, to my daughters in general, and to each and every of them, and to each and every of theirs and assigns, in five equal divisions. And lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my sons Henry Van Voorhees, John Van Voorhees, Zachariah Van Voorhees, and my sons-in-law Richard Van Wyck and Christian Dubois, to be my Executors of this my last Will and Testament ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament.

e. Johannis, b. June 7, 1738; d. (Will proved Sept. 28, 1804); m. (license dated Apr. 15, 1762) Johanna, dau. of Johannes Rowe, of Duchess Co., N. Y., b. ; d. , 1809. He resided first in the vicinity of Fishkill, Duchess Co., N. Y., but removed about the year 1785 to New York City. His Will, dated July 4, 1804, proved Sept. 28, 1804, recorded in the Surrogate's Office in New York City in Liber 45, p. 246, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Johannis Van Voorhis, of the City, County, and State of New York, being weak in body, but of sound mind and memory—blessed be God—calling to mind the uncertainty of this life, do make, publish, and declare this to be my last Will and Testament in manner following, revoking and disallowing all former Wills; that is to say, I give my body to the earth from whence I received it, in full assurance of its resurrection at the last day, to be buried in a christianlike manner, at the discretion of my Executors hereinafter named. Imprimis: I give my soul to God who gave it me, in full assurance of his gracious acceptance, through the merits of my most compassionate Saviour, Jesus Christ. As for my worldly wealth wherewith it has pleased God to bless me, it is my will and I do positively order that my just debts and funeral charges be paid by my Executors as soon as convenient after my death out of my estate. Firstly, it is my will, and I do give, devise and bequeath unto my loving wife Johannah, in lieu of her dower, the full use and benefit of all my estate, real and personal, remaining after my just debts are paid, during the time of her widowhood. Secondly, It is my will and I do order that after the remarriage or decease of my wife Johannah, all my estate, real and personal, be sold by my Executors, and the monies arising from said sale be distributed in manner following, that is to say: I give, devise and bequeath unto my daughter Titia Two hundred and fifty dollars, before any division is made of the aforesaid monies. Thirdly, I do give, devise and bequeath the remainder of the monies as aforesaid unto my seven children, Sarah, Titia, Catherine, Coert, Henry, Johanna, and Elsie, to be divided between them, share and share alike; and in case either of my said children should die leaving issue, that my grandchild or grandchildren shall come in and be entitled to the share of their father or mother, as the case may be. Lastly, I do hereby constitute, ordain, and empower my loving wife Johannah, and my son Coert Van Voorhis, and my nephew John H. Van Beuren, to be the sole Executors of this my last Will and Testament ratifying, confirming and declaring this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, I have set my hand and seal this fourth day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and four.

JOHN VAN VOORHIS. [L.S.]

"Witnesses, David Cloyd, James Pike, Gideon Martin."

Estate of Johannis Van Voorhis, deceased. Letters Testamentary, dated Dec. 8, 1812, recorded in the Surrogate's Office in New York City, in Liber 50, p. 362, were granted to Coert Van Voorhis, the surviving Executor, the widow Johanna being at this date deceased.

He resided at Fishkill, N. Y., and wrote his name Johannis Van Voorhees Junior. His widow married Lewis Du Bois, of Duchess Co., N. Y. His Will, dated Jan. 27, 1746, proved April 5, 1750, recorded in the Surrogate's Office of the City and County of New York in Liber 18, p. 91, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. The twenty-seventh day of January, in the twentieth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord, George the second of Great Brittain, Anno Dom' 1746, I, Johannis Van Voorhees Junior, of Rombout Precinct, in Duchess County, sick and weak in body, but of good and in perfect memory—thanks be to the Almighty God therefor—do make this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, that is to say: First, I recommend my soul unto the Almighty God who gave it and my body to the earth, to be buried in such decent and christianlike manner, and in such place as by my Executors hereafter named shall be thought fit and expedient, hoping for a glorious resurrection at the last day. Imprimis, It is my will that all my just debts and funeral charges be first paid, and then I do give, grant, devise and bequeath unto my loving wife Garretje the two hundred acres of land joining to my brother Coort's land, with all the improvements thereon, house and barn and orchard, as long as she remains in this life, and also the moveables of my estate as long as she remains my widow; but when she comes to marry again, the moveables or personal estate all to be given to my daughters at the time when they come of age or come to marry; and I give to my son Johannes one hundred and fifty and five acres of my woodland, and I give to my son Elias one hundred and forty and five acres of my woodland, to his heirs and assigns; and my son Johannes and my son Elias to divide the said land according to quantity and quality and my daughter Barbaretie, and my daughter Catrena, and my daughter Sarah, and my daughter Jannetie, all to have an equal share of my moveable estate; and if any one of my children should come to die without having any heirs, then that share to become an equal share among the rest; and any other children that I shall procure from my said wife shall have their share as much in valley as any of the rest of my children which I have mentioned, in the two hundred acres of land, with the improvements, after my wife's decease, and all my children which I have mentioned shall have an equal share in the two hundred acres which I give to my wife, after her decease; and if any come to die without having any heirs, then that to become an equal share among the rest. Hereby I make and ordain my loving wife Garritje, and my brother Coort Van Voorhees, and my brother-in-law Thunis Van Benschouten, my Executors of this my last Will and Testament. In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year above written.

JOHANNIS VAN VOORHEES, Jr. [L. S.]

"Sealed and signed in the presence of us John Brinkerhoff, Catryna Van Voorhees, Jannetje Brinkerhoff."

Gerritje Van Benschouten, widow of Johannis Van Voorhees, Junior, married Lewis Du Bois; thereupon letters of administration, with the Will annexed, were granted to Teunis Van Benschouten and Gerrit Du Bois, dated Feb. 1, 1756, recorded in the Surrogate's Office of the City and County of New York, in Liber 18 of Wills, p. 370.

He inherited from his father, and resided on, a farm of one hundred and fifty-five acres of land at Fishkill, N. Y. He wrote the family name "Van Voorhis."
Had children:

A. William Roe, b. Nov. 10, 1764; d. Nov. 2, 1828: m., May 12, 1788, Rachel, dau. of Isaac Vail, of Fishkill, N. Y., b. June 1, 1767; d. June 12, 1845.
He resided all his life at Fishkill Village, and was a prominent man in the affairs of both the town and the Dutch Church in that village. From the records of the Church it appears that he was elected deacon for the years 1807, 1808, 1811, 1812. He held the commission of Major in the 149th Regiment of N. Y. S. Infantry during the war of 1812, and was with his regiment encamped at White Plains, N. Y., for some time. In personal appearance he was of commanding presence, being nearly six feet in height and of large and well-built frame. He was of a genial and kindly disposition and especially fond of children, and was a great favorite among the young people of the village. He was also noted for his unbounded hospitality, and his house was constantly filled with visitors from among his friends and kindred.
Had children:

I. Isaac, b. Feb. 22, 1790; d. Aug. 15, 1812, unmarried.
He was a surgeon in the United States Army, and was killed by the Indians at the massacre of

He resided at Fishkill, N. Y., until about 26 years of age. He held the commission of Ensign in the 149th Regiment of N. Y. S. Infantry during the years 1813, 1814, 1815, of which regiment his father was Major. In the year 1817 he entered business in New York City, and was engaged in the dry-goods business both in New York and Savannah, Ga., until the year 1830, when he entered the wholesale oil business in New York City, from which he retired in 1858. From 1848 to 1859 he resided at Jamaica, L. I., in the Reformed Dutch Church of which place he was for many years an Elder. In 1859 he removed to 129 East 36th Street, New York City, where he resided at the time of his death, in 1869.

He resided at Fishkill, N. Y. His Will, dated Jan. 27, 1783, proved Feb. 27, 1784, recorded in the Surrogate's Office of the City and County of New York, in Liber 36, p. 410, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Zacharias Van Voorhis, of Rombout Precinct, in Duchess County in the State of New York, Yeoman, in health and of sound memory—blessed be God therefor—do this 27th day of January, in the year of our Lord Christ, One thousand seven hundred and eighty three, make and publish this my last Will and Testament, in manner following, that is to say, Imprimis: I commend my soul into the hands of Almighty God, and my body to the earth from whence it came, in the hope of a joyful resurrection at the last day; and as for that worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me, after payment of my just debts and funeral expenses by my Executors hereinafter named, I give, devise and dispose thereof as followeth. Item, I give, devise and bequeath unto my well beloved nephew, Henry Van Voorhis, son of my brother Coart Van Voorhis, one half of my farm whereon Abraham Van Voorhis now lives, to him and his heirs and assigns forever; also my gun and one of my best horses. Item: I give, devise and bequeath unto my well beloved nephew, John Van Voorhis, son of my brother John Van Voorhis, deceased, the other half part of my said farm whereon said Abraham Van Voorhis now lives, to him and his heirs and assigns forever; but it is my will, order and desire that when my farm as aforesaid is divided between my said nephews, Henry and John Van Voorhis, the strictest justice is to be done to each of them. Item: I give and bequeath unto my well beloved nephew Jacob Van Voorhis, son of my brother Jacob Van Voorhis, deceased, my farm whereon I now live, supposed to contain four hundred acres, together with my dwelling house and outbuildings thereon, to him and his assigns forever, as also all my personal estate, save only one of my best horses and gun to Henry Van Voorhis, son of Coart Van Voorhis. As such of my negroes as are hereafter named, are immediately after my decease to be made free; and moreover it is hereby perfectly to be understood that for and in consideration of my giving, devising and bequeathing unto my said nephew, Jacob Van Voorhis as aforesaid all my farm whereon I now live, with my personal estate, subject to the above exceptions, my order, will and desire is that my said nephew Jacob Van Voorhis, pays or causes to be paid the following sums of money, in gold and silver, to the persons hereafter named. Item: I give and bequeath unto my well beloved nieces, Katherine and Jane Van Voorhis, daughters of my brother Jacob Van Voorhis, deceased, six hundred pounds in gold and silver, to be raised and levied out of the farm whereon I now live and my personal estate, and to be paid unto the said Katherine and Jane Van Voorhis in twelve months after my decease, which sum of money as aforesaid is to be equally divided between them, their heirs and assigns forever. Item: I give and bequeath unto my well beloved nephew, John Van Voorhis, son of my brother Jacob Van Voorhis, deceased, the sum of three hundred pounds, to be paid to him, the said John Van Voorhis, in twelve months after my decease, which sum of money is to be raised and levied out of the farm whereon I now live and out of the personal estate, and to be paid to him, the said John Van Voorhis, his heirs and assigns forever. Item: I give and bequeath unto my loving sister Jannetje Brinkerhoff, the sum of three hundred pounds, to be paid to the said Jannetje Brinkerhoff in two years after my decease, out of the farm whereon I now live and out of my personal estate. Item: I give and bequeath unto my well beloved nephew Zacharia Van Voorhis, son of my brother Coart, and my godson, the sum of one hundred pounds, to be paid unto him, the said Zacharia Van Voorhis in three years after my decease, out of the farm whereon I now live, and my personal estate, to him his heirs and assigns forever. Item: I give and bequeath unto my brothers and sisters children not heretofore mentioned the sum of two hundred and forty pounds, which sum of money is to be paid them out of my farm whereon I now live and my personal estate, in four years after my decease, which sum of money, as aforesaid, is to be divided equally between them, their heirs and assigns forever. Item: I give unto my negro men, Mink, Henry, and Sam, and my negro wench Massey, their full and entire freedom, to come and go, act and do whatever is lawful for the support or maintenance of themselves; moreover my will order, and desire is that when my negroes as aforesaid have their liberty, it is not my intention to throw them adrift, whereby I am now instigated, but that I may commemorate their faithful services to my own person and interest, my Executors are to oversee them for good and help them in case any person or persons should aim to cheat or defraud them of their earnings. It is also my particular desire that, as soon as my body is decently interred, that my said Executors will please to order my said negroes into that appartment in my house where I died, and there in the most solemn manner proclaim to them their freedom and my desire that they will strive to live soberly and righteously and godly; with respect to my negro children, namely Charles, Nick, Tom, Abe, and Peg, it is my will, order and desire that my said Executors put them out to such of my relatives as in the opinion of said Executors will use them well and will engage to teach or cause them to be taught to read the Scriptures, until such time as they arrive of lawful age, when my said negro children as aforesaid are to have their freedom. With regard to my other negroes, to wit, Peter, Tone, and Mary, I give and bequeath them to my affectionate and loving nephew Jacob Van Voorhis, son of my brother Jacob Van Voorhis, deceased, to him and his heirs and assigns forever. Lastly, I do by these presents nominate, constitute and appoint my said nephews Henry Van Voorhis, son of Coart Van Voorhis, Jacob Van Voorhis, son of Jacob Van Voorhis, deceased, and John Van Voorhis, son of John Van Voorhis, deceased, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former and other Wills and Testaments heretofore by me made, ratifying and confirming this, and no other, to be my last Will and Testament.

"In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written.

"Signed, sealed, published and delivered by the testator, Zacharias Van Voorhis, as and for his last Will and Testament, in the presence and hearing of us the subscribers, who subscribed our names in the presence of the testator and at his request.

"Be it remembered that before the ensealing of this my last Will and Testament, the words 'and gun,' 'be,' 'them,' were interlined and that the reason why I have given the greatest share of my estate to my nephew Jacob Van Voorhis, son of my brother Jacob Van Voorhis, deceased, is because I and said Jacob Van Voorhis' father got the greatest part of our estate in partnership. The first attempt at signing, there was not room therefor, the second was done in the presence of us the witnesses. ZACRIAS VAN VOORHIS. [L. S.]

"In the name of God, Amen, I, Jacob Van Voorhis, of the City of New York, merchant, being at present in good health and of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, thanks be to God for the same, but considering the uncertainity of this life and the certainity of death, do make my last Will and Testament, as follows: First, my will is that all my just debts and funeral charges be paid as soon as conveniantly may be after my decease. Secondly, I give to my two sons Jacob and John, all my wearing apparel. Thirdly, I give to my two daughters Gertrude and Jane, all the wearing apparel that belonged to their mother. Fourthly, I give, devise and bequeath one-sixth part of all the rest residue and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, unto my wife Sarah, her heirs and assigns forever, in bar and satisfaction of her right of dower; one other one-sixth part thereof I give, devise and bequeath unto my said son Jacob, and to his heirs and assigns forever; one other one-sixth part thereof I give, devise and bequeath unto my said son John, and to his heirs and assigns forever; one other one-sixth part thereof I give, devise and bequeath unto my said daughter Gertrude, and to her heirs and assigns forever; one other one-sixth part thereof I give, devise and bequeath unto my said daughter Jane, and to her heirs and assigns forever; and the remaining one-sixth part thereof unto my said wife's daughter, Cornelia White, and to her heirs and assigns forever; and if any or either of my said children should die under age or unmarried, the part and share of such child or children so dying shall go to, and be equally divided among, the survivors of my said children, their heirs and assigns forever. And my will is that my said wife Sarah shall have and receive the rents, profits and interest of my said estate until my youngest surviving child arrives to the age of twenty one years, if my said wife shall so long live and continue my widow, for the support and maintenance of herself and her said daughter and my said four children, and that a division of my estate be made when my youngest surviving child arrives to the age of twenty one years, or upon the death or marriage of my said wife, whichever shall first happen; and in order that an equal division may be made I empower and authorize my Executors and the survivors and survivor of them to sell all my Real Estate at such times and in such manner as they may think proper. And lastly, I nominate and appoint my said wife Sarah and my two sons, Jacob and John, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, and I hereby revoke all former Wills by me made and declare this to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the first day of September, in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and seventy five. JACOB VAN VOORHIS. [L. S.]

(XVII. Eldert Lucasse Van Voorhees.)

He leased, May 4, 1674, for four years, of Cornelis Janse Boomgart his bouwery in Flatbush, L. I., as per Flatbush records, Liber C., p. 110. He bought, May 19, 1692, of William Creed, forty acres of land at Jamaica, L. I., on the Brooklyn and Jamaica Turnpike and Eldert's Lane, as per Queens' Co. Conveyances, Liber A., p. 61, on which he settled, having previously in 1684 purchased a house and lot in the village of Jamaica. On the assessment rolls of Flatlands, of 1676. His descendants dropped the family name "Van Voorhees" and adopted and used that of "Eldert," and are numerous in Queens Co., L. I. His Will, dated Feb. 23, 1714, proved Apr. 17, 1722, recorded in the Surrogate's Office, New York City, Liber 9, p. 291, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. The three and twentieth day of February, in the year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and fourteen—fifteen, I Eldert Lucassen of Jamaica, in Queens County, on Nassau Island, being at present of perfect mind and memory—thanks be to Almighty God therefor—calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to dye, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say: Principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hands of God that gave it, and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in decent christian burial at the discretion of my Executors, nothing doubting but at the General Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the power of God: and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form. Imprimis, I give and bequeath to Styntje my dearly beloved wife, all and singular, my whole estate of houses and barnes, lands, meadows, situate, lying and being in the township of Jamaica abovesaid, whereof I and my son Lucas Eldertson are now possessed, for her to have and to hold all the said estate, with the rights, liberties, privileges, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any ways appertaining, for and during her natural life or until her remarriage, and I also give and bequeath to my said loving wife all my goods and chattels, rights and credits, for and during her natural life or until her remarriage, and the furniture thereunto belonging to her, and her own choice of linnen and woolen belonging to her own body she shall retain to herself during life. Item, It is also my will and order that immediately after my said loving wife's remarriage or decease, my old farm whereon I and my son Lucas Eldertson now live, with the several wood lots of land lying behind the land of Theodore Polhemius, as also the just half of all that meadow upon Oldfield's Neck, so called, shall be unto him my said son Lucas Eldertson, and to the lawful heirs of his body. Item, It is also my will and order that my son Lucas Eldertson above named, his heirs, executors or administrators, shall pay or cause to be paid unto his three sisters by name Anne Eldertson the wife of Hans Bergen, Rachel Eldertson the wife of Adam Smith and Egbertie Eldertson the wife of Abraham Covert, unto them and each of them, their heirs, executors or administrators, the just and equal third part of Three hundred and fifty pounds lawfull money of New York, that is to say, in two payments, viz, the first payment within one year after my decease, and the other half the year following. Item, I give and bequeath to my grandson Johannis Eldertson son of my son Johannis Eldertson, deceased, late of Fosters Meadow, in Queens County all that messuage of tenement whereof my said son dyed possessed of, unto my said grandson Johannis Eldertson his heirs and assigns forever: and my said grandson Johannis Eldertson shall pay or cause to be paid to his sister, Grace by name, daughter of my said son Johannis, the full and just sum of Fifty pounds lawful money of New York at the time when she shall come of lawful age. Item, I give and bequeath to my son Hendrick Eldertson his heirs and assigns forever all that tract or piece of land situate, lying and being in the township of Flatbush in Kings County, containing forty acres, be it more or less, whereof my said son is now in possession, with all the common woodland, which I have in the township of Flatbush abovesaid, as also those six lots of land in Queens County lying at the East side of the spring, with the equal half of all my meadows upon Oldfields Neck, so called, with all the liberties and privileges thereunto belonging or in any ways appertaining to have and to hold all the said lands and meadows unto my said son Hendrick Eldertson, his heirs and assigns forever. Item, I give and bequeath all my goods and chattels, rights and credits, either within the Colony of New York or elsewhere unto my six children by names, Lucas, Johannis my grandson, Hendrick, Anne, Rachel, and Egbertje, unto them their heirs, executors and administrators, each of them an equal proportion, but I give to my eldest son Lucas Eldertson, Twenty shillings lawful money of New York, out of the whole before any division is made, for his birthright; and no division shall be made of said goods and chattels, rights and credits, until the remarriage or decease of my said loving wife, and my granddaughter Grace above named shall have the fourth part of the portion of my grandson Johannis of the goods and chattels, rights and credits abovesaid: but if it shall happen that my said grandson Johannis Eldertson dyes without issue, that then all that inheritance which I have bequeathed to him, shall be for my abovesaid five children, each of them an equal portion: and I give all my cloaths of linnen and woolen to my three sons by names, Lucas Eldertson, my grandson Johannis Eldertson, and Hendrick Eldertson to be divided amongst them immediately after my decease, and all the cloaths of linnen and woolen belonging to my said loving wifes body I give to my three daughters above named to be equally divided amongst them immediately after my said loving wifes decease. Item, it is my will and order that my negro man, Piet by name, shall be to the use of my loving wife so long as she shall have a mind to have him, and when she has no longer a mind to have him, he shall be to that one of my abovesaid children as he then has a mind to live with, upon such a consideration as my abovesaid children can best agree, and I do constitute and appoint my loving wife Styntje to be whole and sole Executrix of this my last Will and Testament, and I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disannul all and every other former Testaments, Wills, Legacies, Bequests and Executors by me in any ways before named, willed and bequeathed, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written. It is a part of my Will and considered before signing and sealing, that if my said son Lucas will not have the said estate bequeathed to him upon the abovesaid terms, then it shall be to that child of mine abovesaid as will fullfill said terms.

He resided at Jamaica, L. I. His Will, dated Feb. 6, 1759, proved Dec. 12, 1768, recorded in the Surrogate's Office in New York City in Liber 26, p. 446, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Hendrick Eldert of Jamaica in Queens County in the Province of New York, Gentleman, being in perfect health of body and of sound mind, memory, and understanding, but considering the uncertainty of this transitory life, do make, publish and declare this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following,—to wit—Principally and first of all I give and bequeath my im mortal spirit to God who gave it, trusting in his mercy through the infinite merits and righteousness of his only son the Lord Jesus Christ for the free pardon of all my sins and eternal happiness in the world to come. My body I recommend to the earth to be decently interred in some convenient place at the discretion of my Executors hereafter named. And as to such temporal estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, will, devise and dispose thereof as followeth. First. I will and order that all my just debts (if any I shall owe) with my funeral charges shall be duly paid out of my estate by my Executors. Item, I give and bequeath unto Tryntie my dearly beloved wife the sole use and benefit of my whole dwelling house wherein I now live, with my barn, cow-yard, and garden, and so much fruit out of my orchard as she shall have occasion of: I further give unto my said wife two horses and my riding chair, and harness, two cows with pasture and fodder for the said horses and cows: and I will and order that my Executors provide the same in good order and season. I also give unto my said wife—to be provided ready to her hand by my Executors—sufficient meat, bread corn turned into flour, and firewood. I moreover give unto her my said wife, the sum of Ten pounds a year, yearly, to be paid unto her by my Executors. All which said priviledges, horses, cows, money and other thing and things above mentioned together also with my negro wench Peg, I give and bequeath unto Tryntie my said wife for and during the time she shall continue my widow and no longer. Item, I further give and bequeath unto my said wife all and whatsoever of bonds, money, house furniture or other things which she brought with her to me when I was married to her, to be disposed of to whom she pleaseth at her own will and pleasure, which with what I have above and before given and bequeathed unto her, shall be in lieu and in full of her right and title of dower of, in, to, and out of my estate. Item, I give unto my eldest son Johannes Eldert the sum of five pounds as and for his birthright. Item, I give and bequeath my negro man Demus unto such one of my children, be it son or daughter, with whom he shall most freely choose to live. Item, I give, devise and bequeath unto my two sons Johannes Eldert and Eldert Eldert, all and singular my lands, meadows, messuages and tenements, lying and being in Jamaica above said, and in Newtown, and in Kings County, or elsewhere, with the hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining and the reversions and remainders thereof, with their and every of their appurtenances, unto my said two sons Johannes Eldert and Eldert Eldert—in equal proportion as they shall agree to divide the same betwixt them—respectively, and to their several and respective heirs and assigns forever. In consideration of which devise so made to my said two sons as abovesaid I do will and order that they my said two sons do pay unto my daughters being five in number, viz, Styntie the now wife of John Munsey, Grietje the now wife of John Stephens, Margaret the now wife of Godfrey Heyn, Ann the now wife of Hendrick Emmans, and Mary the now wife of Rem Van Cleaf, the full sum of One thousand pounds current money of New York, which said sum of One thousand pounds I give and bequeath unto my said five daughters equally to be divided between them, to be and remain to them my said daughters respectively, and to their several and respective heirs forever: and I do will and order that the same be paid to them by my said two sons in manner and proportion following that is to say—twenty five pounds a year to each of them yearly and every year till the whole be paid; the first payment thereof to begin one year after my decease. Item, I give and bequeath my whole moveable and personal estate unto all my children, sons and daughters above named, equally to be divided amongst them including such of my moveable estate as I have above given unto my wife during her widowhood as abovesaid, so soon as her right shall cease thereunto by her death or remarriage which shall happen first. And lastly, I do nominate and appoint my said two sons Johannes Eldert and Eldert Eldert, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, and I do hereby revoke, disannul and make void all and singular other Wills, Testaments and Legacies whatsoever by me in anywise heretofore made and I do allow, publish and declare this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this sixth day of February in the year of our Lord Christ One thousand seven hundred and fifty nine. HENDRICK ELDERT. [L. S.]

"Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Hendrick Eldert as and for his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses thereto in the presence of the said testator and in the presence of each other. James Cebra, Benj'n Hinchman, John Hinchman.

"Queens County, ss: Be it remembered that on the twelfth day of December One thousand seven hundred and sixty eight personally came and appeared before me Henry Dawson, Surrogate of the said County, Benjamin Hinchman of said County, Gentleman, and being duly sworn, on his oath declared that he did see Hendrick Eldert sign and seal the within written instrument purporting to be the Will of the said Hendrick Eldert bearing date the sixth day of February One thousand seven hundred and fifty nine, and heard him publish and declare the same as and for his last Will and Testament. That at the time thereof, he the said Hendrick Eldert was of sound disposing mind and memory, to the best of the knowledge and belief of him the deponent and that his name subscribed to the said Will is of his own proper handwriting which he subscribed as a witness to the said Will in the testators presence; and that he the deponent saw James Cebra and John Hinchman the other witnesses to the said Will subscribe their names as witnesses thereto in the testators presence.

HENRY DAWSON, Surrogate."

   "In the name of God, Amen. The eighteenth day of January in ye year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and thirty two, I, John Van Voorhees of ye City of New Brunswick, in ye Eastern Division of ye Province of New Jersey, Yeoman, being sick and weak in body but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God therefore, calling unto mind ye mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, Do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say, Principally and first of all I give and recommend my Soul into ye hands of God that gave it, and my body I commit to ye earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executors hereinafter named, And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this life, I give devise and dispose of ye same in manner and form following, viz., Imprimis, My will and desire is that all my just debts and funeral charges be legally paid and discharged. Item, My will is that my loving wife Sarah live and continue on my plantation and that she may have and receive ye whole profit and advantage thereof to herself, to bring up my children with, until my son John shall arrive to ye age of one and twenty years, (in case she shall so long remain my widow) but in case she shall remarry before such time, then my will is that all my estate both real and personal, be sold by my Executors hereafter named and that they pay to my said wife thereout the sum of one hundred pounds which sum I hereby give to my said wife in lieu of her thirds, or dower. And further my will is that my said Executors after they have made sale of my estate as abovesaid that they put ye money out at interest for ye benefit of my children, and that they pay thereout to my son John ye sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, and to ye child of which my wife is now pregnant, if it lives and is a male, ye sum of one hundred pounds, but if a female, then my will is that the rest of ye money after ye said one hundred and fifty pounds paid to my son John, be equally divided amongst my said son John, and ye child my wife shall be delivered of, and my other three daughters, Anne, Sarah, and Eleanor, their said dividends to be paid them as they shall severally come to age or on their marriage days, which shall first happen, and in case any of them shall happen to die before their legacies shall become due, then my will is that such share shall be equally divided amongst those that shall survive. Item, My will further is that in case my wife remains my widow until my son John arrives to ye age of twenty one years, then upon my son John coming to such age, I hereby give, devise and bequeath to him, my said son John my said plantation and all other my estate real and personal to him, his heirs and assigns forever, on condition, that he shall maintain his mother thereon so long as she remains my widow or pay her thirty pounds per annum if they agree to live separate so long as she continues my widow, and in case she shall remarry after he comes into possession then to pay her one hundred pounds as aforesaid. And further my will is that he shall pay to ye child my wife is now pregnant of, if a male, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, by fifty pounds a year to be paid him yearly after he shall come to age, but if such child be a female, then I will that my son John shall give to her and my other three daughters Anne, Eleanor, Sarah, on their several days of marriage, a handsome portion suitable to ye estate as it shall be adjudged and thought proper by my Executors, with twenty pounds in money, to be paid to each of them within ye space of one year after their several marriages or in case they remain single women, then my will is that my said son John shall pay them ye sum of one hundred pounds apiece in such convenient time after my said son shall come to age, as my Executors shall think proper and appoint. Item, I hereby constitute, make, and ordain John Luykisse, John Schenck, Lucas Van Voorhees Junior, Minnie Van Voorhees, and Derryck Schuyler, Executors of this my last Will and Testament. And I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disannul all and every other former testaments, wills and legacies, bequests and Executors by me in any ways before this time willed and bequeathed, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written.

JOHANNIS VOORHEES. [L. S.]

"Signed, sealed, published, pronounced and declared by ye said John Voorhees as his last Will and Testament in ye presence of us ye subscribers. Cornelius Couenhoven, Aure Van Dorn, Robert Dodsworth.

"Be it remembered, that on this fourth day of December Anno Dom. One thousand seven hundred and thirty four, personally came and appeared before me William Madock, Surrogate of ye County of Monmouth duly commissioned and appointed for ye proving of last Wills and Testaments in ye said County, Cornelius Couenhoven and Aure Van Dorn, two of ye witnesses subscribed to ye within Will, who on their solemn oath which they took on ye Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, do depose that they were present and saw ye within Johannis Voorhees sign and seal and heard him publish, pronounce and declare ye within written Instrument to be his last Will and Testament and that at ye doing thereof ye Testator was of sound mind and memory to ye best of their knowledge and understanding and that at ye same time Robert Dodsworth ye other subscribing witness was present.

He resided first at Flatlands, L. I., and afterwards at New Brunswick, N. J. His Will, dated May 10, 1783, proved Jan. 16, 1784, recorded in the Office of the Secretary of State of New Jersey, in Liber 26, p. 235, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. I Luke Voorhees of the City of New Brunswick, County of Middlesex and State of New Jersey, being in perfect health and sound mind do make this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, Imprimis, I give and bequeath unto my grandson John Voorhees the sum of thirty pounds to be paid to him by my Executors hereinafter named when he shall arrive to the age of twenty one years, And I also give and bequeath unto the said John Voorhees my Chest, large Table, and Looking Glass; And the residue and remainder of my estate I will and do hereby expressly order and direct that the same be divided in four equal parts as follows, One fourth part to my daughter Aeltje, the wife of Abraham Schuyler, One fourth part to my daughter Catlina, the wife of Mathew Egerton, One fourth part to be equally divided amongst the three daughters of my daughter Maria deceased, Jane the wife of Peter Kinan, Mary the wife of John Smith, and Catherine, share and share alike, and One fourth part to be equally divided between my aforesaid grandson John Voorhees and his sister Rachel. And as to my wearing apparel and linen of what kind soever, I will as equal as may be, divided into four parts, to my daughters Aeltje and Catlina, each a fourth part, and to the three daughters of my daughter Maria, and the two children of my son Luke deceased, John Voorhees and his sister, also a fourth part. And lastly I do hereby appoint my son-in-law Abraham Schuyler, and William Van Deursen, both of the City of New Brunswick, to be Executors to this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other Wills by me heretofore made. In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this tenth day of May in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and eighty three. LUCAS VOORHEES. [L.S.]

"Signed, sealed, published, pronounced and declared this to be my last Will and Testament, in the presence of us the subscribing witnesses. Peter Vredenburgh Junior, John Lyle Junior, George Hance.

"Peter Vredenburgh and George Hance witnesses to the within Will being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, depose and say that they saw Lucas Voorhees the Testator therein named sign and seal the same and heard him publish, pronounce and declare the within writing to be his last Will and Testament, and that at the doing thereof the said Testator was of sound and disposing mind and memory as far as the deponents know and as they verily beleive, and that John Lyle Junior the other subscribing evidence was present at the same time and signed his name as witness to the said Will together with the deponents in the presence of the said Testator.

"Sworn at New Brunswick, the 16th day of January 1784, before me ROBERT HUDE, S. S.

"The foregoing Will being proved, Probate was granted by His Excellency William Livingston Esqr, unto Abraham Schuyler and William Van Deursen Executors in the within Will named, they being first duly sworn well and truly to perform the same, exhibit a true and perfect Inventory and render a just and true account when thereunto lawfully required.

"Given under the Prerogative Seal the day and year above-said. BOWES REED, Reg'r."

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Roelof Voorhees of Flatlands, in Kings County, and Province of New York, being through the abundant mercy of God, of a sound mind and understanding and memory—thanks be given unto God therefor—calling unto mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say: Principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hands of God that gave it, and my body I recommend to the earth from whence it was taken to be decently interred at the discretion of my Executors, nothing doubting but I shall receive the same again at the General Resurrection by the mighty power of God: and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this world, I give, will, devise and dispose thereof in the following manner and form. Imprimis, It is my will and I do positively order that all my lawfull and just debts and funeral charges be duly paid and discharged by my Executors. Item, I give unto my son Peter Voorhees all my whole Estate both real and personal, for him to possess and receive the income thereof for the time or space of fifteen years after my decease. Item, It is my will

and I do positively order that all my whole estate both real and personal shall be sold by my Executors after the expiration of fifteen years after my decease, and I do hereby as far as in me lyeth give full power and lawful and absolute authority to my Executors hereafter named, to make sale thereof accordingly, and duly to execute good and sufficient deed or deeds in the law for the same, and all the moneys arising by the sale of my estate, I do order to be distributed by my Executors in manner following, that is to say: I give and bequeath unto the respective children of my son Peter Voorhees the sum of Two hundred and fifty pounds current money of New York, to be paid to them by my Executors. Item, I give and bequeath unto my grandchildren, the children of my daughters Maria, Deborah, and Dorothy, the sum of Two hundred pounds current money of New York to be paid by my Executors out of my estate, that is to say, the said sum of Two hundred pounds is to be divided among the children of each of said daughters. Item, It is my will and I do order that all the remainder of my estate shall be divided between my grandchildren aforesaid, that is to say, the children of my said son and daughters are to have an equal share in the rights of their father or mothers. Lastly, I do nominate and appoint my brother Abram Voorhees, and Jeromus Lott, to be Executors of this my last Will and Testament, allowing and declaring this to be my last Will and Testament, the eleventh day of April, 1782. ROELOF VOORHEES. [L .S.]

"Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Roelof Voorhees as his last Will and Testament in the presence of us the subscribers, Barent Johnson, Folkert Sprong, John Voorhees.

"City and Province of New York, ss.: Be it remembered that on the seventeenth day of April One thousand seven hundred and eighty two, personally came and appeared before me Cary Ludlow, Surrogate for the City and Province aforesaid, Folkert Sprong of Kings County, Yeoman, and John Voorhees of the same place, House carpenter, who being duly sworn on their oaths declared that they and each of them did see Roelof Voorhees sign and seal the annexed instrument in writing, purporting to be the Will of the said Roelof Voorhees bearing date the eleventh day of April instant, and heard him publish and declare the same as and for his last Will and Testament; That at the time thereof he the said Roelof Voorhees was of sound disposing mind and memory to the best of the knowledge and belief of them the deponents, that their names severally subscribed to the said Will are of their respective own proper hands writing which they subscribed as witnesses thereto in the testators presence, and that they the deponents likewise saw Barent Johnson the other witness to the said Will subscribe his name as a witness thereto in the testators presence. After leaving college he entered the law office of Lane & Wilson at Crawfordville, Indiana, as a student of law. The following Spring he settled at Covington, Indiana, and in April, 1852, he formed a law partnership with the Hon. Edward A. Hannegan, formerly United States Senator from Indiana. In June, 1853, he was appointed prosecuting attorney of the Circuit Court by Gov. Joseph A. Wright. In 1856 he was nominated by acclamation on motion of the Hon. John Pettit, as the Democratic candidate for Congress in his district, and was defeated by the Hon. James Wilson by a majority of only 230 votes. In November, 1857, he removed to Terre Haute, Vigo Co., Indiana, and in April, 1858, was appointed United States District Attorney by President James Buchanan. He was elected to represent his district in Congress in 1860, 1862, 1868, and 1870. In 1878 he was appointed by Gov. Williams, of Indiana, to fill the unexpired term of the late United States Senator Morton, and in 1879 was elected his own successor, and re-elected for a third term, Jan. 21, 1885, by a majority on joint ballot of 43, a majority unprecedented in the history of the State.

He resided first at Flatlands, L. I., and about the year 1720 removed to the vicinity of New Brunswick, N. J., in which year he and his wife were received as members of the Dutch Church of that locality on certificate. His Will dated Jan. 22, 1731, proved Dec. 2. 1734, recorded in the Office of Sec. of State, of N. J., in Liber C. p. 3, is as follows:

"In the Name of God, Amen, the twenty second day of January in ye fourth year of ye reign of our Sovereign Lord George ye second by the Grace of God of Great Brittain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c, Anno Dom' One thousand seven hundred and thirty one, I, Albert Van Voorhies of the Township of New Brunswick, in ye County of Middlesex, in ye Province of New Jersey, Yeoman, being of sound and perfect health of body, thanks be to Almighty God for ye same, and calling to mind the uncertain state of this transitory life and that all flesh must yield unto death when it shall please God to call, and being desirous to settle things in order, do make this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, revoking and absolutely annulling by these presents all and every Testament and Testaments, Will and Wills, heretofore by me made and declared, either by word or by writing, notwithstanding any promise to ye contrary or clause derogatory in ye same, and this to be only taken for my last Will and Testament and no other, And first I give and commit my Soul unto Almighty God hoping through the merits, death and passion of my Saviour Jesus Christ to have full and free pardon and forgiveness of all my sins and to inherit everlasting life, and my body to be buried in such place where it shall please my Executrix or Executors hereafter named to appoint. And now for ye settling of all my temporal estate and all such goods, chattels and debts as it hath pleased God, far above my deserts to bestow upon me, I do order, give and dispose ye same in manner and form following, that is to say, First I will that all those debts and duties as I owe in right or conscience to any manner of persons whatever shall be well and truly contented and paid or ordained to be paid within conveniant time after my decease by my Executrix or Executors hereafter named. Further I constitute, make, ordain and declare my dear beloved wife Catryntie Van Voorhies to be the only full and sole Executrix of this my last Will and Testament during her natural lifetime if she shall not intend and complete a second marriage, but if she should happen to marrie again or should happen to die then I will and do substitute, constitute, make, ordain and declare my two brothers Roelof Van Voorhies and Minne Van Voorhies to be Executors of this my last Will and Testament, which is as followeth—First, I will that after my decease my real estate shall be sold and my personal also, and ye money arising out of said sale, part of it shall be applyed to pay my debts and ye remainder of said money shall be put out upon interest for maintaining my said wife Catryntie Van Voorhies and all my children during her widowhood, but in case it shall so happen that my said wife shall re-marrie, then and in such case my said Executors do allow to my said wife Catryntie Van Voorhies to share equal with my children—that is to say—one childs part. Item, I will that after my debts are paid and my said wife, then the overplus of said money shall be equally divided amongst all my children, sheare and sheare alike, without any preference to male and female sexes. Item, I do will and direct that if it shall so happen that any of my said children shall depart this natural life without lawful issue or under age that ye portion of said deceased child shall devolve unto ye surviving children equally to be divided between them.

" In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal ye day and year first above written.

His Will, dated Aug. 25, 1783,

(XXVIII. ALBERT LUCASSE VAN VOORHEES.)

proved May 2, 1785, recorded in the Surrogate's Office in New York City in Liber 38, p. 7, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. The twenty fifth day of August One thousand seven hundred and eighty three, I, Adrian Voorhees of Flatbush, in Kings County, State of New York, Yeoman, being at present very weak in body but of perfect mind and memory,—thanks be given to God therefor —calling to mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say, Principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hands of God that gave it, and for my body I recommend it to the earth to be buried in a christianlike and decent manner at the discretion of my Executors hereafter mentioned, nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God: and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in manner and form following. Imprimis, It is my will and I do order that my lawful debts be paid and my funeral charges defrayed by my Executors hereinafter named before any division of my estate is made. Secondly, It is my will and order that my most beloved wife Adriantje, shall have the use and income of my whole estate both real and personal, during the time she remains my widow, for her support, and maintenance of my children, but if it should happen that she should remarry, in such case I give her the sum of two hundred pounds current money of New York, a bed, bedstead, and all the furniture thereunto belonging, a dutch cupboard, with all the linnen and woolen apparel, two negro wenches by name Sard and Sine, to her and her heirs and assigns forever. Thirdly, I give and bequeath unto my son Laurence Voorhees, and to his heirs and assigns forever all my real estate whatsoever I have in Flatbush in Kings County or elsewhere the same may be found, upon this condition, that he the said Laurence Voorhees or his heirs, shall pay unto my daughter Femmetje, and the children of my daughter Adriantje, by name Engelbert, and Phebe Lott, the sum of six hundred pounds current money of New York, one half of said six hundred pounds to my daughter Femmetje, and the other half unto Engelbert and Phebe when they attain the age of twenty one years respectively. Fourthly, I give and bequeath further to my son Laurence Voorhees and to his heirs and assigns the choice of three of my negroes before any division of them is made, and all my farming utensils, and all implements of husbandry, and all my horses and horned cattle (except four milch cows) and a bed, and bedstead, and all furniture thereunto belonging. Fifthly, I give and bequeath unto my daughter Femmetje the sum of two hundred pounds current money of New York when she marrys, and as much furniture as I bought for my daughter Adriantje, and two negro wenches, by name Maria and Rose, and also four milch cows. Sixthly, I give and bequeath unto my grandson Engelbert Lott a negro boy named Jack, and to his heirs and assigns forever. Seventhly, I give and bequeath unto my grand-daughter Phebe Lott a negro girl named Bet, and to her heirs and assigns forever. Eighthly, It is my will and express order that when the before mentioned legacies are paid and discharged, then I give the remainder of all my personal estate, what is not given and bequeathed, I give the same in manner and form following, that is to say, one third to my son Laurence Voorhees and to his heirs, one third to my daughter Femmetje Voorhees and to her heirs, one third to my grandchildren by name Engelbert Lott and Phebe Lott and to their heirs and assigns forever. Lastly, I do hereby nominate and appoint my loving wife Adriantje Executrix, and my son Laurence Voorhees, and my son-in-law Johannis E. Lott, and my friend Hendrick Suydam, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, and hereby revoking all former Wills and bequests, praying their care in this. In witness whereof, I the under named Adrian Voorhees have hereunto set my hand and seal the year and day above written.

" N. B. the name of 'Femmetje' first page, third line from bottom, and on page second, seventh line, said name of 'Femmetje' and the word 'new' on the ninth line, were all interlined before sealing. ADRIAEN VOORHEES. [L.S.]

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Albert Voorhees, of the County of Somerset, in the Province of New Jersey, Carpenter, considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, and being of sound and perfect mind and memory—blessed be Almighty God for the same—do make and publish this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, that is to say, First, I hereby revoke all former and other Will and Wills, Testament and Testaments heretofore by me made and declared, and commit my Soul into the hands of Almighty God, and my body I commit to the earth to be decently buried by and at the discretion of my Executrix and Executors hereinafter named, and that they as soon as conveniantly may be, pay my funeral charges and all my just and lawful debts. And for the disposing of such temporal estate which it has pleased God to bless me with, I do give, devise and dispose of the same in manner and form following, that is to say, Imprimis, I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Ariaantje, the use, wearing, full possession and enjoyment of, all and singular, my real and personal estate—after the debts, if any I have, be paid—and for the use and maintenance, for and during her natural life. And after her decease I do will and order that then all my real and personal estate shall be divided amongst all my sons and daughters or their lawful heirs, to wit, my five sons and three daughters named, John, Albert, Abraham, Jacobus, Roeloff, Femmetje, Elizabeth and Lena, and that in such a manner that my eldest son John shall first receive the sum of five pounds proclamation money over and above his dividend. After which the goods and chattels negroes, horses, cattle, and the plantation I now possess and live on, shall be sold or so managed among them that each child shall receive a one eighth part of the net proceeds of the amount of the real and personal estate to wit, John one eighth share or part, Albert one eighth, Abraham one eighth, Jacobus one eighth, Roeloff one eighth, Femmetje one eighth, Elizabeth one eighth, and Lena one eighth, share or part, which said shares or parts shall be divided and paid as soon as conveniantly may be after the death of my said wife Ariaantje. And lastly I do hereby make constitute nominate and appoint her, my said wife Ariaantje, together with my eldest son John, and my youngest son Roeloff, Executrix and Executors of this my last Will and Testament, desiring them to take upon them the execution thereof, and to see the same duly and truly performed.

"In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the nineteenth day of April in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and seventy four.

"Signed, sealed, published and declared by the before named Albert Voorhees to be his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses in the presence of the testator.

"Peter Loop, Jeromus Vanderbildt, Jacob Hassert.

"Peter Loop one of the witnesses to the within Will being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God deposed that he saw Albert Voorhees, the testator therein named sign and seal the same, and that at the doing thereof the said testator was of sound and disposing mind and memory, as far as he knew and as he verily believes, and that Jeromus Vanderbildt and Jacob Hassert, dec'd, the other subscribing evidences were present at the same time and signed their names as witnesses to the said Will together with this deponent in the presence of the said testator.

"Sworn at New Brunswick, 24th of March 1784, before me.

ROBERT HUDE. S. S.

"The foregoing Will being proved probate was granted by his Excellency William Livingston Esqr, unto John Voorhees and Roeloff Voorhees two of the Executors in the within Will named they being first duly sworn well and truly to perform the same, exhibit a true and perfect Inventory and render a just and true account when thereunto required.

"Given under the Prerogative Seal the day and year above-said. BOWES REED. Reg'r."

(XXIX. Roelof Lucasse Van Voorhees.)

"In the name of God, Amen, The sixteenth day of August in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and fifty, I, Roelof Voorhees, of the Corporation of New Brunswick, and in the County of Middlesex, in New Jersey, Yeoman, being very sick and weak in body but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be unto God therefore, calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say, principally and first of all I give and recommend my Soul into the hands of God that gave it, and my body I recommend to the Earth to be buried in a decent Christian burial at the discretion of my Executors hereafter named, nothing doubting but at the General Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God, and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form. Imprimis, after my lawful debts are paid and my funeral charges are defrayed, it is my will, and I give unto Margrieta, my beloved wife all the household goods which she brought to me when I was first married with her. Item, it is my will that my said beloved wife shall have the Room next the road until my youngest child be at lawfull age. Item, it is my will that my beloved wife and children shall live and be on my estate or plantation until the youngest child be at lawfull age. Item, it is my will that my son Johannis shall have all the care and management in order thereto, and that he shall have all the profit or issue of my Reall and Personall estate until my youngest child be of lawfull age in order thereto. It is my will that my said son Johannis shall give to my daughters Helena and Marya and Catlyna when they happen to marrey a deseant outset out of the inkreese or issue of my estate. Item, it is my will, that my said son Johannis shall pay to my beloved wife the sum of three pounds yearly and every year to the time that my youngest child is of lawfull age. Item, it is my will that after my daughter Catlyna is come to be of lawfull age that then all my reall and personall estate in the Corporation County and Province aforesaid or elsewhere that I now possess shall be sold amedetly, only it is my will and I give unto my son Luke my grate Dutch Bibel and the sum of twenty-five pounds for his birthright. Item, it is my will and I give unto my sons Gerrit and Roelof and Johannis all the rest of my books. Item, it is my will that my negro John shall have libberty to chuse to live by which child of myne he will, as they count him worth, to be equally devided amongst my said children. Item, it is my will after my estate is sold that my Executors shall pay to my beloved wife the sum of eighty pounds current money of this Province at eight shillings the ounce, which sum of eighty pounds I give unto her and her heirs and assigns forever, and that in lew of her dower. Item, I give unto my sons Luke and Gerrit and Roelof and Johannis the sum of two hundred pounds current money as it is aforesaid, and that they shere and shere alike, or each of them fifty pounds, and that before any division made, which said money their father received in their behalf of their grandfather Gerrit Stoothoff, deceased. Item, it is my will that after my said estate is sold and the above said sums paid, that all the rest of my estate shall be devided amongst my beloved children, namely, Luke, Gerrit, Roelof and Johannis and Johanna and Jannetje and Helena and Marya and Catlyna, and each of them an equal portion, that is shere and shere alike, which I give to each of them their heirs and assigns forever, but if any of my said children shall happen to dye under lawfull age without issue, that then the deceased's portion shall be equally devided among the survivors of my said children. And Lastly I do nominate and appoint my beloved sons Luke and Gerrit and Roelof and Johannis to be my sole Executors of this my last Will and Testament, and do utterly revoke, disallow and disannull all other Wills and Testaments by me, the said Roelof Voorhees heretofore made, ratifying and confirming this and only this to be my last Will and Testament.

"In witness whereof I, the said Roelof Voorhees have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year first above written.

ROELOF VOORHEES. [L.S.]

"Signed, sealed, and published, pronounced and declared by the said Roelof Voorhees as his last Will and Testament in the presence of us subscribers, Gerrit Voorhees, Joh's Martinus Van Harlingen Junior, Arnoldus Van Harlingen.

"Be it remembered that on the twenty fifth day of April in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and fifty one, before me Thomas Bartow duly authorized, personally came Johannes Martinus Van Harlingen Junr and Arnoldus Van Harlingen, two of the within witnesses who being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists, do depose that they were present and saw Roelof Voorhees the testator within named sign and seal the within written Will and heard him publish, pronounce and declare the same to be his last Will and Testsment, and that at the doing thereof he was of sound mind and memory to the best of their knowledge and as they verily believe, and that at the same time Gerrit Voorhees was present and signed as a witness as did they also sign as Witnesses in the testators presence. THOS. BARTOW.

" Be it also remembered that at the same time Luke Voorhees, Gerrit Voorhees, Roelof Voorhees and Johannis Voorhees the Executors within named came before me and were sworn to the due execution of this within Will according to law.

THOS. BARTOW.

" Probate granted by Gov'r Belcher in the usual form. Dated 25th April, 1751."

(XXIX. Roelof Lucasse Van Voorhees.)

N. J. His Will, dated Sept. . . , 1797, proved Dec. 26, 1807, recorded in the Office of the Surrogate of Somerset Co., N. J., in Liber A, p. 158, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. I John Voorhees of Bedminister, in the County of Somerset and State of New Jersey, being weak in body, but of sound and disposing mind and memory—thanks be given to God therefor—calling unto mind the mortality of my body, and knowing it is appointed for all men once to die, do this . . day of September in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety seven, make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament, in manner following, that is to say: Principally and first of all, I give and recommend my Soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it, and for my body, I recommend it to the earth, to be buried in a christianlike and decent manner, at the discretion of my Executors hereinafter named, nothing doubting but at the general resurrection, I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God. And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me with in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form. Imprimis, It is my will and I do hereby order and direct, that in the first place all my just debts and funeral charges be paid and satisfied by my Executors. Item, It is my will and I do hereby give and bequeath to my beloved wife Ann, all the goods and chattels which she brought with her at the time I married her which may remain on hand at the time of my decease, to hold to her and her heirs forever; and I do also give and bequeath to my said beloved wife Ann, all the use and emoluments arising from my lands and tenements, together with my personal estate, until my youngest son John arrives to the full age of twenty one years in order to enable her to educate and bring up my said youngest children. Item, It is my will and I do hereby give and bequeath to my three grandchildren John, Roeliph and Aultje, sons and daughter of my eldest son Roeliph deceased, equally, the sum of thirty five pounds, to be paid to them or to their heirs, within one year after my youngest son John arrives to the full age of twenty one years; and I also give to my said grandson John, my gun or firelock which is now at Schoharie, to be delivered to him at the time he arrives to full age, and over and above his share of the above the sum of thirty pounds. Item, It is my will and I do hereby give and bequeath to my eldest daughter Deborah, the wife of Ralph Phenix the sum of thirty pounds and also deliver to her over and above that sum one cow of the value of five pounds, to be paid and delivered to her or to her heirs within one year after my youngest son John arrives to the full age of twenty one years. Item, I do hereby give and bequeath to my daughter Catherine wife of Peter Dumont, the sum of thirty pounds to be paid to her or to her heirs, within one year after my said youngest son John arrives to the full age of twenty one years. Item, I do hereby give and bequeath to my daughter Anne the wife of James Andrews, the sum of thirty pounds, to be paid to her or to her heirs within one year after my said youngest son John arrives to the full age of twenty one years. Item, I do hereby give and bequeath to my youngest daughter Mary the sum of thirty pounds and also deliver to her over and above that sum my negro girl named 'Bet' to be paid and delivered to her or to her heirs within one year after my youngest son John arrives to the full age of twenty one years. The foregoing legacies shall be paid in the current money then passing in New Jersey. Item, It is my will and I do hereby give and devise to my two sons equally, Derrick and John, all the rest and residue of my estate whatsoever, both real and personal as coparceners, to hold to them my said sons Derrick and John, from and after the time that my said son John arrives to the age of twenty one years, and to their, and to each of their heirs, and assigns forever, yet nevertheless it is my will that my real estate be, and shall still remain subject to the payments of the several and respective legacies herein before bequeathed and ordered. Item, It is my will and I do hereby give and bequeath to my said two sons Derrick and John, all and every species of my clothing equally between them. And, Lastly, I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my loving wife Ann, Executrix, and Mathias Lane Junior, Executor, of this my last Will and Testament, hereby giving and granting to my said Executrix and Executor power to do all and every act, matter or thing, legally necessary to complete the execution of this my last Will and Testament, revoking and disallowing all former Wills by me heretofore made, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this day and year first above written.

JOHN VOORHEES. [L.S.]

"Signed, sealed, published, pronounced and declared by the said John Voorhees to be his last Will and Testament in the presence of us Robert Blair, John Voorhees, William Smith.

"William Smith, one of the witnesses to the within Will, being duly sworn according to law did depose and say, that he saw John Voorhees, the testator therein named, sign and seal the same, and heard him publish, pronounce and declare the within writing to be his last Will and Testament and at the doing thereof the said testator was of sound disposing mind and memory, as far as this deponent knows, and as he verily believes, and that Robert Blair and John Voorhees, the other subscribing witnesses were present at the same time, and signed their names together with this deponent, in the presence of the said testator. WILLIAM SMITH.

"Sworn before me Dec. 26, 1807, at Bridgewater.

JAS. DOTY, Surrogate."

XXX. Minne Lucasse Van Voorhees, child of Lucas Stevense Van Voorhees and Jannetje Minnes, and grandchild of Steven Coerte Van Voorhees, who emigrated from Holland in April, 1660, and settled at Flatlands, L. I., b. ; d. (Will proved Nov. 15, 1733); m. 1st, Apr. 25, 1717, Antie, dau. of Garret Pieterse Wyckoff, of Flatlands, L. I. and Catherine Nevius, b. Sept. 1, 1693; d. ; m. 2d, Lammetje, dau. of Gerrit Janse Stryker, of Flatbush, L. I., and Styntje Gerritse Dorland, and widow of John Wyckoff, of Six Mile Run, Somerset Co., N. J., bap. Nov. 23, 1684; d. (Will proved May 1, 1764).

He removed from Flatlands, L. I., to the vicinity of New Brunswick, N. J., where, in 1720, he owned a large tract of land on the south side of the Raritan River, including the Mills on Lawrence Brook. He was a member of the Dutch Church of New Brunswick in 1717. His Will, dated Sept. 20, 1733, proved Nov. 15, 1733, recorded in the Office of the Secretary of State of New Jersey in Liber B., p. 494, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen, the twentieth day of September in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and thirty three, I, Minne Van Vorhiuss being very sick and weak in body but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God therefore, calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing it is appointed for all men once to dye, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say, Principally and first of all I give and recommend my Soul into the hands of God that gave it, and for my body I recommend it to the earth to be buried in a Christianlike and decent manner at the discretion of my Executors nothing doubting but at the general Resurrection I shall recieve the same again by the mighty power of God. And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form, Imprimis, I give and bequeath unto Lammetje, my dearly beloved wife all the household goods, moveables, chattels, bonds and bills of sale, which came from her estate when I married her. Imprimis, it is my will and I do order that in the first place all my just debts and funeral charges be paid and satisfied. Imprimis, I give to my well beloved son Luykis ten pounds. Imprimis, It is my will and I do order that my lands be sold and all my household goods and chattels, and the money to be equally divided between my sons Luykis, Gerret, Minne, John, Abraham and my daughter Cattrena and the money to be put out till they come of age or marrie. Imprimis, It is my will that if any of the above named children should dye before they come of age or marrie, it is still to be divided among the survivors. I likewise constitute, make and ordain my Executors Albert Van Vorhuiss, Abraham Van Vorhuiss and Derrick Schuyler, of this my last Will and Testament: And I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disannull all and every other former testaments, wills, legacies and executors by me in any ways before this time named, willed and bequeathed, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year above written.

MINNE VOORHEES. [L.S.]

"Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Minne Van Vorhuiss as his last Will and Testament in the presence of us the subscribers (vizt) Hend'r Fisher, Reijek Sudaem, Peter Morn.

"Province of New Jersey, ss: Memorandum, that on the fifteenth day of November Anno Domini, 1733, came and appeared before Lawrence Smith, Surrogate of the Eastern Division of the Province of New Jersey, duly commissioned for the proving of Wills &c, Peter Morn one of the subscribing witnesses who on his solemn oath which he took on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, said that he was present and saw the within named Minne Voorhees sign and seal and heard him publish, pronounce and declare the within written to be his last Will and Testament, and at the doing thereof he was of sound mind and memory and understanding to the best of his knowledge and belief, and that he saw the other two subscribing witnesses sign the same in the presence of the testator. Jurat Coram me, LAWR' SMYTH.

"Be it remembered that on the fifteenth of November Anno Dom' 1733, personally came and appeared before me Lawrence Smyth Surrogate of the Eastern Division of the Province of New Jersey, commissioned for the proving of Wills and Testaments, and swearing Executors &c, Derrick Schuyler Executor in the within Will named and appointed, who being solemnly sworn upon the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, deposed that the within writing contains the true Will and Testament of Minne Van Voorhees the testator therein named as far as he knows and believes, and that he will perform the same by paying first the debts

He resided at New Brunswick, N. J., where all his children were baptized. His will, dated Apr. 15, 1776, proved Apr. 9, 1791, recorded in the Office of the Secretary of State of New Jersey in Liber 32, p. 444, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen, I, Lukies Voorhees of the City of New Brunswick in the County of Middlesex and Province of New Jersey, Joiner, being weak in body but of good and disposing mind and memory—thanks be to Almighty God for the same—do for the better settling of my estate and worldly affairs make this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following That is to say, First and principally I commend my Soul to God my Creator, My body I resign to the earth to be buried at the discretion of my Executors there to remain till the General Resurrection at the last day, when body and soul shall be united together, trusting in the merits of my Saviour Jesus Christ for Salvation and pardon of all my sins. Item, My will and desire is that my funeral expenses and all my just debts be paid with all convenient speed after my decease out of my personal estate which is to be sold (or as much thereof as need may be) for that purpose. Item, It is likewise my will and desire that my loving wife Catalyntje is to remain in possession of all my real and personal estate I may die possessed of (after my debts &c are paid) and the profits thence arising to be used for her maintenance until her death or as long as she may remain my widow, in either case, after which, it is my desire that the real and personal estate then remaining shall be sold and the moneys thence arising to be equally divided amongst my six children, to wit, Minne, John, Peter, Garret, Anne the widow of Jacob Hassert deceased, and Mary, share and share alike. And I do give power to my Executors hereinafter named, or to the survivors or survivor of them to sell the said real estate, receive the money and divide it as above. It is also my desire that my youngest son Garret be put under the care of my loving brother Garret Voorhees of Middlebush, in the County of Somerset, Blacksmith, to be by him brought up until he comes to the age of twenty one years. And I do nominate and appoint my loving wife Catalyntje and my trusty and loving brother Garret Voorhees to be the Executors of this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former Wills by me at any time heretofore made and I do declare this to be my last Will and Testament only. In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fifteenth day of April in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and seventy six, 1776. LUKE VOORHEES. [L.S.]

"Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above Testator to be his last Will and Testament in the presence of us the subscribers. William Van Deursen, Barent Stryker, John Henry.

"Barent Stryker and John Henry, two of the witnesses to the within Will being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, did severally depose and say that they and each of them saw Luke Voorhees the Testator therein named sign and seal the same and heard him publish, pronounce and declare the within writing to be his last Will and Testament and that at the doing thereof the said Testator was of sound and disposing mind and memory as far as these deponents know, and as they verily believe, and that William Van Deursen the other subscribing evidence was present at the same time and signed his name as a witness to the said Will together with these deponents in the presence of the said Testator.

"Sworn at New Brunswick, the 9th day of April 1791, before me JNO DEARE. Surrogate.

"The foregoing Will being proved, Probate was granted by his Excellency William Patterson Esquire, unto Catalyntje

He resided in Hillsborough Township, Somerset Co., N. J. His Will, dated June 7, 1779, proved Apr. 20, 1780, recorded in the Office of the Secretary of State of New Jersey in Liber 21, p. 124, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. This seventh day of June in the year 1779, I, Minne Voorhees of Hillsborough, in the County of Somerset and State of New Jersey, Yeoman being weak in body but perfect in mind and memory—thanks be given to God therefor—calling to mind the mortality of my body, and that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and constitute this my last Will and Testament, viz, I commit my Soul into the hands of Almighty God who gave it, and as touching my body I will that it be buried in a decent and christianlike manner according to the discretion of my

Executors, not doubting I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God at the General Resurrection, and as touching the worldly estate it has pleased God to bless me with, I give and devise in manner following. Imprimis, I will that all my just debts and funeral charges be paid out of my moveable estate. Secondly, I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Mary Voorhees a fourth part of my estate both real and personal in lieu of her dower or right of thirds, as also all the household furniture she brought me at our marriage or after—provided she should not be delivered of a son or sons, or a daughter or daughters at a reasonable time after my decease, in such case she is to share with my children, all share and share alike—But in case one or more of my children should die she is to have no more than a fourth part of my estate both real and personal in lieu of her dower or right of thirds. I also give her the priviledge of living in the house we now live in, as also the use and income of the farm or land we now possess, for the benefit and use of bringing up my children, during the time she remains my widow. But in case she gets married again, then my estate both real and personal is to be sold and she is to have her share as above ordered; But in case she does not get married again and the majority of my Executors should think it most advantageous for the use of my children to have my lands sold and my personal estate also, then they are hereby empowered to dispose of the same for the use and benefit of my wife and children. Unto my eldest son Garret Voorhees I give Ten pounds lawful money of New Jersey as his birthright, the remainder of my estate both real and personal and which is not willed away as above unto my wife Mary Voorhees, I give and bequeath unto him and his brother and sister, Arnoldus and Neeltie Voorhees, and in case there should be any more, for each share and share alike, the lands to be sold as above ordered, and in case any of them should die without lawful issue, then his or her share to be equally divided between brothers and sisters, and in case all my children should die without leaving lawful issue then their share is to go to my brothers and sisters children, each share and share alike. Lastly, I do appoint my beloved wife Mary Voorhees Executrix, and my beloved brother

(XXX. Minne Lucasse Van Voorhees.)

Roelof Voorhees and my beloved brother-in-law Johannes Van Harlingen, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me made and declaring this to be my last Will and Testament.

MINNE VOORHEES. [L.S.]

"Signed, sealed, published and declared by the Testator Minne Voorhees to be his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who subscribed our names as witnesses.

"Richard Hall, Hermanus Hoagland, Christopher Hoagland.

"Richard Hall, Hermanus Hoagland, two of the witnesses to the within Will being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, do depose and say that they saw the Testator therein named sign and seal the same and heard him publish, pronounce and declare the within writing to be his last Will and Testament and that at the doing thereof the said Testator was of sound and disposing mind and memory as far as they know and as they verily believe, and that Christopher Hoagland the other subscribing evidence was present at the same time and signed his name as witness to the said Will together with us in the presence of the Testator. Sworn at New Brunswick, the Twentieth day of April 1780, before me,

ROBERT HUDE. Surrogate.

"The foregoing Will being proved, Probate was granted by His Excellency Governor Livingston unto Mary Voorhees, Executrix, and Roelof Voorhees, Johannis Van Harlingen, Executors in said Will named, first having been duly sworn well and truly to perform the same, exhibit a true and perfect Inventory and render a just and true account when thereunto lawfully required.

"Given under the prerogative Seal the day and year aforesaid. BOWES REED. Reg'r."

He resided at Jamaica, L. I. His Will dated Nov. 12, 1757, proved Sept. 18, 1759, recorded in the Surrogate's Office, New York City, in Liber 21, p. 413, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. I Stephen Voorhees (commonly called and known by the name of Stephen Johnson), of Jamaica, in Queen's County in the Province of New York, Yeoman, being now, through God's goodness in good health of body and of sound mind, memory and understanding—thanks be to God therefor—do now make this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following (to wit) Principally and first of all, I give and bequeath my immortal spirit unto God who gave it, my body I recommend to the earth from whence it was taken to be buryed in a decent and christianlike manner by my Executors hereafter named, and as touching my temporal estate with which I am blessed in this life, I give, devise, bequeath and dispose thereof as followeth, viz.: First, I do will and order that all my just debts and funeral charges shall be duly paid out of my estate by my Executors as soon as conveniently may be after my decease. Item, I give and bequeath unto Sarah my dearly beloved wife all and whatsoever goods and other estate which she had or brought with her to me when I maryed her. I also give and bequeath unto her my said wife one of my best horses, and one of my best cows, and also the sum of Seventy pounds lawfull money of New York, in lieu and in full payment and discharge of one certain bond lately sealed and executed by me and delivered unto her in our marriage contract before

I marryed with her, conditioned for the payment of the said sum Seventy pounds at a certain time or times therein mentioned, and I do will and order that my said wife shall have the whole and sole disposal of all and whatsoever I have herein above given or bequeathed unto her to whomsoever she pleaseth, provided that she do surrender and give up to my Executors the said bond in order to be cancelled. And my will further is that she shall have the full possession and income of my whole real estate until the said Seventy pounds be paid unto her, unless my Executors and she can otherwise agree. And also I do will and order that all and whatsoever I have herein above given unto her my said wife shall be in lieu and in full of her right and title of dower of, in, to or out of, my estate: and further that upon the payment of the said Seventy pounds as aforesaid she shall quit, relinquish and deliver up the full and peaceable possession of all my real estate unto my Executors and have no further pretentions thereunto or to any part or parcel thereof, any thing herein to the contrary notwithstanding. Item, I give and bequeath my great cupboard now in my house to unto my daughter Annatie now the wife of Jonathan Pratt of Oysterbay. Item, My will is and I do order and require that as soon as the said Seventy pounds shall be paid or secured to my said wife by my Executors as aforesaid then my will is that all the rest and remainder of my moveable estate shall be by my Executors sold at publick vendue and turned into money, as also my whole real estate whatsoever or wheresoever, and I do authorize and fully empower my Executors or any two of them to make sale thereof accordingly and to seal and execute good sufficient deeds in the law to the buyer or buyers, his or their heirs and assigns in fee simple forever for the same. And my will is that after all the debts, the above mentioned legacies, and all the charges which shall accrue to my Executors in or about the executing this my last Will and Testament, are duly paid and discharged, that then the overplus of my estate shall be equally divided amongst all my children, sons and daughters share and share alike, namely, Cornelia now the wife of Lawrance Haff—William—John—Stephen—Cornelius—Roelof—Lucas and Annatie above named, all of which shall be and remain to them my said children respectively, and to their several and respective heirs, executors, administrators and assigns forever. And lastly, I do nominate and appoint two of my Imprimis, It is my will and I do order that in the first place all my just debts and funeral charges be paid and satisfied. Item, I give and bequeath unto Cornelia, my dearly beloved wife one bed and bedding complete for one bed, one spinning wheel, and one cupboard. Item, Then all the remainder of my estate not herein given and bequeathed, I do order to be sold by my Executors hereinafter named, both lands, meadows, messuages and tenements, within some conveniant time after my decease as they shall think conveniant, and the moneys arising from the same, after my just debts and all other unavoidable charges be paid and satisfyed, I do order to be equally divided between my wife and children, that is, Cornelia, my said wife, my daughter Catherine Vorhis, my son Stephen Vorhis, and my son Abraham Vorhis; but if any or either of my aforesaid children shall dye before they arrive to perfect age and leave no lawful issue, then his or their part of division to be equally divided between them that shall be alive; and if any of my children shall dye before they arrive to perfect age and leave lawful issue, then his or their part of the division to be to their issue. And I do herein authorize and empower my Executors hereinafter named to give good, sufficient deeds for my said lands and meadows such as the law requires of Executors. And Lastly, I do constitute, appoint, make and ordain Catherine Vorhis, my daughter, my cousin Simon Vorhis, and my cousin John Pratt, to be Executors of this my last Will and Testament, and I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disannul all and every other former testaments, wills, legacies and Executors by me in any ways before this time named willed and bequeathed, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, I the said Ruluf Vorhis have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year above written.

(XXXIII. STEPHEN JANSE VAN VOORHEES.)

He resided at Bushwick, Kings Co., L. I. His Will, dated Sept. 21, 1757, proved Mar. 17, 1761, recorded in the Surrogate's Office in New York City, in Liber 22, p. 506, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. I Lucas Vorhis of Bushwick in Kings County on Nassau Island, in the Colony of New York, Cordwainer, being at this time poorly in body, but of sound and perfect mind and memory—blessed be God for the same—think it dutiful to set my house in order, do make ordain and constitute this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, First and principally, I commend my precious soul into the hands of a merciful God my Creator, and my body to the earth from whence it was taken to be buried at the discretion of my Executors hereafter to be named, and as touching such temporal estate which the Lord, far above my deserts, hath been pleased to bestow upon me, I give and grant and bequeath and devise in the following manner and form. Imprimis, I will and order that all such debts which I owe in law or conscience to any person or persons whatsoever, together with my funeral charges be paid by my Executors within some convenient time after my decease. Item, I give unto my Executors hereafter to be named full power and authority to sell and dispose of my real estate both lands and meadow land, and to give deeds of conveyance for the same: my house and homestead, part lying in Bushwick abovesaid, and part in the township of Newtown, my woodlands lying in Newtown abovesaid, and my meadow lying in Plunders Neck on the south side, all to be sold to answer my debts, and if my lands will not answer my debts, to sell so much of my moveable estate to answer the same. Item, I will that my wife Mary Vorhis shall have what she brought with her, and also what else of my moveable estate as she sees needful to keep house with, for what she brought with her I give to her, her heirs and assigns forever, but for the rest of the things to be valued by my Executors and to go as part of her part which is to be hereafter ordered. Item, I give, grant and bequeath the remainder of my estate to be equally divided amongst my wife and children when they my children come to age, and my wife to have the use or interest of the same to bring up my children, and if that will not do, to take part of the principal. Lastly, I nominate, constitute and appoint my said wife Mary Vorhis, Executrix, and my beloved brothers-in-law Stephen Vorhis and Ruluf Vorhis, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, to fullfill, execute and perform the same according to the true intent and meaning thereof. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty first day of September, in the thirty first year of his Majesties Reign, and in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and fifty seven. LUCAS VORHIS. [L.S.]

"Signed, sealed, published, pronounced and declared by the said Lucas Vorhis as his last Will and Testament in the presence of us the subscribers, Nicholas Lefferts, Yakobys Kalyer, Philip Edsall.

"City of New York, ss: Be it remembered that on the seventeenth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and sixty one, personally came and appeared before me Goldsbrow Banyar thereunto duly authorized, Nicholas Lefferts of Kings County, Farmer, and being duly sworn, on his oath declared that he did see Lucas Vorhis sign and seal the within written instrument purporting to be the Will of the said Lucas Vorhis, bearing date the twenty first day of September One thousand seven hundred and fifty seven, and heard him publish and declare the same as and for his last Will and Testament, that at the time thereof he the said Lucas Vorhis was of sound disposing mind and memory to the best of the knowledge and belief of him the deponent, and that his name subscribed to the said Will is of his own proper handwriting which he subscribed as a witness to the said Will in the testators presence, and that he the deponent saw Jacobus Kalyer and Philip Edsall the other witnesses to the said Will subscribe their names as witnesses thereto in the presence of the testator.

Remson, of Flatbush, L. I., and is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen, The seventeenth day of November in ye year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and seventy, I Roelof Voorhees of Flatlands, in Kings County, Yeoman, being of perfect health of body and of sound mind and memory—blessed be his name therefor—but calling to mind that it is appointed for all men once to dye, and that it behooveth every man to settle his worldly estate in ye best manner he can, so that no difference may arise about ye same after his decease, do make this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following—Principally and first of all I give and recommend my Soul unto ye hands of God that gave it, and for my body I recommend it to ye earth, to be buried in a christianlike and decent manner at ye discretion of my Executors, nothing doubting but at ye General Resurrection I shall receive ye same again by ye mighty power of God, and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give devise and dispose of ye same in ye following manner and form, Item, My will is and I do order that my just debts and funeral expenses be honestly paid by my Executors as soon as conveniantly may be after my decease out of my personal estate. Item, I give and bequeath unto my two daughters Femmetje, widow of John Ditmars deceased, and Catalina, wife of Joris Remse, all my personal estate, to be equally divided, one half for my daughter Femmetje, and one half for my daughter Catalina. Item, I give and bequeath unto my grandson Johannis Ditmars, all and singular my lands, messuages, meadows, tenements, hereaditaments and appurtenances belonging to ye same, to have and to hold unto him my said grandson Johannis Ditmars and to his heirs and assigns forever, and it is also my will that my said grandson Johannis Ditmars shall pay unto my two daughters Femmetje and Catalina ye sum of Seven hundred pounds current money of New York, in four equal payments, ye first payment one year after my decease, and then yearly till it is paid, and ye said sum equally divided by my two daughters Femmetje and Catalina, share and share alike. Lastly, I do hereby nominate and appoint my daughter Femmetje Ditmars of Flatlands, and my son-in-law Joris Remse of Brucklen, all in Kings County, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, and I do hereby revoke, disannul and make void all and every other Testament Wills, Legacies and Executors in any ways before this time made, this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the year and date above written. ROELOF VOORHEES. [L.S.]

"In the name of God, Amen. I, John Voorhees of the Western Precinct of the County of Somerset and Eastern Division of the State of New Jersey, being sick and weak in body, but of perfect mind and memory—thanks be to God therefor—calling to mind that it is appointed once for all mankind to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, viz: First, I will that all my just debts and funeral charges be paid by my Executors hereinafter named. Second, I give and bequeath unto my wife Johannah, at the time of my decease, all the furniture and likewise the ready cash I had with at our marriage: also one cow, one hog, and fifty pounds in money to be paid in one year after my decease by my Executors, to her, her heirs or assigns forever. Third, I give and bequeath unto the children of my son Peter Voorhees, deceased, namely John and Phebe, all the estate that I have in my possession that was their fathers after his debts be paid, together with fifty pounds of my estate, share and share alike, but if either the said John or Phebe should die before they arrive to the full years of twenty one, or have lawful issue from their bodies, then the survivor shall take the whole to them, their heirs or assigns forever. Fourth, I give and bequeath unto my son John Voorhees all that lot of land whereon he now lives, and one other lot of land next to the farm where I now dwell, excepting two acres and one half of the meadow for the use of the said farm: Also all the land belonging to me lying in the Rocks, to have and hold the aforesaid lots of land (excepting the two acres and one half before mentioned) together with the buildings, priviledges and commodities to the same belonging, together with all the tools in the shop, the negro boy that now works for him, one large silver spoon, half of my wearing apparel, and one half of the silver belonging to them, to him the said John Voorhees, his heirs and assigns forever. Fifth, I give and bequeath unto my son Garret Voorhees my mahogany desk, my silver watch and half of my wearing apparel with half of the silver belonging to them, my Dutch Bible, one large silver spoon, and one hundred and fifty pounds to be put to interest, and the interest to help support him at learning, to him the said Garret Voorhees his heirs and assigns forever. Sixth, I give and bequeath unto my daughter Addie one large silver spoon, and my Holland Satchel, to her, her heirs and assigns forever. Seventh, I give and bequeath unto my daughter Elizabeth one large silver spoon, a small cupboard and table, forty pounds in money to buy her an outset. And to my daughter Phebe I give and bequeath one large silver spoon, one large looking-glass, and forty pounds in money to buy her an outset: the eighty pounds for the two girls to be put out at interest until such time as they may want the same, to them the said Elizabeth and Phebe, and their heirs and assigns forever. Eighth, I will that all my moveable estate be sold at the discretion of my Executors, and the money arising from the sale to be divided between Garret—Addie—Elizabeth and Phebe, share and share alike, the money of the three youngest to be put to interest until they arrive to the full age of twenty-one years or have lawful issue from their bodies, to them, their heirs and assigns forever. Ninth, I will that all my plantation whereon I now dwell, and the two acres and one half of meadow before mentioned, be sold or rented at the discretion of my Executors, and the interest or rent arising therefrom to go towards the support of Garrets learning, and bringing up Elizabeth and Phebe until they arrive to the full age of twenty one years, or have lawful issue from their bodies. My will further is that the money arising from the sale of my plantation be equally divided between Garret, Addie, Elizabeth and Phebe, share and share alike, at the time they arrive to the age aforesaid, or have lawful issue, but in case either of them should die before they arrive to the age aforesaid or have lawful issue, then and in that case the survivor or survivors, and my son John, shall divide that share or shares equally between them, share and share alike, to them, their heirs and assigns forever. Tenth and lastly, I do hereby nominate and appoint my son John Voorhees and David Couenhoven and Martin Voorhees my friends, my Executors of this my last Will and Testament revoking and disannulling all former Wills by me made and done. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty sixth day of October in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety three.

" Signed, sealed, pronounced and declared to be the last Will and Testament of John Voorhees in the presence of us (Before the ensealing and signing of these presents, the words 'Martin Voorhees' were interlined). Peter Van Voorhees, Jacob Schenck, John Voorhees.

" Peter Van Voorhees and John Voorhees two of the witnesses to the within Will being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, did depose and say, that they saw John Voorhees the Testator therein named sign and seal the same and heard him publish, pronounce and declare the within writing to be his last Will and Testament, and that at the doing thereof the said testator was of sound and disposing mind and memory as far as these deponents knew, and as they verily believe, and that Jacob Schenck the other subscribing

According to the "History of Bergen and Passaic Counties," he purchased from the Indians a plot of land on the Hackensack River between New Milford and Riveredge, Bergen Co., N. J. His Will, dated Jan. 5, 1768, proved Nov. 9, 1782, recorded in the Office of the Secretary of State of New Jersey, in Liber 25, p. 352, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen; the fifth day of January Anno Domini One thousand seven hundred and sixty-eight, I, Lucas Van Voorhees of Hackensack, in the County of Bergen and Province of East New Jersey, Yeoman, being in sound and perfect memory and understanding, thanks be to God, and calling to remembrance the uncertain state of this transitory life and that all flesh must yield unto death when it shall please God to call, do make, constitute, ordain and declare this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, revoking and annulling by these presents all and every other testament and testaments, will and wills heretofore by me made and declared either by words or writing and this is to be taken only to be my last Will and Testament and none other. And first being penitent and sorry from the bottom of my heart for my sins past, most humbly desiring forgiveness for the same, I do give and commend my soul unto God Almighty, my Saviour and Redeemer, and that my body be buried in such a manner and place where it shall please my children to appoint. And for the settling of my temporal estate and all such goods and chattels as it hath pleased God, far above my deserts, to bestow upon me, I do order, give and dispose of the same in manner and form following, viz. Imprimis, I will that all such debts which I owe in right and conscience to any person whatever shall well and truly be paid by my Executors hereafter named in conveniant time after my decease. Item, I give and bequeath unto my son Isak seventy acres of land on the north side of the road or highway opposite of my son Nicausie, that is upland and woodland. Item, I give and bequeath unto my son Hendrick Voorhees an equal third part of all the remainder of my land that is to say, upland and woodland, his part to be where he is now dwelling at present. Item, I give and bequeath unto my son Nicausie Voorhees an equal third part of all my land (except the seventy acres of my son Isak Voorhees) that is to say, upland and woodland, his part to be where he is now dwelling at present. Item, I will and bequeath unto my son Jacob Voorhees an equal third part of all my land (the seventy acres excepted as before) that is to say upland and woodland, his part to be where I am now dwelling at present, with the house and the barn and other privileges to the same belonging. Item, I will that my said son Jacob shall have all the utentials belonging to the farm, as waggons, sleds, ploughs, fans &c and also all the grain which will then be after my decease. Item, I will that my two sons Isak and Jacob shall each of them have three reasonable cows and each two sheep and two lambs. Item, I will that whensoever occasion may require the same, a house shall be built on the land of my son Isak where he may think fit and conveniant for his proper use, a house like that of my son Nicausie, and that the money which may be after my decease, shall be used for building the said house, and if not sufficient I will that then my sons Hendrick—Nicausie and Jacob shall each of them pay an equal fourth part of the charges that may arise by procuring the materials and building the said house. Item, I will and give unto my sons all my horses to be divided among them, namely Hendrick—Nicausie—Isak and Jacob. Item, I will and bequeath unto my five daughters, namely, Antye—Helena—Elizabeth —Grietje and Catrina, all the remainder of my moveables which shall be equally divided amongst them all, each an equal fifth part. Item, I will that my two sons Hendrick and Nicausie shall pay to my daughters, each of my sons one hundred pounds lawful money of New York, each of them paying fifty pounds four years after my decease, and each of them fifty pounds the year following, paying an equal share to each of them. Item, I will that my two sons Isak and Jacob shall likewise pay each party one hundred pounds, each fifty pounds six years after my decease, and each of them fifty pounds the year following, paying an equal share to all my daughters in general. I do likewise constitute, make and ordain my two eldest sons Hendrick and Nicausie to be my Executors of this my last Will and Testament. Item, I will that all that is herein granted and alloted shall be and remain unto each of them, their heirs and assigns forever.

" In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and year above written. LUCAS VOORHEES. [L.S.]

" Signed, sealed, published, pronounced and declared by the said Lucas Voorhees as his last Will and Testament in the presence of us, John Cooper, Peter Cooper, Arent Cuyper.

" Bergen County, State of New Jersey. Arent Cuyper one of the witnesses to the within Will being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, did depose and say that he saw Lucas Voorhees the testator therein named sign and seal the same and heard him publish, pronounce and declare the within writing to be his last Will and Testament, and that at the doing thereof the said testator was of sound and disposing mind and memory as far as this deponent knows and as he verily believes, and that John Cooper and Peter Cooper the other subscribing evidences were present at the same time and signed their names as witnesses to the said Will together with this deponent in the presence of the said testator.

ARENT CUYPER.

" Sworn at Bergen Aforesaid on the 9th day of November 1782 before me ABR' WESTERVELT, Surrogate.

" The foregoing Will being proved probate was granted by his Excellency William Livingston Esquire unto Hendrick Voorhees and Nicausie Voorhees Executors in the within Will named they being first duly sworn well and truly to perform the same, exhibit a true and perfect Inventory and render a just and true account when thereunto lawfully required.

" Given under the Prerogative Seal the day and year abovesaid.

He resided at Kinderkamack, Bergen Co., N. J., and his descendants write the family name "Voorhis."

His Will (a joint Will with his wife) dated Aug. 17, 1801, was lost after his death before being offered for probate, and was only found in May, 1884, and admitted to probate June, 1884, on the testimony of Hon. Henry H. Voorhis of Bergen Co., N. J., whose grandfather, Nicausie Van Voorhis, drew the Will, and who was familiar with his grandfather's handwriting, and the testimony of a Mrs. Hannah Van Dien, who describes a peculiarity of the testators' signature before she saw the Will. The Will is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. The seventeenth day of August in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and one, we Hendrick Van Voor Hezen and his wife Weybrigh, testify being a party in signing and sealing of this present writing as their last Will and Testament, of the precinct of New Barbadoes, in the County of Bergen and State of New Jersey, being of perfect mind and memory—thanks be to God for the same—and calling to our minds the mortality of our bodies and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, we do make and constitute, ordain and declare, this our last Will and Testament in manner and form following, We give and recommend our souls into the hand of God that gaveth them, and our bodies to be buried in such a manner and place where it shall please our children and friends to appoint. And for the settling of our temporal estate and all such goods and chattles as it hath pleased God to bestow upon us, we do order and dispose of the same in manner and form following; viz, Imprimis, I will that all such debts which I in right and conscience owe, shall be paid by my Executors in a conveniant time after my decease. Item, we will and bequeath unto our son Abraham Voor Hezen, for his birthright our Dutch Bible. Item, we will and bequeath unto our son Abraham Voor Hezen a lot of land of two hundred and six acres lying in the State of New York, north from the Mohawk River to him and his heirs and assigns forever. Item, we will and bequeath unto our son Lucas Voor Hezen, the house and lot of land where he now dwells at present, with all the land that appertains to the said lot and also two lots of woodland, the one lying at or near the land of Nicholas Demarest, and the other lot is to be five acres lying on the north side of the new road, beginning at the clear land, thence along the road to the westward to be two chains in breadth, and in length till it takes in five acres, to him and his heirs and assigns forever. Item, we will and bequeath unto our son Albert Voor Hezen, the house and lot of land where he now dwells at present, and also a lot of woodland of five acres next to that last mentioned lot of my son Lucas, to be two chains in breadth, to him and heirs and assigns forever. Item, we will and bequeath unto our son John Voor Hezen the house and land where he now dwells and also a lot of woodland of twelve acres lying on the north side of the new road; beginning on the west end of the woodland by the clear land, and so extending eastward to the above mentioned lots of Lucas and Albert, and so in breadth till it takes in twelve acres; and also another lot of thirteen acres lying between Nicausie Voor Hezen and Nicholas Demarest, to him and his heirs and assigns forever. Item, we will and bequeath unto our son Nicausie Voor Hezen the house and land where he now lives on the west end of the lot we now live on, the full breadth till it comes to the woods and then the north side of the woods till it meets a lot of woodland which shall hereafter be mentioned, to him and his heirs and assigns forever. Item, we will and bequeath unto our son Jacobus Voor Hezen the house and lot of land and meadow lying on the north side of John Zabriskie, known by the name of "Geeve" to him and his heirs and assigns forever. Item, we will and bequeath unto our son Hendrick Voor Hezen, the house and land where we are now dwelling and to have the full breadth till it comes to the woods where it meets the above mentioned lots of Lucas and Albert, then the north side, beginning by the clear land and so to the westward till it takes in twenty acres, to him and his heirs and assigns for ever. Item, we will and bequeath unto our three daughters, Annatie—and Catrina—and Helena, my house and lot in New York, which is now sold for the sum of two thousand dollars, of which each of them an equal share; of which Annatie is to have six hundred and sixty six dollars and five shillings and four pence, and of which Catrina is to have six hundred and sixty six dollars and five shillings and four pence, and of which Helena is to have six hundred and sixty six dollars and five shillings and four pence. Item, we will and bequeath unto our daughter Annatie a reasonable outset and furniture towards housekeeping, as my other two daughters have had, and also a negro girl named Jane. Item, we will and bequeath unto our daughter Catrina, out of my moveable estate, the sum of thirty pounds. Item, we will and bequeath unto our daughter Helena a negro girl named Beth. Item, we will and bequeath unto our daughter Annatie, shall have the privilege to remain in the house where we now dwell, if she should not happen to marry. Item, we will and bequeath our moveable estate and a small lot of woods lying in the Paramus meadow shall be divided among all my children, each an equal share, to them and their heirs and assigns forever. Item, we will and bequeath that if any of our sons should happen to die without heirs, then that part that was allotted unto him shall be equally divided among the remainder of my sons. Item, we will and bequeath that if any of our daughters should happen to die without heirs then that part that was allotted unto her shall be equally divided among her sisters. Item, we do likewise constitute, make and ordain our sons Lucas Voor Hezen and John Voor Hezen and Albert Voor Hezen, Executors of this our last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seals, the day and year above written.

"In the name of God, the twenty fourth day of August in the year of our Lord Christ One thousand eight hundred and twenty, We, Nicausie Voor Heysen and his wife Jannetie, testify to their being a party in signing and sealing of these presents writing as our last Will and Testament, of the Township of New Barbadoes, in the County of Bergen, and State of New Jersey, being of perfect minds and memory,—thanks be to God for the same—and calling to our minds the mortality of our bodies, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, we do make and constitute, ordain and declare this our last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, and we give and recommend our souls unto the hands of God that gaveth them, and that our bodies be buried in such a manner and place where it shall please our children and friends to appoint, and for the settling of our temporal estate and all such goods and chattels as it hath pleased God to bestow upon us, we do order, give and dispose of the same in manner and form following, viz, Imprimis, we will that all such debts which we in right and conscience owe, shall be paid by our Executors in a conveniant time after our decease. Item, We will and bequeath unto our son Albert, all the land and meadow where he now dwells and also another lot of woodland lying up the Saddle river on the west side of James Ackermans land, containing four acres and one half, be it more or less. Item, We will and bequeath unto our son Lucas, the house and land where he now dwells, and also the land on the south side of the road till it comes to a fence beginning by the road, then southerly a general course of the fence to a black oak young tree marked on two sides, from thence to the westward to a wallnut tree, thence west three pannels of fence, thence south as the fence stands till it comes to the fence on the north side of his house, and so along the fence till it comes to the Sluckup road; and also another lot on the north side of the road that leads to Paramus, on the west end of the land of Isaac Voor Heysen, containing nineteen acres be it more or less; and also another lot of woodland in the Paramus meadows, the north side one half of my lot; and also four acres of woodland by the long bridge beginning on the north line of Casparus Demarest, by the west

line of Isaac Voor Heysens woods one half of my breadth and so to the north till it takes in four acres. Item, We will and bequeath unto our son Hendrick the house and land on the south side of the road and on the west side of the Sluckup road, all the land that belongs to us, and also one half of a lot of meadow or woodland in the Paramus meadows, the south side and also four acres by the long bridge, beginning on the north side of Casparus Demarest line along the road one half of the breadth and so to the north till it takes in four acres. Item, We will and bequeath unto our five daughters named Annatie and Rachel and Metje and Jenne and Catie, the lot of land on the north side of the road towards the Steinraupie road containing forty two acres more or less, and also another lot of woodland over and by the long bridge, containing about twenty acres, be it more or less, each an equal share alike. Item, We will and bequeath unto our three sons Albert and Lucas and Hendrick, part of our moveable estate, as waggons and horses and slays and plows, and all the farming utensils each an equal share. Item, We will and bequeath unto our five daughters as above named all our moveable estate as housen-goods and obligations, cattle, sheep, hogs, and the black women, and the black men, all what is not here above mentioned each an equal share alike. Item, We will that our son Hendrick shall pay to our son Albert the sum of Sixty pounds lawfull money of New York one year after our decease. Item, We will that our son Hendrick shall pay to our five daughters as above named the sum of two hundred pounds of good and lawfull money of New York, to pay one hundred pounds one year after our decease and the year following one hundred pounds. Item, We will unto Albert and Hendrick that part that was allotted to them and their heirs and assigns forever. Item, We will that part that was alloted to Lucas, he shall have the full benefit during his lifetime but shall have no power to sell or convey it in any way except he has lawfull heirs, then it is to his heirs and assigns forever, but if he should come to die without heirs his wife must be maintained on that property during the time of her being his widow. Item, We will that if Lucas should come to die without heirs that part that was alloted to him shall be equally divided amongst the remainder of our children, sons and daughters, to them and their heirs and assigns forever. Item, We will and bequeath unto our son Albert our Dutch Bible. Item, We will and bequeath our pew in the North Church to our three daughters Annatie and Rachel and Catie, No. 38. Item, We will and bequeath unto our grandson Henry the two seats in a pew by Lucas, No 86. Item, We will that one of us the longest living shall have the whole of our estate. Item, We do likewise constitute, make and ordain Derrick Terhune and Casparus Demarest Executors of this our last Will and Testament. In Witness Whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals the day and year first above written.

"In the name of God, Amen. I Isaac Van Voorhease of the Township of New Barbadoes, in the County of Bergen, and State of New Jersey, being in health of body and of sound and disposing mind and memory and understanding—praised be God for the same—do make and publish this as and for my last Will and Testament. First, I give devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Ryntie Van Voorhease the use, management, profits and income of all my estate both real and personal, to have and to hold, use, occupy, possess and enjoy the same so long as she remains my widow, but if should think proper to marry again, then my will is that her interest in my estate above devised to her shall thereupon cease and in lieu thereof I do give and bequeath to her an annuity of One hundred and twenty dollars to be paid to her by my grandchildren hereinafter named, each to pay an equal proportion thereof and to her for her own use, on her own receipt, free from any control of her husband, the first payment to be made at the expiration of one year after her remarriage, and so on at the expiration of every year thereafter during her natural life and in order to secure the payment of the said annuity, I do hereby constitute the same a lien upon my real estate. After the death or remarriage of my widow, I do so dispose of my property as follows. That is to say, I give, devise and bequeath to my grandson Isaac Zabriskie, the son of my daughter Hannah, all that my farm or plantation whereon I now reside, situate in the Township of New Barbadoes in the County of Bergen, containing about one hundred and thirty acres, together with all the improvements thereon including part of the land I inherited from my father, and sixty acres which I purchased from my brother Jacob, excepting and reserving thereout for my granddaughter five acres of woodland to be taken from the west end of the woodlot, included in the above, and adjoining my brother Nicausies' land, and to extend the full width of the woodlot, to have and to hold the said farm or plantation unto him my said grandson, his heirs and assigns forever. I also give, devise and bequeath unto my said grandson and to his heirs and assigns forever, a tract or parcel of woodland lying about one mile from the homestead, which lot I inherited from my father, and is bounded on the south by lands late of Nicholas Demarest deceased, west by land of Richard Cooper deceased, north by land of Nicausie Voorhease, and east by land of Jacob Van Voorhease. Item, I give devise and bequeath to my granddaughter Hannah Zabriskie, the daughter of my daughter Hannah, and to her heirs and assigns forever, the five acres of woodland above excepted and reserved out of the farm or plantation devised to my grandson Isaac. I also give, devise and bequeath to my said granddaughter and to her heirs and assigns forever all that certain lot of land supposed to contain thirty acres which I purchased of Henry Van Voorhease adjoining the Kinderkamack road and the road leading from the old bridge to Paramus. I also give, devise and bequeath to my said granddaughter and to her heirs and assigns forever a lot of woodland which I inherited from my father containing about six acres more or less, lying in what is called the Paramus meadows, about one mile and one quarter from my homestead, bounded south by land of Nicausie Voorhease, west by the Paramus line, north by land of Jacob Voorhease and east by land of Nicholas Demarest deceased. I give and bequeath unto my said grandson Isaac Zabriskie all my horses and all my farming utensils which shall remain after the death or remarriage of my wife. Item, I give and bequeath unto my said grandson and my said granddaughter all the rest and residue of my personal estate which shall remain after the death or remarriage of my wife to be equally divided between them share and share alike, but my will is, and the devises and bequests to my grandchildren are made on this express condition that if either of them should die without leaving a child or children living entitled to inherit his or her portion of my estate at the time of his or her death, then the share of the one dying is to go to the survivor and to his or her heirs and assigns forever, and if both of my grandchildren shall die without leaving a child entitled to inherit their property at the time of their death, then and in such case, I give, devise and bequeath all my estate to my brothers and sisters and to the sisters of my present wife and to the children of such of them as shall then be dead, the children of the deceased to take one share equal to what their parent would have been entitled to if living, and in the same proportion as fixed by the statute regulating the descent of real property. And lastly, I do nominate, constitute and appoint my beloved wife Ryntie Van Voorhease the Executrix, and Garret A. Ackerman and Henry I. Van Voorhease the Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me made. In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this eighteenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

"In the name of God, Amen. I Jacob Voorhease of the Township of Harrington, in the County of Bergen, and State of New Jersey, being weak in body, but of sound mind, memory and understanding,—for which blessing I most devoutly thank my God—do make and publish, this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, that is to say. First; It is my will and order that my funeral charges and expenses, together with the expenses of rendering my estate shall be paid by my Executors or the survivors of them, hereinafter named, as soon as conveniently can be done after my decease, out of my personal estate; And further it is my will and order that my sons Henry Voorhease and Lucas Voorhease shall each pay half of all the rest and residue of all my just debts out of their own pockets. Item, I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Rachel and to her heirs forever, all that household furniture which my said wife has brought unto my possession of what nature or kind it may be and also the sum of One hundred and fifty dollars in cash, and one cow, which she has also brought with her, and also the one equal half of all the linnen sheets, pillow cases, and new linnens not made up which we have made since our intermarriage. Item, I give and bequeath unto my said wife and to her heirs forever my female slave named Gen, and also the sum of Two hundred and fifty dollars, in lieu of her right of dower; to be paid by my sons Henry and Lucas, each half, out of their own pockets. Item, it is also my will that my said wife Rachel shall be at her free election to stay and live in my house with my son Henry as long as she shall remain my widow, and in case she shall elect to stay with him, then and in that case my said son Henry must provide a decent support and livelihood for her as long as she shall be and remain there, but in case she shall elect to go from there and in that case my said son Henry shall be exonerated from said support. Item, I give and devise unto my son Albert Voorhease and to his heirs and assigns forever a lot of meadow lying in the meadow below Hackensack, in the Township of New Barbadoes, containing four acres being the same more or less. Item, I give and devise unto my said sons Henry Voorhease and Lucas Voorhease and to their heirs and assigns forever all the rest and residue of my lands and tenements which I have at Kinderkamack, lying in the Townships of Harrington and New Barbadoes with all the improvements thereunto belonging including both grist-mill and saw-mill, with all the water rights thereunto belonging and also all the apparatus belonging in said mills to be equally divided unto them both in quantity and quality. Item, I give and bequeath unto my said sons Henry, Albert and Lucas, and to their heirs and assigns forever all my Church seats which I have in the North Schraalenburgh Church, to be equally divided unto them. Item, I give and bequeath unto my sons Henry, Albert and Lucas, all my wearing apparel to be equally divided unto them, and their heirs forever. Item, I give and bequeath unto my son Henry and to his heirs forever, one cow, and my Dutch family Bible. Item, I give and bequeath unto my sons Henry and Lucas and to their heirs forever, two horses, the choice out of my horses, one wagon, one set of wagon harness, one pleasure sleigh, one wooden sleigh, one plough, one harrow, and my negro boy named Tom, during the time of his service, and also all the crops of grain, potatoes and grass or hay, that may be on my land or in the barn or elsewhere, of that years growing in which my decease may take place, to be equally unto them, share and share alike. Item, I give and bequeath unto all my children namely Henry, Lucas, Albert, Hannah, Catherine, Sarah, and Elizabeth, and to their heirs forever, all the rest and residue of my personal estate to be equally divided unto them share and share alike. Item, It is my will and order that my sons Henry Voorhease and Lucas Voorhease shall pay a legacy of Twelve hundred dollars, and to pay each half of said sum in four equal shares unto my four daughters namely Hannah, Catherine, Sarah and Elizabeth, each of them one share in two equal payments, that is to say, the one half of each share in four years time after my decease, and the other half in one years time thereafter. But in case any of my said daughters should happen to die before the legacy is paid then and in that case the legacy of the deceased must be paid unto her heirs. Item, And lastly I do hereby appoint my son Henry Voorhease and my trusty friends Isaac Bogert and Henry H. Voorhease Executors of this my last

His Will, dated Jan. 22, 1818, proved Feb. 18, 1822, recorded in the Surrogate's Office of Bergen Co., N. J., in Liber B., p. 346, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. I Albert Van Voorhis, of the Precinct of New Barbadoes, in the County of Bergen and State of New Jersey being of a sound and disposing mind and memory—thanks be given unto Almighty God for the same—and calling to mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say, Principally and first of all, I recommend my soul to God that gave it, to receive forgiveness for all my sins through the merits and atonement of our blessed Saviour Jesus Christ, and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in a decent, christianlike manner at the discretion of my Executors hereafter named, not doubting but at the general Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God; and as touching such worldly estate as has pleased God to bless me in this life, I do give and dispose of the same in the following manner, viz, After my just debts and funeral charges are paid, which are to be paid out of my Personal estate by my Executors, but if the said Personal estate should not be sufficient to pay all my said debts and funeral charges, I do hereby authorize and empower my Executors, the survivors or survivor of them to sell at public or private sale, as they shall think best, so much of my Real estate in Bergen County as will pay the said debts and charges. Item, I do give and bequeath unto my well beloved wife Rachel a good and decent maintainance out of my estate in Bergen County during her natural life if she shall remain my widow, But in case she should remarry I give to her and to her heirs and assigns forever one good feather bed, bedstead, bedding and curtains, together with all her wearing apparel, also one good cow, and such other articles of household furniture as shall be necessary for her to keep house. And further I do order and direct that my second son Henry Van Voorhis pay to my said wife annually the sum of forty five dollars during her natural life in case of her remarriage in lieu of her right of dower in my estate. Item, I do give and devise unto my eldest son Albert Van Voorhis and my third son Andrew Van Voorhis, and to their heirs and assigns forever all the farm I purchased of Andrew Zabriskie situate, lying and being in the Township of Oppenhein, in the County of Montgomery and State of New York, with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging, containing about one hundred and sixty acres more or less, to be equally divided between my two sons Albert and Andrew share and share alike. And whereas I have advanced money and paid several debts for my son Albert and he in lieu thereof has left with me the schooner called the 'Humming Bird' and a mare and sleigh, for the above mentioned articles I do order and direct that my said son Albert and his heirs be discharged from the payment of any debts or demands which I have against him at this time. Item, I do give and devise unto my second son Henry Van Voorhis and to his heirs and assigns forever all my real estate in Bergen County, containing about one hundred and fourteen acres subject to be sold in case my personal estate shall be insufficient to pay my debts, Likewise I do bequeath unto my said son Henry Van Voorhis the remainder of my personal estate if any there should be, he paying therefore, real and personal, the following legacies within one year after my decease, viz, To my eldest daughter Cornelia or her heirs the sum of one hundred and thirty five dollars with what I have given her is her full share of my estate. To my second daughter Elizabeth or her heirs, the sum of one hundred and twenty five dollars with what I have heretofore given her is her full part of my estate. To my third daughter Lanah or her heirs the sum of one hundred and twenty five dollars with what I have heretofore given her is her full share in my estate. Lastly, I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my well beloved friends Josiah Johnson, Andrew Zabriskie, and Abraham Devoe Junior, Executors of this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking and annulling all other former Wills by me in anywise heretofore made.

"In witness whereof, I Albert Van Voorhis have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty second day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

His Will, dated Nov. 24, 1817, proved Nov. 5, 1822, recorded in the Surrogate's Office, of Bergen Co., N. J., in Liber B., p. 389, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. I Albert Van Voorhis of the Township of New Barbadoes in the County of Bergen and State of New Jersey, knowing the uncertainty of this mortal life and being of sound and perfect mind and memory—thanks be to Almighty God for the same—do make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner following, recommending my soul unto him that made me, and hoping for salvation through the merits of Christ Jesus, and also my body to the earth from whence it came, to be buried in a decent manner at the discretion of my executors hereinafter named, not doubting but at the General Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of Christ my Redeemer, and as touching such worldly estate wherewith the Lord hath pleased to bless me in this life, I give, devise, dispose and bequeath in manner following. First, It is my will that all my debts be paid and settled out of my Real estate provided the debt is for land, if not it is to be paid out of my Personal estate. Secondly, I give and bequeath unto my son Isaac Van Voorhis, his heirs and assigns, all my Real estate that is all my lands and tenements or freehold estate whatsoever, to hold to him the said Isaac Van Voorhis, his heirs and assigns forever. It is likewise my will that my said son Isaac shall have my wagon and all my farming utensils, also my weaver's loom, my cross-cut saw, and such one of my guns as he shall choose, likewise all the tackling belonging to said loom aforesaid such as reeds &c, also one fourth part of my Pew or seats in the Hackensack Meetinghouse. Thirdly, I give and bequeath unto my three daughters, viz., Osseltje, Jane and Hannah, their heirs and assigns each an equal share of my Personal estate, that is Bonds, Notes, Book accounts, monies, and whatsoever the same may be, excepting the above articles made to my son Isaac. I likewise will that if any of the before mentioned children—Isaac—Osseltje—Jane—and Hannah, should happen to die without leaving any heirs coming forth from their bodies, then in such case that portion which should fall to such of my heirs, shall be equally divided among my surviving heirs. Lastly, I appoint constitute and ordain Peter I. Demarest, my son Isaac Van Voorhis, and Cornelius C. Bogert, Executors of this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me made heretofore. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty fourth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventeen. ALBERT VAN VOORHIS. [L.S.]

"Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Albert Van Voorhis to be his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us who have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses, in the presence of the testator and of each other, Jacob A. Terhune, James Loromer."

On Aug. 17, 1720, he purchased with his brother William Albertse Van Voorhees, from John Barbarie, Jan Conover, and Andrew Tresmar of New York City, 550 acres of land at Wyckoff, Saddle River, New Jersey, which tract was divided between the heirs of Jan and William, by deed dated May 7, 1767. His Will, dated Jan. 1, 1757, proved Sept. 23, 1767, recorded in the Office of the Secretary of State of New Jersey in Liber I., p. 270, is as follows :

(LVIII. JAN ALBERTSE VAN VOORHEES.)

"In the name of God, Amen; the first day of January and in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred, fifty and seven, I, John Van Voorhis of Paramus, County of Bergen and Province of East New Jersey, Yeoman, being in a common measure of health and in perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God therefore, calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say, Principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul into the hands of God that gave it, and for my body I recommend it to the Earth to be buried in Christian like and decent manner at the discretion of my Executors nothing doubting but at the General Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God, and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form. First it is my will and desire that my executors hereinafter mentioned shall discharge and pay all my lawful debts out of my estate, and likewise use all lawfull means for getting in all that is owing unto me by bond, bill, book debt or otherwise &c. Secondly, it is my will that my well beloved wife Elizabeth Van Voorhis shall have the full command of all, so long as she remains my widow; if she should marry she must carry nothing with her but her wearing apparel, and if her husband should die, and she should be left in want, she must return to her sons and they must find her a good living as long as she lives. And as for Albert my eldest son he must have the great Bible first off for his birthright. And the farm I now live on is to be divided equally between my two sons Albert and Adam; the south side is Albert's and the north side is to be Adam's with all the buildings orchards, &c belonging to the old place. The waggons, sleds, plows, harrows with all the tackling thereunto belonging, is to be for my two sons first off, to be divided between them share and share alike. But if Adam should die before he marries, Albert must have his choice whether he will live on the side he is settled on, or if he will have the old place &c. But if Adam or Albert or any of them die without heirs of their bodies by their wives, the wife or wives must have a third part of the moveables and half a child's part of the land estate, besides that they brought with them, they must have that first off. And as for my son

(LVIII. JAN ALBERTSE VAN VOORHEES.)

Adam and my daughter Rachel, if I should die before they are married, they are to be fitted out with every thing according as the rest was; and likewise if my wife cannot agree to live with her sons, that is if she should marry again and be left as aforesaid, then she may live with any of her daughters, and her sons must agree with their said sister and pay the said agreement for the maintenance of their mother, as also the woodland upon the said farm as abovesaid is common to both boys. And all the rest of my moveable estate is to be equally divided among my four daughters excepting what is before excepted, viz, waggons, plows, sleds &c. And likewise my land estate, if my sons should die without heirs, as aforesaid all to be divided share and share alike, only my sons wives, if any be alive they must have half a child's share, their names as follows, viz, Lena Ackerman, Elizabeth Post, Margaret Laroe and Rachel Van Voorhis, to them, their heirs and assigns forever, to have and to hold unto the said Albert Van Voorhis, Adam Van Voorhis, Lena Van Voorhis, Elizabeth Van Voorhis, Margaret Van Voorhis and Rachel Van Voorhis, to them, their heirs and assigns forever. And for the true performance of all and every clause and articles abovesaid, I do likewise constitute, make and ordain my true and loving wife Elizabeth Van Voorhis my only and sole Executrix, with her son Albert, and son-in-law Peter Post, for assistance in executing of this my last Will and Testament according to law, hoping they will well and truly perform all and every particular clause and article of this my last Will and Testament as is above specifyed; so confiding in their good management I content myself, and do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disannul all and every other former Testaments, Wills and legacies, bequests and executors, by me in any ways beforetime named, willed and bequeathed, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto sett my hand and seal the day and year above written. JAN VAN VOORHEES. [L.S.]

"Signed, sealed, published, pronounced and declared by the said John Van Voorhis as his last Will and Testament in the presence of us the subscribers viz, Cumrat Van Allman, Isack Van Blerecum, Will Cairns. My sons wives the[illegible] ment'd to a third part of their husbands moveables is to be understood.

(LVIII. JAN ALBERTSE VAN VOORHEES.)

"Be it remembered, that on the 23rd day of September 1767, Isaac Van Blaricum, one of the witnesses to the within Will personally came before me Lewis Ogden duly authorized to prove Wills and qualify Executors &c, and he being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists did depose that he was present and saw John Van Voorhis the testator within named sign and seal the within written instrument and heard him publish, pronounce and declare the same to be his last Will and Testament, and that at the doing thereof the testator was of sound mind and memory to the best of his knowledge and understanding and that at the same time Cumrat Van Allman and William Cairns were present and signed their names as did he also sign his name as a witness in the testators presence. LEWIS OGDEN, Surrogate.

"Probate granted by Gov'r Franklin (in the usual form) Dated the same 23rd day of September 1767.

CHA' READ, Reg'r."

1. John C., b. Dec. . . , 1731; d. , 1804; m., Jan. 28, 1776, Margaret Van Zandt, b. Jan. 7, 1760; d. .
He resided in Somerset Co., New Jersey. His Will (a joint Will with his wife), dated May 6, 1805, proved Nov. 3, 1807, recorded in the Office of the Surrogate of Somerset County, New Jersey, in Liber A., p. 151, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. I John Voorhees of the County of Somerset and State of New Jersey, being of health of mind and memory, thanks be given unto God, calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say, Principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it, and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in a decent Christian burial at the discretion of my Executors hereinafter named, nothing doubting but at the general Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God, And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me with in this life, I give and devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form. First, I give and bequeath unto my well beloved wife Margaret Voorhees all and singular my lands and tenements, together with all my moveable estate, rights and credits whatsoever to me belonging, during and for the term she remains my lawful widow, the profits arising therefrom to be at her own disposal on the following condition, to pay all my just and lawful debts therefrom. Secondly, After the marrying or decease of my beloved wife above named, I give and bequeath all my lands and tenements unto my five sons named John Voorhees, Nicholas Voorhees, Abraham Voorhees, Jeremiah Voorhees and Hendrick Voorhees, to be equally divided between them at the discretion of my Executors hereinafter named, to them their heirs and assigns forever, on the following conditions, that my five sons before mentioned do pay into the hands of my Executors the sum of four hundred pounds, each share and share alike, to be paid by my Executors unto my four daughters namely, Mary, Margaret, Crecy and Jane, in four equal yearly payments the first to begin in one year after they have full possession of my lands, each share to be one hundred pounds, to them their heirs and assigns forever, to be paid to them at the discretion of my Executors, when they think proper to be by them paid, by my Executors out of my real estate. Third, I give and bequeath unto Catherine Dumont my grand daughter the sum of fifty pounds to be paid by my five sons, equal share and share alike, out of my real estate five years after they have possession of my lands, to be paid into the hands of my Executors and by them paid to her at their discretion, to her her heirs and assigns forever. And it is my will that all my moveable estate as soon as conveniant after the marrying or decease of my wife be equally divided between my sons and four daughters share and share alike, to them, their heirs and assigns forever. The shares of my four daughters to remain in the hands of my Executors and by them paid unto them at their discretion, and if any of my sons or daughters should come to die without issue, then his or her share to be equally divided between the surviving children. I further make, ordain and appoint my beloved wife Margaret Voorhees, Abraham Voorhees and Simon Duryea, all of Somerset County, State of New Jersey, Executors of this my last Will and Testament.

"In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seals this sixth day of May in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and five, and I do hereby utterly disallow all and every former Wills and Testaments to the day above written, and I do ratify and confirm this my last Will and Testament the day as above written.

MARGARET VOORHEES. [L.S.]

"Signed, sealed, published, pronounced and declared by the said John Voorhees and Margaret his wife as his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names. Garret Van Zant, John Duryea, Hezekiah Sortor.

"Garret Van Zant, John Duryea, and Hezekiah Sortor, witnesses to the within Will being duly sworn according to law, did severally depose and say, that they saw John Voorhees the testator therein named, sign and seal the same, and heard him publish, pronounce and declare the within writing to be his last Will and Testament, and that at the doing thereof the said testator was of sound disposing mind and memory, as far as these deponents know and as they verily believe, and that they signed their names in the presence of each other and of the testator. John Duryea, Garret V. Zant, Hezekiah Sortor.

"Sworn at Somerset, before me, November 3, 1807, by JOS. DOTY, Surrogate."

He resided in Montgomery Township, Somerset County, New Jersey. His Will, dated May 28, 1819, proved June 14, 1819, recorded in the Office of the Surrogate of Somerset Co., N. J., in Liber B., p. 286, is as follows:

"In the name of God, Amen. I Okey Voorhees of the Township of Montgomery in the County of Somerset and State of New Jersey, being sick and weak in body but of sound mind and memory, blessed be God for the same, do make and order this my last Will and Testament, in Manner and form following, Imprimis, I order all my just debts and funeral charges to be paid by my Executors out of my moveable estate. Item, I give and bequeath to my son Peter the farm or plantation I now live on and the lot of woodland I possess joining the farm of Peter Sutphin and others, together with, and all the appurtenances unto the said two tracts belonging, or in anywise appertaining, to him his heirs and assigns forever, and if my said son Peter die before he is of age, and not leaving issue, then and in such case I give devise and bequeath the said landed property to my second son David. Item, I give and bequeath unto my son David the farm or plantation commonly called 'the Rocky Hill farm' and the lot of woodland I possess in the mountain joining the lots of Abraham Voorhees, Abraham Skillman and others, together with, and all the appurtenances unto the said two tracts belonging or in anywise appertaining, to him, his heirs and assigns forever, and if my said son David die before he is of age and not leaving lawful issue, then and in such case I give devise and bequeath the said landed property to my son Peter. Item, I give and bequeath unto my son David Fifteen hundred dollars when he arrives to the age of twenty one, to him his heirs and assigns forever. Item, I give and bequeath unto each of my sons Peter and David a bed, bedstead and bedding. Item, I give and bequeath unto each of my sons a table. Item, I give and bequeath unto each of my sons a looking-glass. Item, I give and bequeath unto each of my sons a half dozen chairs. Item, I give and bequeath unto each of my sons a spinning-wheel. Item, I give and bequeath unto my son Peter the clock. Item, I give and bequeath unto my sons each a pair of silver shoe-buckles. Item, I give and bequeath unto each of my sons a gold ring. Item, I give and bequeath unto my sons all the rest residue and remainder of my personal estate, goods and chattels of what kind soever to be equally divided between them when they arrive to the age of twenty one years. Lastly, I constitute and appoint John Ten Brook, and my brother's son, John Voorhees, or the survivor of them Executors of this my last Will and Testament, ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twentieth day of May in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and nineteen.

OKEY VOORHEES. [L.S.]

Andrew Hagamen, Garrit Van Zant, Wm. H. Perrine.

"After the signing, sealing and delivery of the specified Items of this my last Will and Testament, I do authorize and command my Executors to give my negro man Sam his freedom and manumission at the expiration of six years from the first of May Eighteen hundred and nineteen provided he conforms to an Article of Agreement mutually agreed and sealed between us the eleventh day of May Eighteen hundred and thirteen, declaring this to be a supplement to my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty first day of May Eighteen hundred and nineteen. OKEY VOORHEES. [L S.]

" Andrew Hagamen, Jehiel Squier, Wm. H. Perrine.

" Andrew Hagamen and Garret Van Zant, two of the witnesses to the within Will, and Andrew Hagamen witnesses to the codicil thereunto annexed, being duly sworn did depose and say, that they saw Okey Voorhees the testator therein named sign and seal the said Will and Codicil and heard him pronounce, publish and declare the within writing to be his last Will and Testament and Codicil and that at the doing thereof, the said testator was of sound and disposing mind and memory as far as these deponents know and as they verily believe, and that William W. Perrine the other subscribing evidence to the said Will was present at the same time and signed his name as witness to the said Will together with these deponents in the presence of the testator, and that Jehiel Squier and William W. Perrine the other subscribing evidences to the said Codicil, were present at the same time, and signed their names as witnesses to the said Codicil, together with these deponents, in the presence of the testator. Garrit Van Zandt, Andrew Hagamen.

"Sworn at Somerville, June 14, 1819, before me,

JNO. FREELINGHUYSEN, Surrogate."
